THIS WAS THE SCHOOL you selected. These are the friends you made, the life you lived in '58-'59, the memories you will recall forever. Only in a land of the free can such a year be recorded . . .

THE AMA

Foreword

Reveille! Reveille! A shrill note of awareness! Skies, once uncluttered except with clouds, blossomed suddenly with Sputniks, Vanguards, Atlas missiles, Luniks, and even Congressional investigations in '58-'59.

Reveille! Wake UP! And that's what's happened to all of us this year. We've learned what it means to have a choice of schools, courses, friends, athletics and faith. No longer can there be any "beatniks" in education.

Reveille! It's time to scratch beneath the surface—to learn more—to keep our country ahead. And that's what's been going on at AMA—a reawakening. This is how it's been at Augusta . . .

to the "BIG BOY" ...

WITH ANTICIPATION, the corps waits for the big news—who's won first at Sunday Parade. Col. Roller prepares to address "his boys".

"Take it to the 'Big Boy' or the 'Boss'!" And that's what thousands of boys have done for the past fifty-eight years at Augusta. They've taken their problems, their sorrows, joys and achievements to their beloved principal, Col. Chas. S. Roller, Jr., and to Mrs. Roller.

This is a big year for Col. and Mrs. Roller. On September 8 they will celebrate fifty years of married life and the "Big Boy" will celebrate his 80th birthday anniversary. During '58-'59, every cadet and faculty officer learned just what Col. Roller meant to them when he became ill in October. No longer were there the friendly talks before lunch—the announcements at parade—the excitement of the banquets—but through it all, Mrs. Roller carried on and made everyone realize that it was a team which had built Augusta to the high place which it holds now.

Strict, but fair, strong, but kind, Col. Roller has been a model for "his" boys in the classroom, on the athletic field, and in the military department. The Colonel's classes have always been strict, with the old-fashioned and needed drill system used to instill knowledge in his students.

After graduation from V. M. I., Col. Roller returned to his school, which had long been associated with the Roller name. From that September in 1901 right up to the present, "Big Boy" has maintained close contact with his students—in the classroom with a minimum of three classes a day—on the athletic field with impromptu visits to keep the boys on the ball—and on the drill field to issue commands to every platoon.

Following his illness, Colonel found out the love his boys held for him when he entered the Mess Hall for the first time in two months. A roar of genuine delight issued from every cadet and each member of his loyal faculty.

Devoting the majority of his time to AMA, Col. Roller has given freely of his spare time to the Augusta Old Stone Presbyterian Church, where he has been a deacon and elder for 28 years; to the Kiwanis International, to the Sons of Confederate Veterans, to the Ruritan Club and to many educational and scientific organizations.

But to AMA, Col. and Mrs. Roller have given their love, their time, their lives. To a couple who number great men and women as their friends, their proudest moment still comes when one of their boys turns to them for help and says, "You are MY friend."

For all that Col. and Mrs. Chas. S. Roller, Jr. have been to us and to the thousands of AMA alumni before us, we wish a happy 50 and 80 and with love dedicate to them the 1959 RECALL.

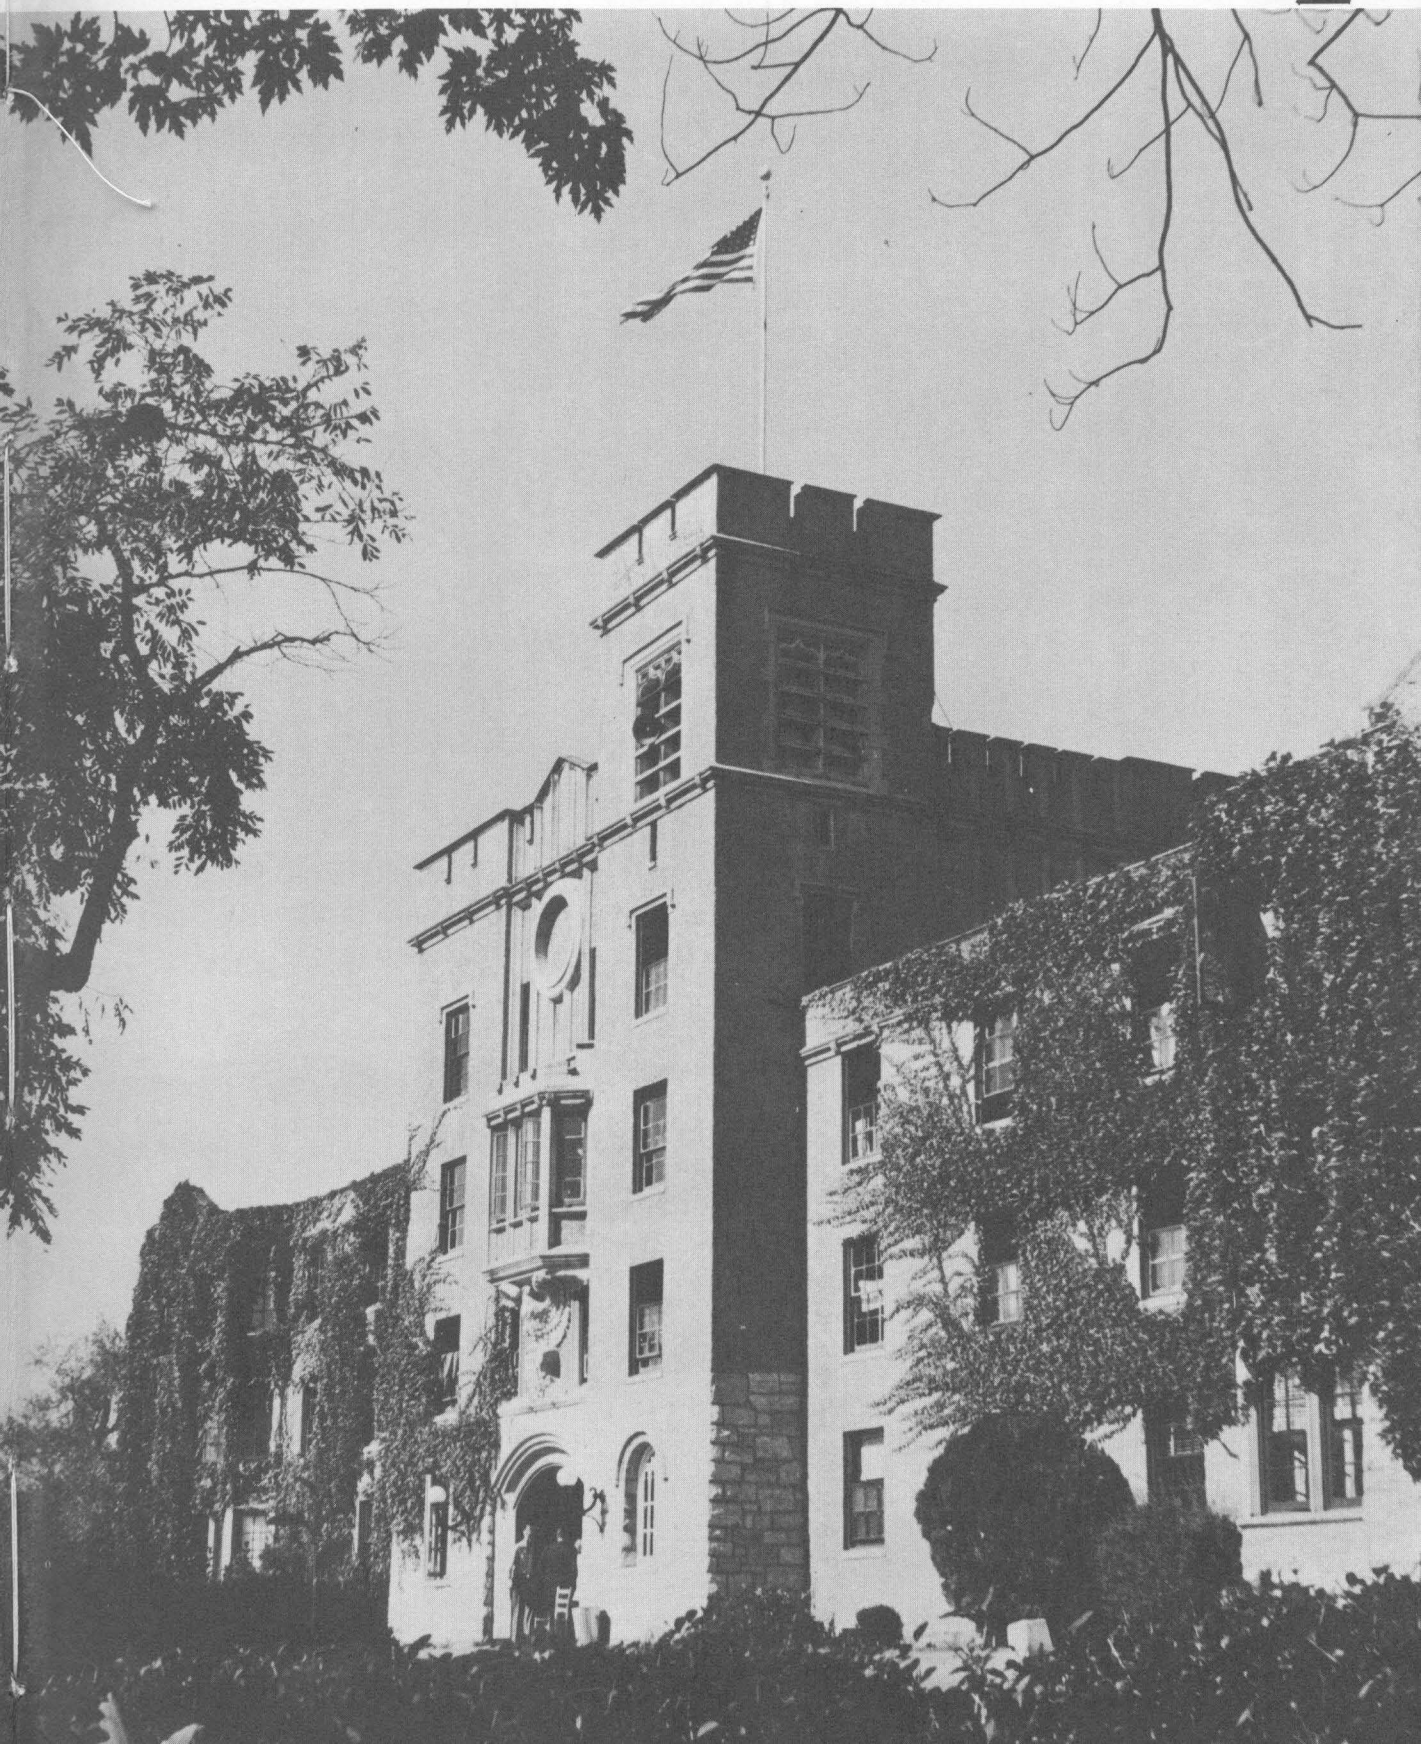

BELLS RING . . . stomachs growl . . . and the sixth period is over! Lunch time can't be far away when the boys rush to formation from the Academic Building, scene of academic struggles on weekdays, movies on Saturday nights, and the YMCA on Sundays.

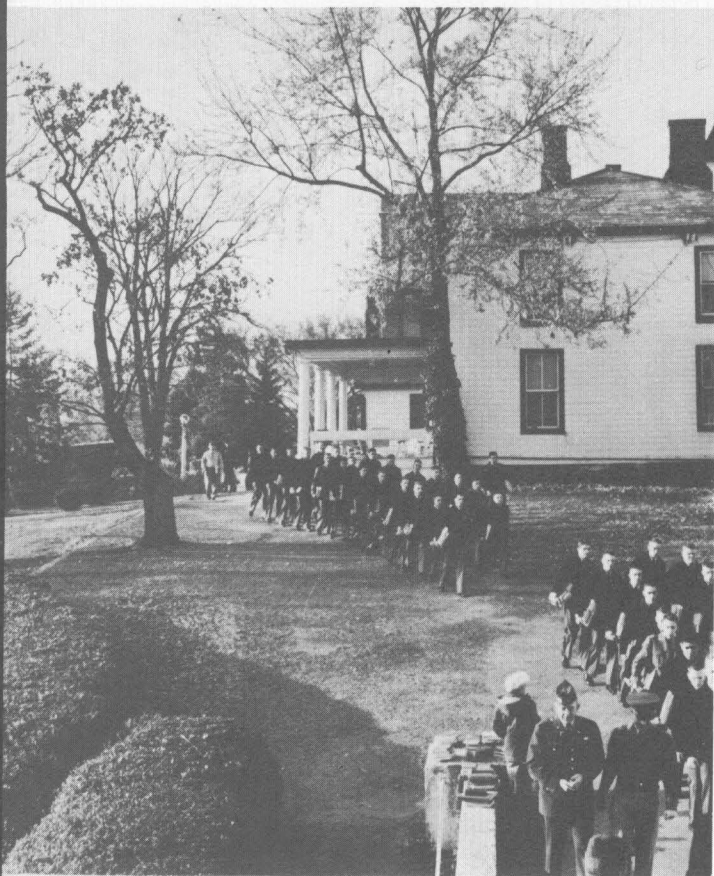

SUMMERTIME . . . for weeks, the weather made the main barracks a deserted spot, as the boys played Spring sports in January . . . then, bang! Temperatures plunged from 75 to 5 in one day and the snows came once more.

HOME? . . . yes, to every boy who enters and enters into the spirit of Augusta, the main barracks is a real home. The uniform room, book room, movie library, offices, laundry room, armory and post office give it the distinction of being the center of cadet life.

Cadet life is a world in itself . . .

EAGER, ENTHUSIASTIC, ENERGETIC . . . to the beat of drums, the corps marches past the "Ole House" to assembly in the "Big Room", for morning prayer and announcements, signaling the start of classes.

EVACUATION FROM DEANE'S CASTLE . . . just as recess begins, Timberlake, Barber, McVey, J. H. Morris and Van Evera take a break from classes, showing no strain—no strain.

Built in 1926, Memorial Gymnasium is one of the largest prep school gyms in the country. Scene of basketball games, wrestling meets, rifle matches, and swimming meets, it is also used for classrooms by the Military Department, for dances from the Opening Informal to the Final Ball, for plays, and for the big day—graduation!

... Freedom to learn, and to play ...

When big barracks was built in 1914, Col. Roller and his brother, Col. Thomas J. Roller, saw their dreams fulfilled. From a school of ten day students after the Civil War, AMA had mushroomed from the "Ole House" to a modern community.

Then came the $500,000 gymnasium in 1926, a new memorial archway and drive in 1940, and with his eye on the science of the future, Col. Roller had a new science hall built in 1947, as a memorial to his brother.

New equipment and yearly expansion have been keywords to Col. Roller. Biology was added to the curriculum in 1947, and in 1953, geology was started, giving AMA the distinction of being one of the few schools in the United States to have such a course on the prep school level.

Ever looking ahead, Col. Roller wants to add more science equipment, to build a new mess hall, and to enlarge all facilities at Fort Defiance. At Augusta, there is, indeed, incentive to learn, freedom to play.

The Academy

Progress—'59 . . . new members of the faculty . . . added strength to continue the program of a good, sound academic background for each cadet at Augusta.

Men and women to guide the individual . . . to develop freedom of thought . . . to create incentive in each cadet for the huge task ahead . . . to open new worlds of knowledge.

Courses tightened and strengthened to supplement the work of the instructor . . . problems in math and sciences once seen only in college texts . . . place mats at lunch to interest all in astronomy and the space age.

Study time stressed . . . more inspectors to give help and to prevent backsliding . . . longer study hours at exam time. This is the picture of a private school and the faculty which personify progress—'59.

BRAIN TRUST . . . the Big Three pose briefly during Government Inspection time. Col. Roller, Miss Walker and Col. Deane take a breather from their duties.

PLEASANT DUTIES . . . Col. Deane, headmaster, and Col. McCue, vice chairman of the Academic Board, hand out diplomas and congratulate each cadet during graduation exercises. Ted Strong happily shakes hands and receives congratulations.

Capt. C. Peduto

Post Steward

SUGGESTING IMPROVEMENTS . . . Major Sizer and Col. McCue get together to draw up a list to be presented to the Board and then to Col. Roller. Chairman of the Board is Col. Deane, with Col. J. C. McCue as vice chairman. New members in '59 were Major Koogler and Major Wales.

Influencing our every move is the Academic Board

PERMITS FOR SENIORS . . . closely scrutinizing those eligible for permits are Major Wales, Major Kramer, Major Lucus (seated) and Major Koogler and Major Savedge. Additionally, all Honor Committee and Student Body Officer actions must be reviewed by the Board.

CHECKING grades, records, eligibility . . . that's the endless task of members of the Academic Board. Major Hoover and Col. Gardner figure averages for the month, as Col. Deane and Col. McCrum compile the list of seniors. This list will be later studied by every member of the Board and by Col. Roller.

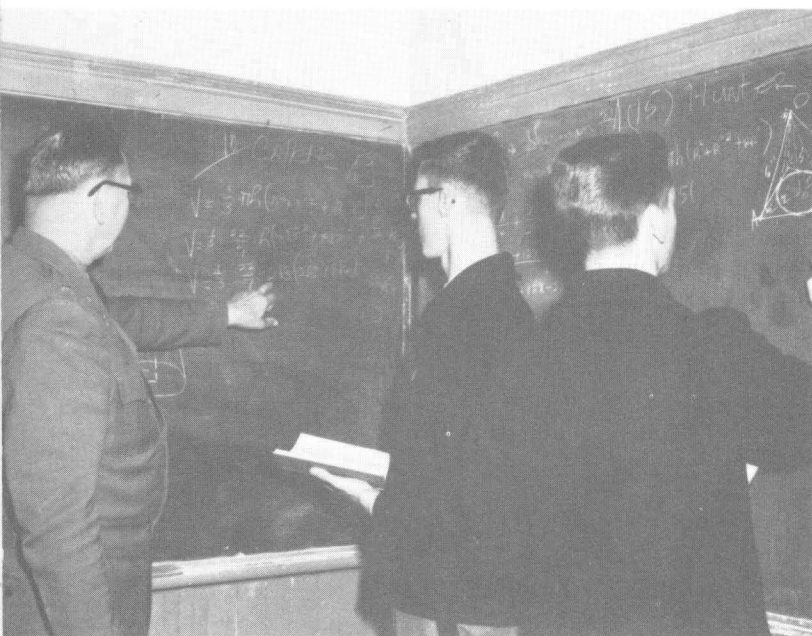

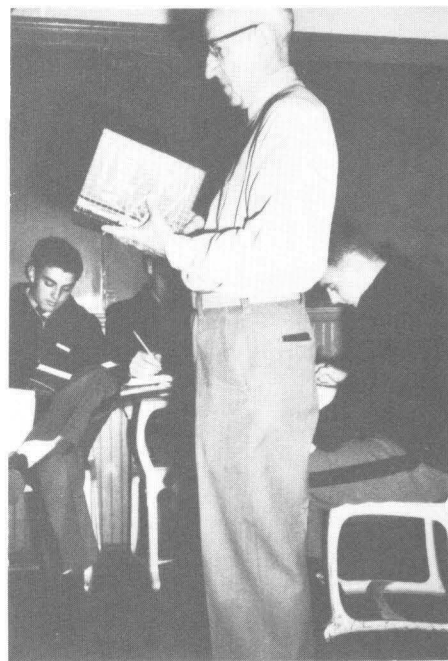

New texts, new problems elevate AMA's Math courses...

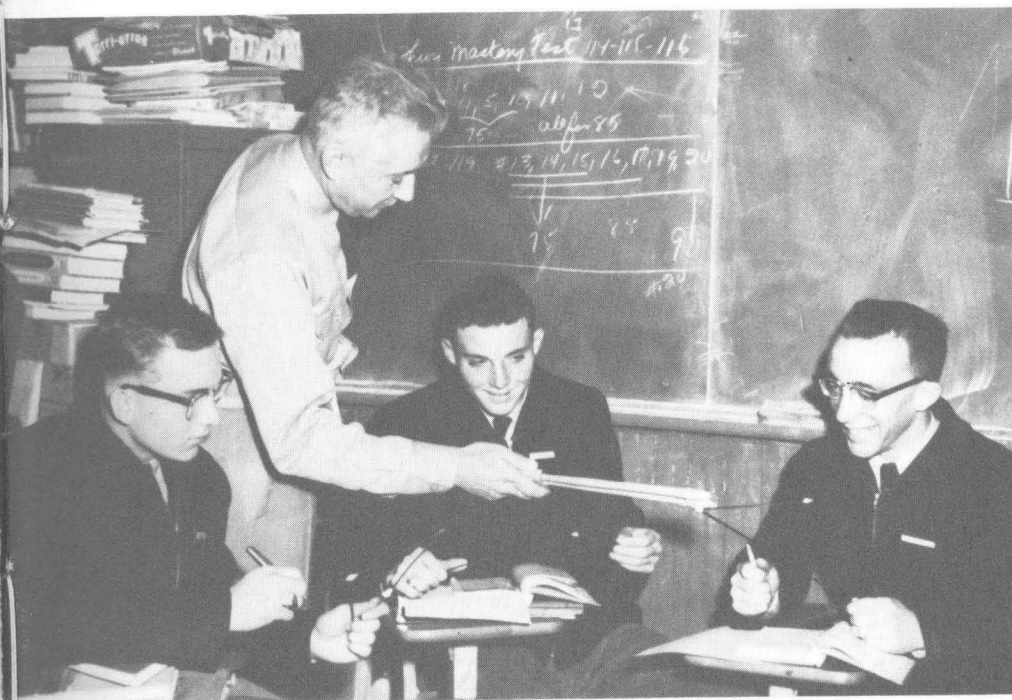

INCREDIBLE . . . but it's true . . . Col. Roller won't allow himself to stay home and rest! Oh, no! He has to see his college algebra class and run over the rules and methods of solving trinomials. Snell is as surprised at Col. Roller's constant interest as he is in how to do the work.

SHOWING OFF THE NEW TEXT? . . . Col. McCrum gives speed problems to his cadets in algebra II. Some of the boys don't like the numerous new word problems, but they'll be happy about their background when they move on to college.

BOARD WORK AND DRILL . . . Major Kramer doesn't allow anyone a chance to fall behind. Every day, there's either work at the board or seat drill. Catlette has his work corrected and Hunter tries to finish on time.

... as every cadet shows progress on achievement tests.

DON'T TAKE A HOLIDAY FROM LEARNING . . . Paul Brown, Bill Mayne and Bob Smoyer find that Major Hoover's course during the summer at the University of Virginia gave him all sorts of new ideas. It's "Plane" that he's getting the point over to the class.

OBVIOUSLY, IT'S BECOMING CLEAR . . . Jim Crawford doesn't hesitate to ask Col. McCue for help and he finds that he has a willing teacher. Col. McCue helped out when Col. Roller was absent for two months.

Boys taking N.R.O.T.C. exams, merit scholarships, service academy exams and college boards have found that they MUST know math.

With the improvement in textbook selection, the students have found that there is a degree of difficulty not experienced before, but this will just help to prepare them better for college.

Added to the faculty in late January was Lt. Frank Thorne, B.S. from the University of Maryland and M.S. from N. C. State. Lt. Thorne majored in mathematics.

Basic to our learning is English . . . and no greater s

A SHORT FELLOW reads Longfellow . . . Herb Widener reads aloud in Major Koogler's class. No other teacher is as known for his lengthy reviews as is Major Koogler.

There is just no escape! But who would want to, if he really desires a college background? Every year at AMA, there must be an English course on the cadet's schedule, and the ACE's prove that this requirement is effective.

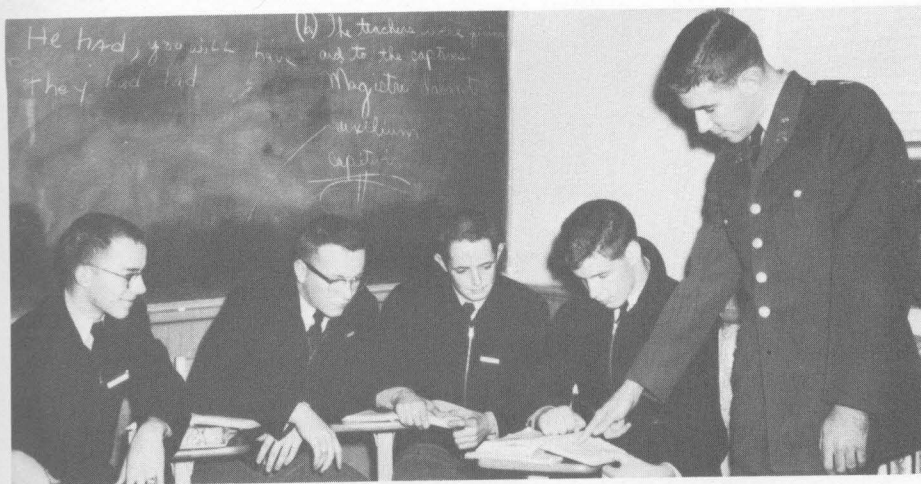

Coming back to AMA in January was Capt. Saunders, who also was a part of the history department. Capt. Hanson, Capt. Knight and Capt. Kivlighan round out the English faculty.

Scientific, mathematic, and language vocabularies are included as a part of each cadet's grade for the first time this year. There certainly has been advancement in '59!

HIPPITY HOP HOPPE . . . Lt. Weir can't conceal his amusement over Hoppe's long theme. Lt. Weir's classes have become renowned for the original work required and for the constant drill in parts of speech.

stress is placed on any subject at Augusta.

LATE ADDITION to the department . . . Lt. Mowbry Allan, B.A. from Hampden-Sydney College, joined the faculty in January. Pitching in to help right away, Lt. Allen aids Mazzei, Wortman, Bley and Trimble, D. Lt. Allen was assigned one period of English and four of Latin. Lt. Allan also has a B.S. from Hampden-Sydney.

"I'M STILL CORRECTING YOU!" . . . Capt. Saunders, who arrived back home in January, finds that Kruppenbacher still turns to him for help in English. Right now, he's not convinced that those grammar stress sessions for which he is famous helped much.

SIMILES, METAPHORS AND PARAPHRASES . . . Col. Deane's Senior English class claims that one thing is certain—you'll build up a vocabulary here or you'll never be able to even understand directions! That's what will help on college boards.

With future scientists like Coulon, Battenhouse, Wiese, a

Loud bangs meant that Cape Canaveral wasn't the only place having difficulty in launching moon rockets . . . Harris couldn't be left alone—daily he tried to head for outer space with his rockets, and daily, the grounds resounded with loud "booms".

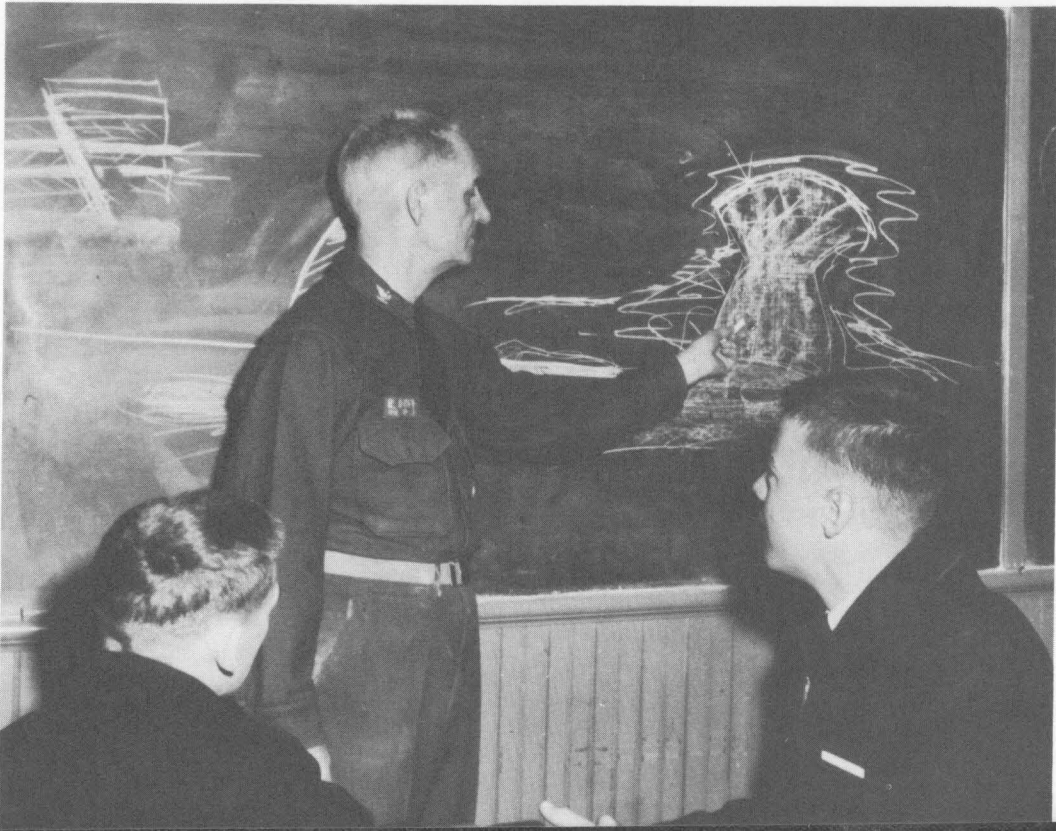

New textbooks in chemistry proved to the cadets that they must know every type of problem before going on to college.

With biology, geology, chemistry, and physics, and Major Savedge, Col. McCue, Capt. Hanson, Capt. Kivlighan and Col. Duff as teachers, AMA was keeping up its high standards in science.

MAN, HE'S COLD . . . and also collapsible. Nadon and Dove learn how to arrange man's organs in biology class. Major Savedge, skeptical, watches the progress.

VOLCANOES, GLACIERS, AND EARTHQUAKES . . . Col. Duff explains to Lowe and Doxey the theory of volcanism. Upper left is a diagram of a dip and a strike. Geology is divided into three parts—dynamic, minerological, and historical.

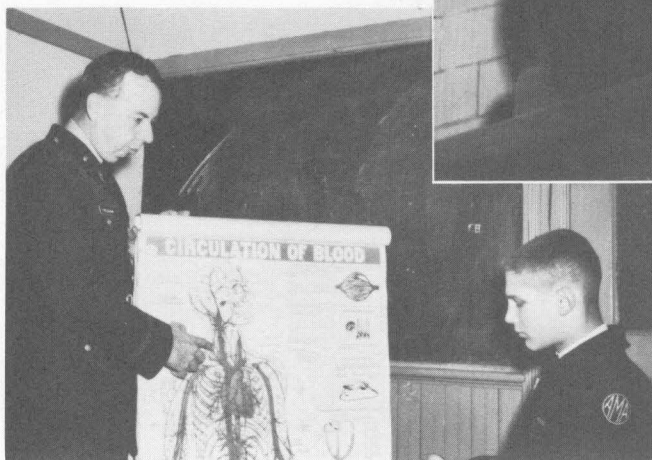

and Harris, we'll have a satellite orbiting the galaxy!

EARTHBOUND MACHINES for the moment . . . Col. McCue gives Mike Wiese and Jess Van Evera instruction on pulleys, levers, and machines for the moment, but later will come atomic energy and, possibly, outer space study in physics.

Science IS stressed at Augusta!

TRACE that drop of blood . . . Capt. Kivlighan helps Wolfson trace a drop of blood through the body. A graduate of Georgetown with a B.S., and the University of Virginia with an LL.B., Capt. Kivlighan also teaches geology and English.

GALAXY GLOBE . . . Capt. Hanson points out constellations to Juby in geology class. AMA is one of the few schools in the country to have a real geology course, to use college textbooks.

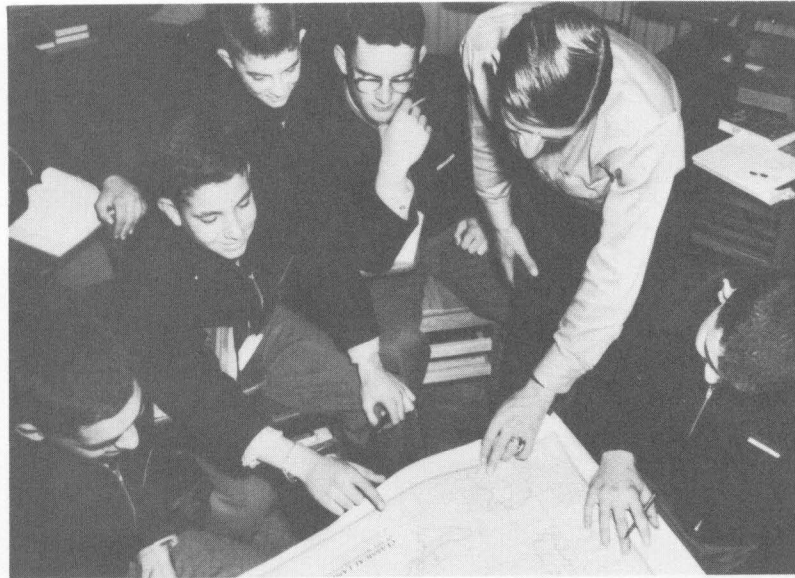

QUALITATIVE or quantitative, it's still hard . . . Dick Clough and John Hixon prepare to weigh out known compounds for titrations. AMA's chemistry course stresses problems and "qual" with geiger counters and atomic energy equipment.

Today's news . . . tomorrow's history.

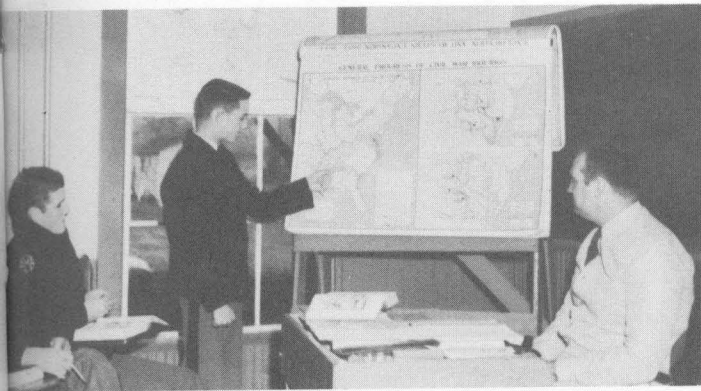

Progress, of a different sort, is certainly obtained with a careful study of history.

Suddenly ancient history becomes alive when a mid-Eastern crisis develops—civics takes on a deeper meaning as the filibuster debates make the headlines—English history continues on with Elizabeth II and Macmillan—and Alaska brings the 49 states and U. S. history right up to the moment.

Guiding us in the formation of our opinions and conclusions to be reached from the study of history are Capt. Ralph, Major Davis, Capt. Saunders, Lt. Andrews and Col. Carruthers.

BUT WHERE'S LEBANON? . . . The crisis last summer and the subsequent appearance of a cadet from Beirut activated Pintado, Rosenberg, Beller, Bowman and Roelle to action in Lt. Andrews' class of ancient history. Lt. Andrews traces the beginning of the near-war scare with the background of Nasser in Egypt.

NO REBEL YELL HERE . . . Capt. Ralph delights in having "Yank" Coulon explain the victories of the South, in the Civil War. Byrd, a true Southerner, looks on in obvious amusement.

"EARLIER TIMES" . . . Hurst finds that Major Davis makes the new ancient history textbook have more meaning. Zahara and Field are obviously enjoying the class.

To learn to speak Spanish and French . . .

THAT NASAL SOUND . . . It may be amusing, but Col. Gardner stresses the correct pronunciation to Gaston, McVey and Holt. Long an advocate of learning the language and learning to speak it, Col. Gardner has had many winners in the National French contest.

... language lab equipment is added at AMA.

"LATIN IS NOT A DEAD LANGUAGE!"—Major Sizer stresses correct soundings of the verb endings to Jackson, Boselli, Kruppenbacher and Tomasek. Lt. Allan, who arrived in January, became the other member of the Latin teacher duo, replacing Capt. C. S. Simans, a graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan and Harvard University, who became ill in December and was unable to return to the Academy.

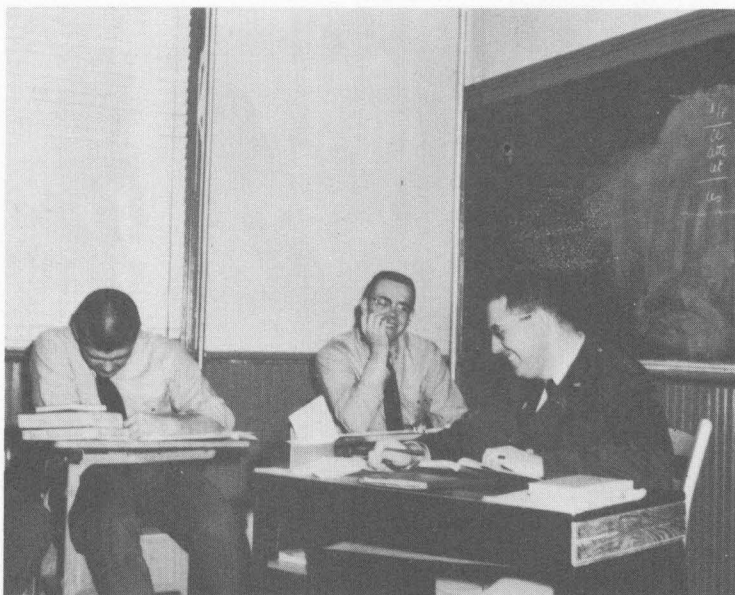

And the language shall be spoken! At Augusta, this is intensified by all of the language teachers.

Adding to the department's equipment, new tape recorders, earphones, records, and tapes were added in '59 to encourage spoken use of Spanish and French particularly.

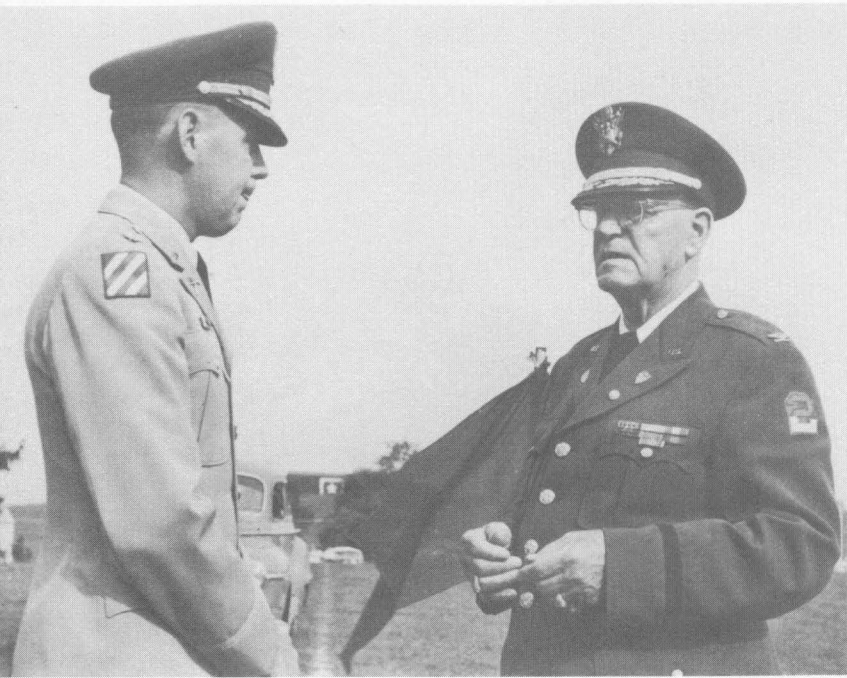

Each cadet who wishes to graduate with a Scientific or an AMA diploma must have a minimum of two or three years of a language. Many cadets present two years of two languages for their diploma requirements, and some three years of one, or two years of one.

Teaching language at AMA are Col. Gardner, Major Hoover, Major Sizer, Capt. Kreisler, Capt. Simans and Lt. Allan.

MERRIMENT REIGNS . . . AMA's ole King Cole, Capt. Kreisler, the rotund teacher from Madrid, keeps his classes lively with his wit. Chip Smith and Bob Battenhouse react with laughs to a timely remark.

Mental and Physical astuteness with ROTC.

DEEP SECRET . . . but the news will be out shortly. Major Stark informs Col. Roller each Sunday which company has taken first place. It means a lot, for a plaque is awarded at Finals for the highest rated company.

On your toes, men . . . could be a command on the drill field, over the hills, or in class.

Continually, there is progress in military training, as new positions are given to cadets as they advance in their achievements, in class and in ranks.

New to the faculty this year is Sgt. Joseph Komisar, who teaches MST I and coaches the rifle team.

With the excellent training and development given, AMA has been honored yearly with the designation "Honor School", a mark of distinction for everyone.

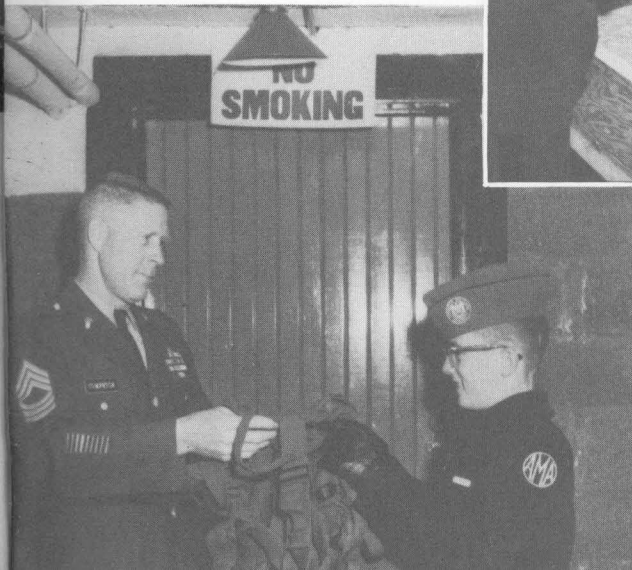

VISUAL AIDS HERE ALSO . . . Sgt Haynie prepares to operate the Vue-Graph for MST 2, to illustrate cone of fire and beaten zone. Jack Jackson, Townsend, Wortman and Chris Horsey prepare to take notes.

DON'T LOOK OFF THE PAGE . . . Sgt. Thornton doesn't care . . . he's concerned with movies in MST 1, one of which no cadet will ever forget—the epic on trench foot! Perkins, R. pays close attention to the action.

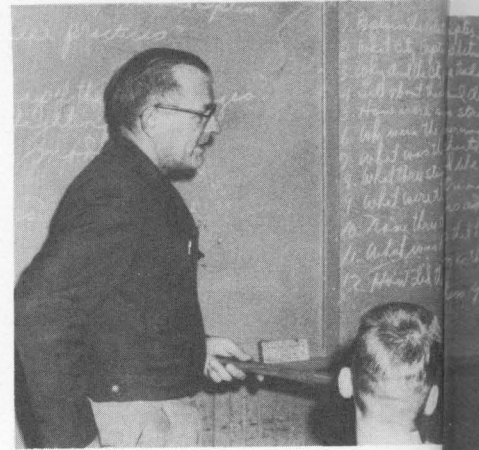

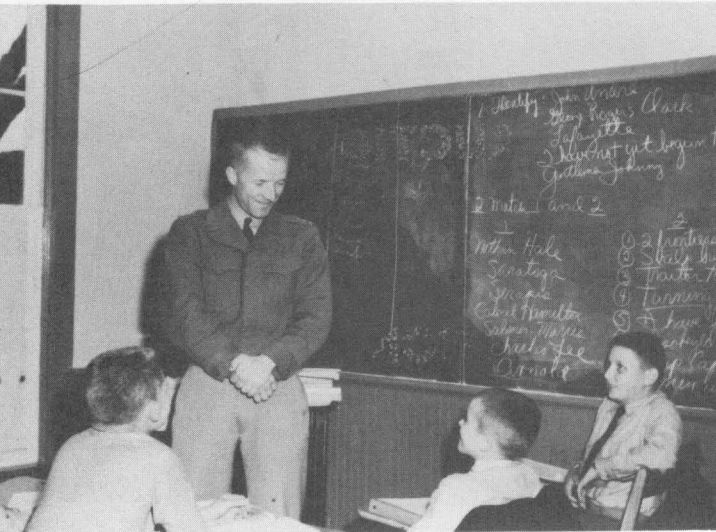

STARRING IN CLASS, TOO . . . Bill Gorman, ace on the varsity football team, stars as he explains to Sgt. Komisar and MST 1 the cycle of function of the M-1. Tompkins, Clark, Calvert, Herring, Quatmann, and Knowlden (front row), and Fuller and Whiteside pay attention to Big Bill. Military courtesy, M-1 automatic rifle, carbines and sanitation are the chief topics in the first year of military.

MAP CHECKERS . . . Mr. Hutton points out to Holt and Ridge the exact location of AMA on the contour map. Anderson, Leonard, Willcox and Snyder do their projects.

CAUGHT SHORT . . . Sgt. Cumpston finds that Cadet Beller will have to do without his full field supply for a while. He just couldn't catch up to the enrollment overnight.

Small classes, extra attention . . .

THIS IS A QUIZ? . . . Major Lucas puts up his eighth grade history quiz, but the cadets consider it an exam! Watching are Porter WONDERS NEVER CEASE . . . Capt. McDowell smiles, and the whole seventh grade takes a breather. Clagett, Hedden, Ruffner and Forsyth smile also, but when work is called for, no class does it any better or more accurately.

Study hall every night—inspections three times a day—early to rise—early to bed—that's AMA's Junior School.

Major Lucas personally supervises every facet of the Junior Department, and a happier group of boys would be hard to find.

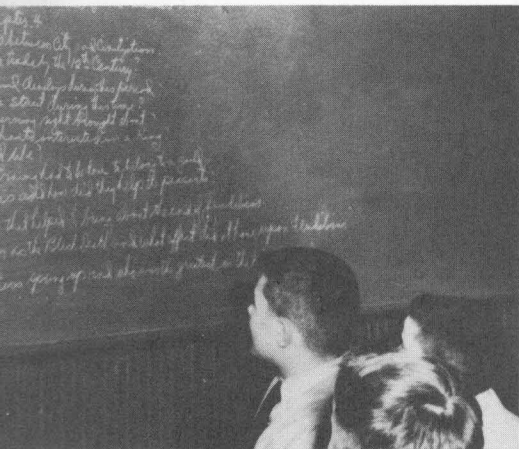

Successful, indeed, has been the Junior choir, which has given programs at the "Y" and for Christmas. The numerous teams in the small fry department provide the training for the varsity in years to come.

There can be no question about the progress in education in this department, for the freshman teachers find that the best prepared boys come from AMA's Junior School!

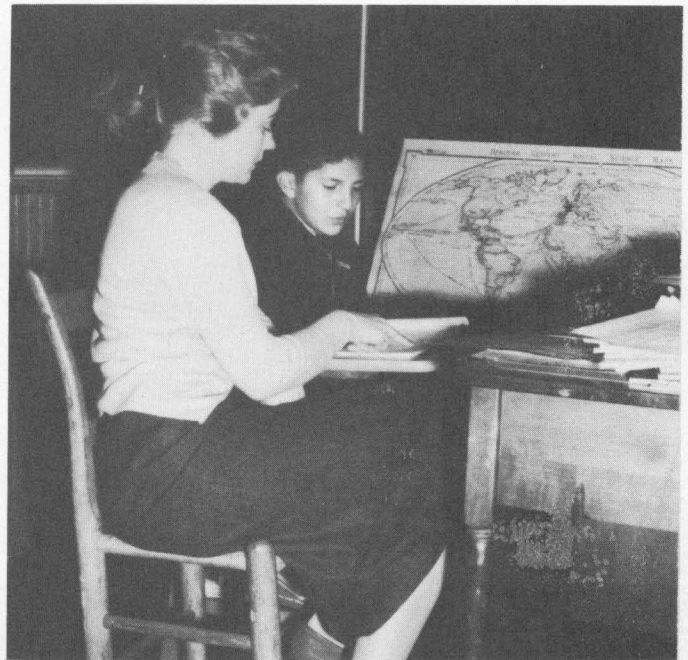

FIELD TRIP . . . Just a short walk out of the eighth grade class in the gym to study differences among evergreens. Capt. Livick points out the characteristics to McDonald, Mullowney and Baucom, three of his honor roll cadets.

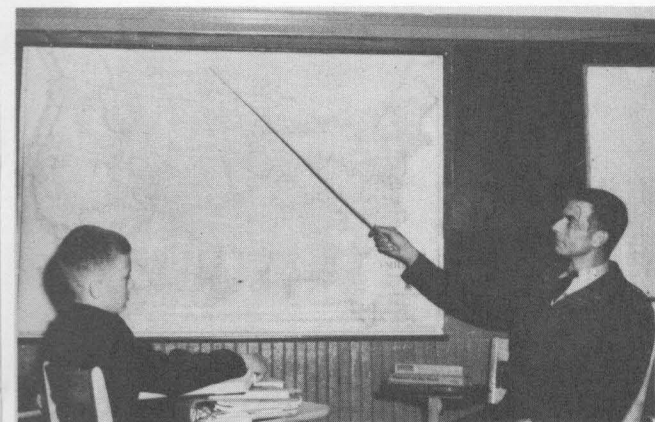

... start AMA Juniors to success.

Benedik, Don Russell, and Reichard. Even with just the backs of their heads showing, consternation can be discerned.

LANGUAGE DIFFICULTY . . . Mrs. Ralph's Spanish minor at Hollins helps her with Delgado's first English lesson. Not only does Mrs. Ralph help the small boys in her class, but she also has a class for new Spanish cadets, and has charge of the Drama group.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS . . . Capt. Hawpe keeps up the spirit of world study with his instruction on the geography and economic importance of Canada. Reiland, another honor roll student, listens to the explanation.

PRESIDENT PUZZLE . . . Mrs. Davis's model of the White House and the inhabitants get a work-out in the fourth grade. Cassey, Shepard, Burns, and Lee try to identify the man and his years in office. Mrs. Davis is a real mother to all of the boys in the Junior school, in her capacity as housemother.

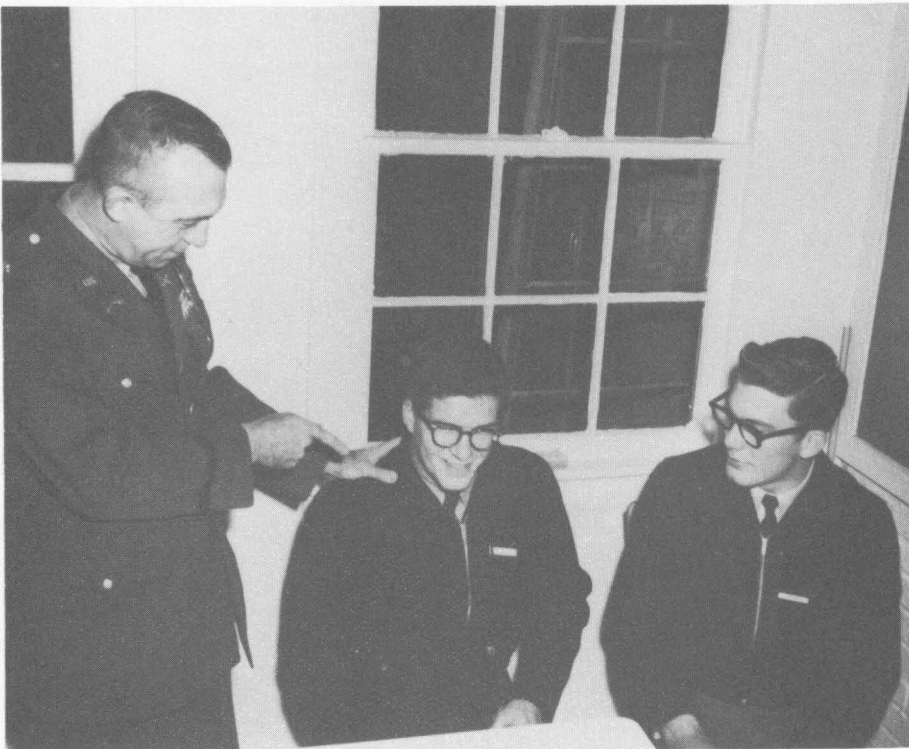

POOR HANDWRITING . . . you don't have to have poor handwriting to learn typing, but most of the college crew find that their grades improve if the work is typewritten. Villareal, Coulon, Plazaola and Bartels try to make 35 words a minute and have the background for future required work.

Elasticity . . . there is some in the choice of courses at AMA. Two commercial credits may be substituted for two history credits, or may be offered as extra credits for graduation.

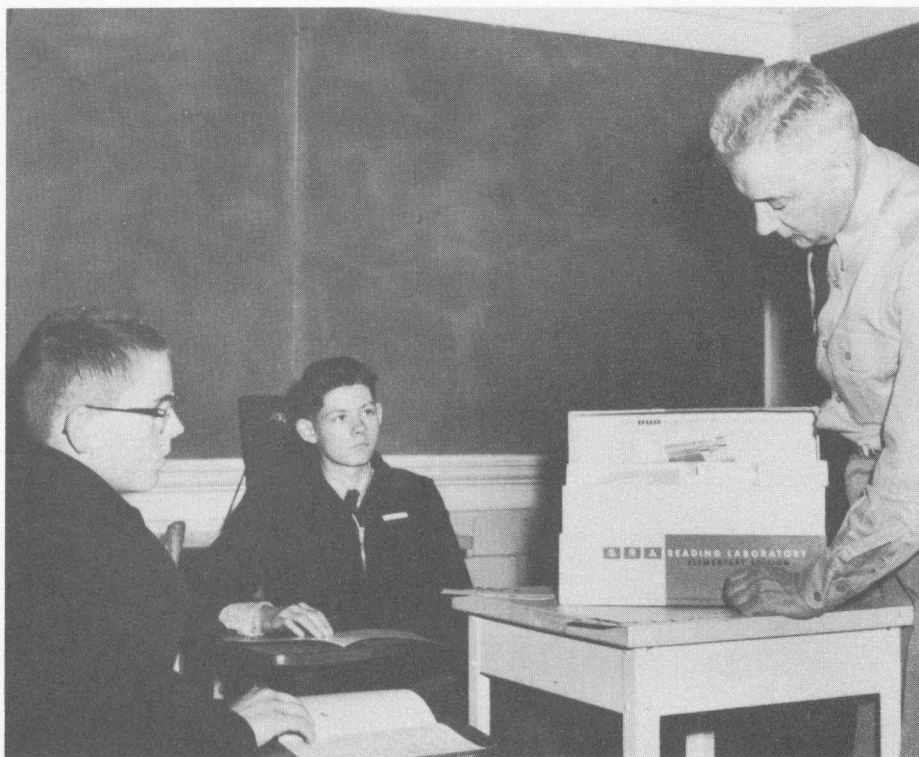

Business law has shown its usefulness in several ways. First, a better understanding of contracts has resulted. Second, court and trial procedure has been clarified. Third, business English has been stressed.

Typing's value can't be over-estimated, for it has been proven to be of great value to our alumni now in college, in business and in the Armed Forces. Future courses which may be offered at AMA are economics and business mathematics.

PRESENT YOUR CASE . . . Col. Carruthers admonishes "Radar" Phillips to be certain of the facts when he enters into a contract. Ralph Leonard soaks up the knowledge he may need for his potential television business. Col. McCrum, a law degree man from West Virginia University, took over the class in the second semester.

Flash cards, Accelerators, Help cadets Improve in Reading skills.

NEW EQUIPMENT . . . Major Hoover helps Ennis and Jewart develop their reading skills with the aid of the new "SRA Reading Laboratory". With a Master's in reading, Major Hoover has helped many cadets to improve their backgrounds.

Unique is AMA's department of Remedial Reading. Every afternoon, Major Hoover and Col. Gardner hold their classes for boys who elect the course during drill period.

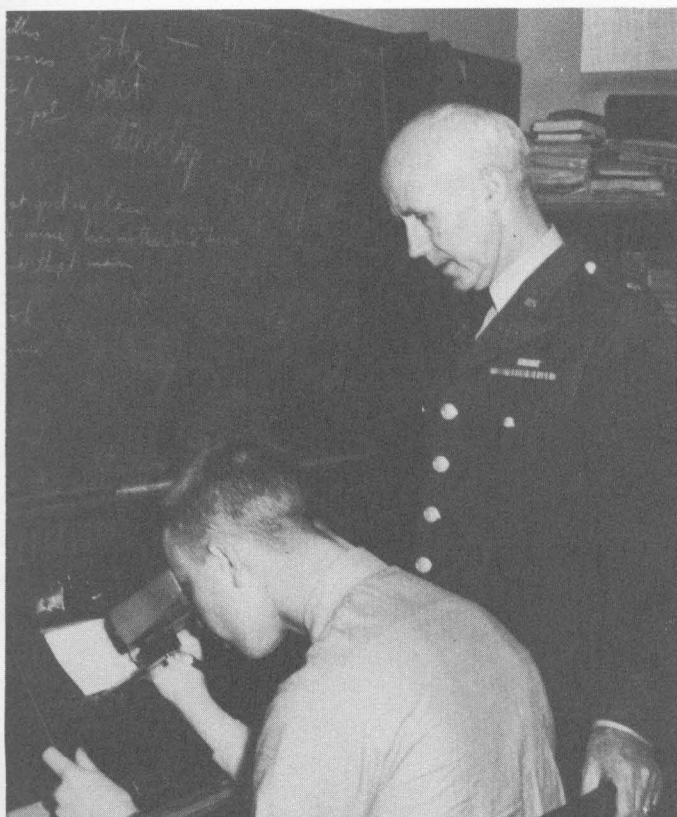

AMA's fully equipped labs included telebinoculars, accelerators, coordinators, ophthalmograph, and tape recorders, combined with the teaching skills of Col. Gardner and Major Hoover, have given AMA one of the best reputations in the area for reading training.

Special attention is given to the boys in the Junior Department in order to insure that they will have learned to read properly and that they are developing on schedule.

No boy is required to take remedial reading, but few boys turn down the chance when they realize what it means to them.

HAND AND EYE COORDINATOR

. . . Mariner traces the pattern under Col. Gardner's supervision. Col. Gardner, with a M.Ed. in reading also, has, in addition, written a textbook in reading training and skills.

The Activities

Progress—'59 . . . a larger crop of new cadets . . . an even greater display of school spirit . . . better officers of the Cotillion Club . . . more and better pep rallies.

Ad Astra men put on the polio drive . . . cadets sell rank for the needy . . . parades in Harrisonburg, Staunton, Alexandria . . . band attends Fancy Dress Parade in Lexington . . . RECALL '58 wins A+ rating in NSYA contest.

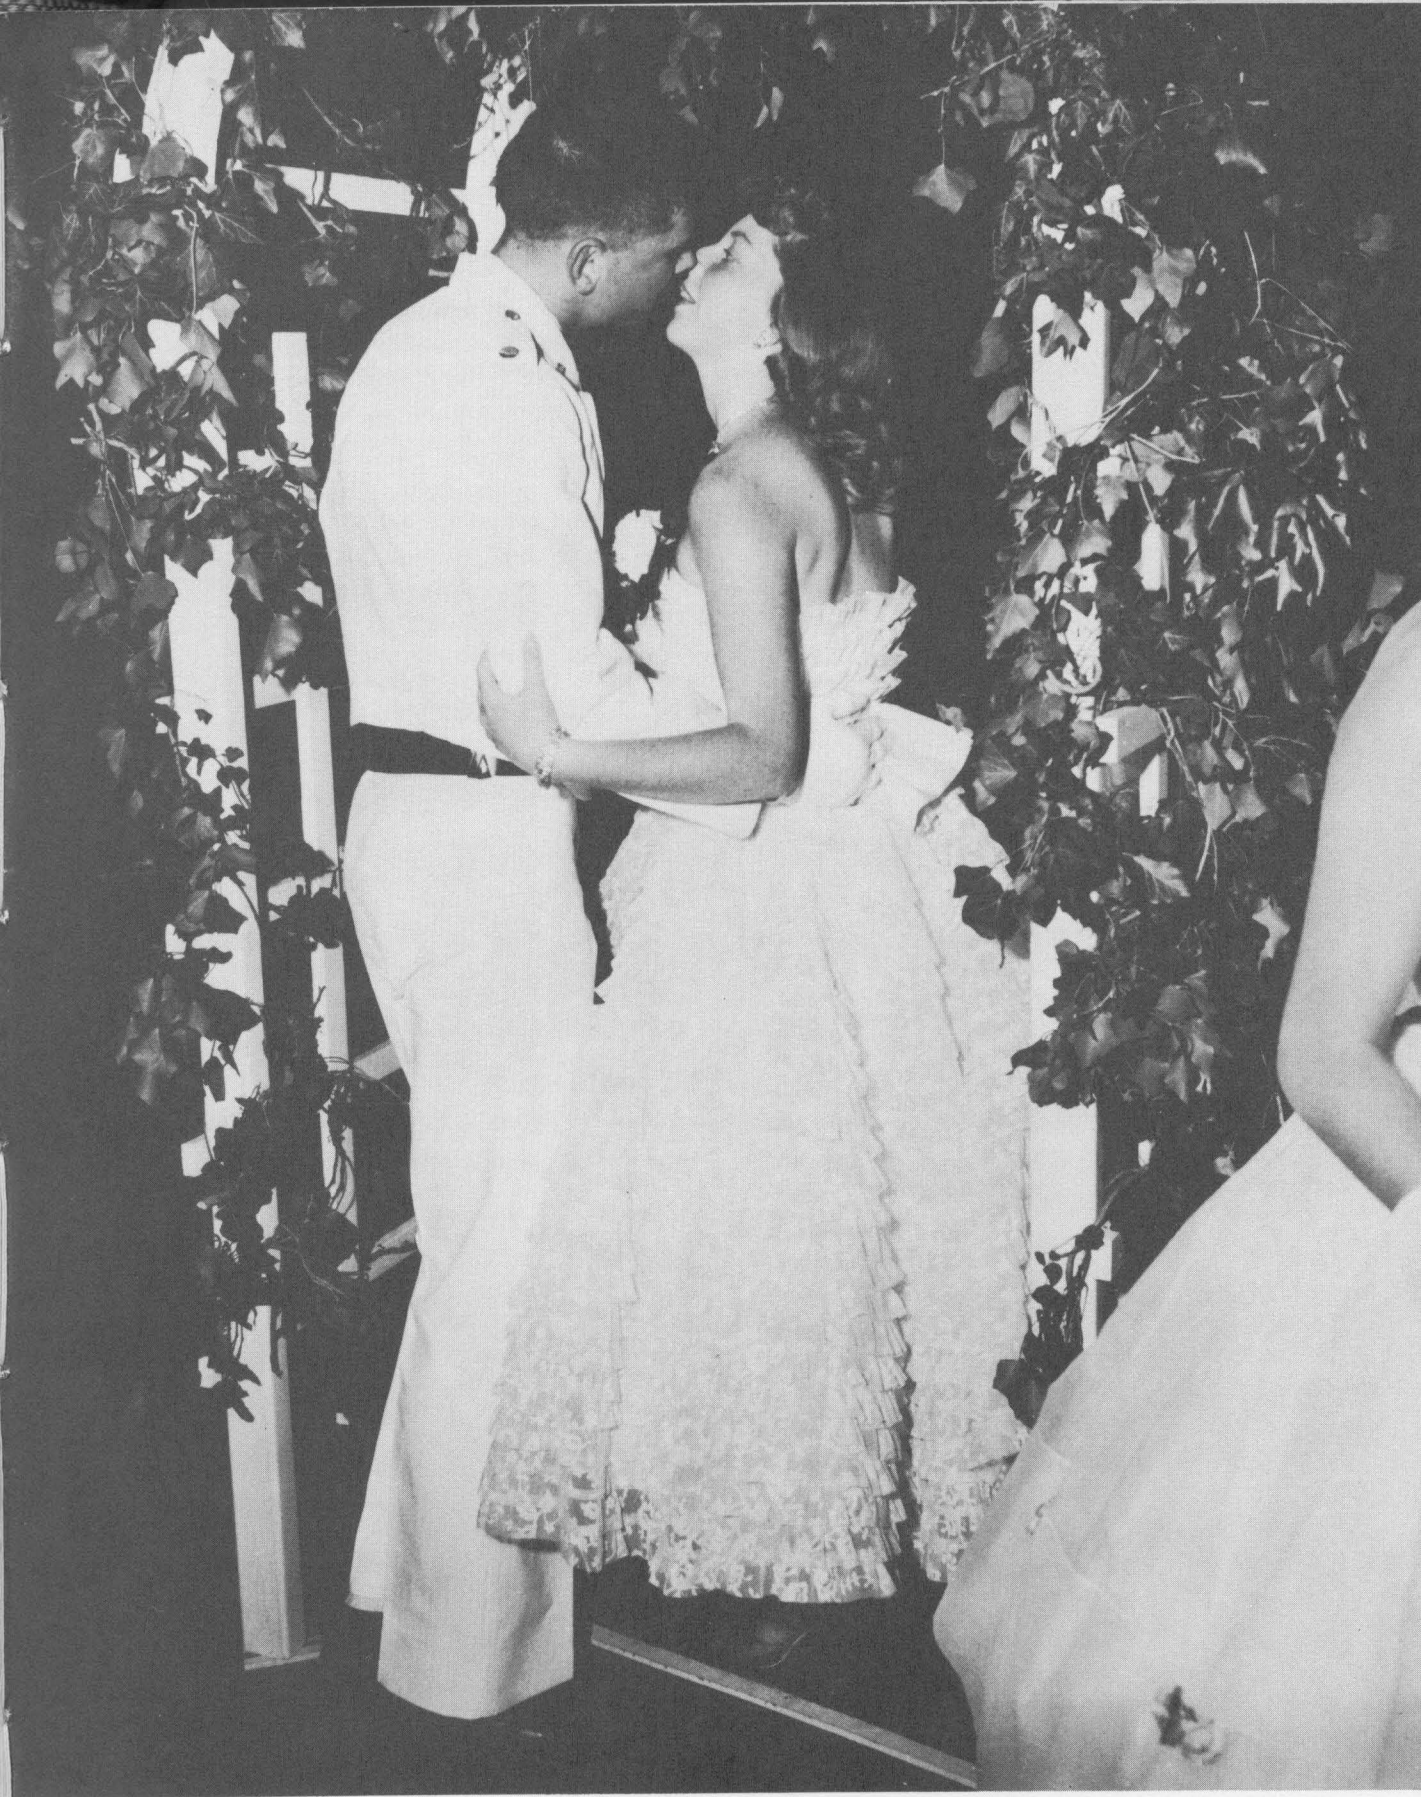

Greater attendance at basketball games . . . more rooting . . . new scoreboard helps to follow the hoopsters . . . Hal Dillon and his camera snoop more.

More publicity in the Staunton papers . . . Russ Carlton plays for Holiday Ball, signed for Finals '59! . . . Pin-Up Queen, Barn Dance, Record Party . . . YMCA drive for the Orphanage . . . a keener sense of enjoyment and appreciation . . . the spirit of activities '59!

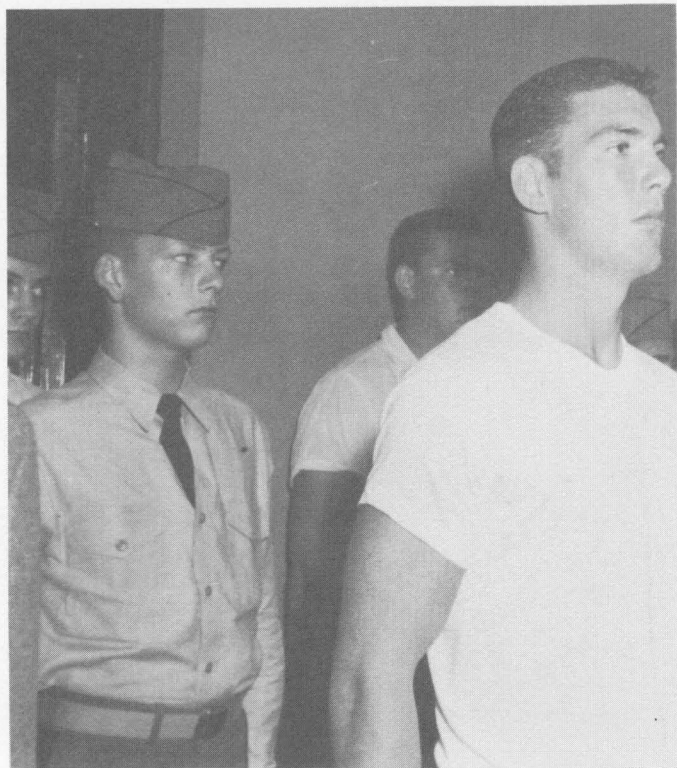

DREAMING OF A WHITE CHRISTMAS . . . Dave Conrad, Pete Kelley, Ralph Lampie, Betty Dell, Peggy Runnels and Kay Runnels pose at the Holiday Ball, wishing for the holidays and fun to come.

UNDER THE MISTLETOE? . . . No, Ted Strong and Lynn Cozier complete their part of the Final Ball figure and receive their just rewards.

Record enrollment . . . new Post Office boxes . . . drill . . .

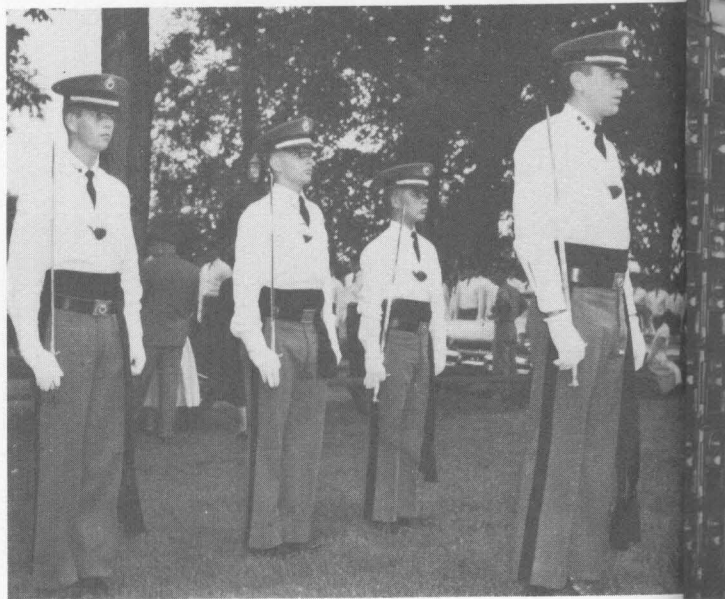

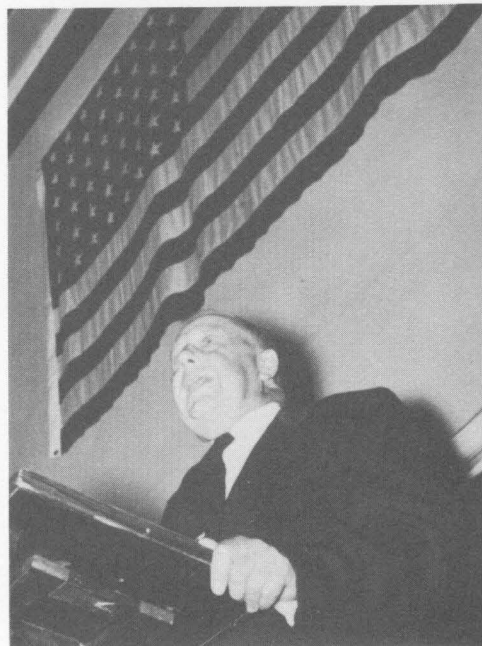

NO UNIFORMS AT AMA? . . . no, it's the very first formation and Harlow (back row) and Leonard up front show that they've never had any real military training. Serwat and Helduser prove that they're old hands at the game.

"AH, DO I HAVE TO?" . . . Godoy doesn't look one bit happy with his new dike, but Lt. Andrews approves the demonstration which Johnny Cupp has given the small one.

WORDS TO LIVE BY . . . the Rev. Mr. Shook inspires the corps at the Opening YMCA with the statement "Do your best, and leave the rest to God"—Stonewall Jackson's cornerstone to life.

KNOCKING KNEES . . . and the brand new First Capt. Pete Kelley feels that he has a right to be apprehensive at First Parade. Burrelli, Towe and Bickford help Pete review the corps.

... drill ... drill ... in the classroom ... on the field ... September's song.

Confusion reigns as September finds Augusta with a record corps. New faces daily; new routine; but more importantly, there was a new spirit, a new feeling about wanting to work—to learn.

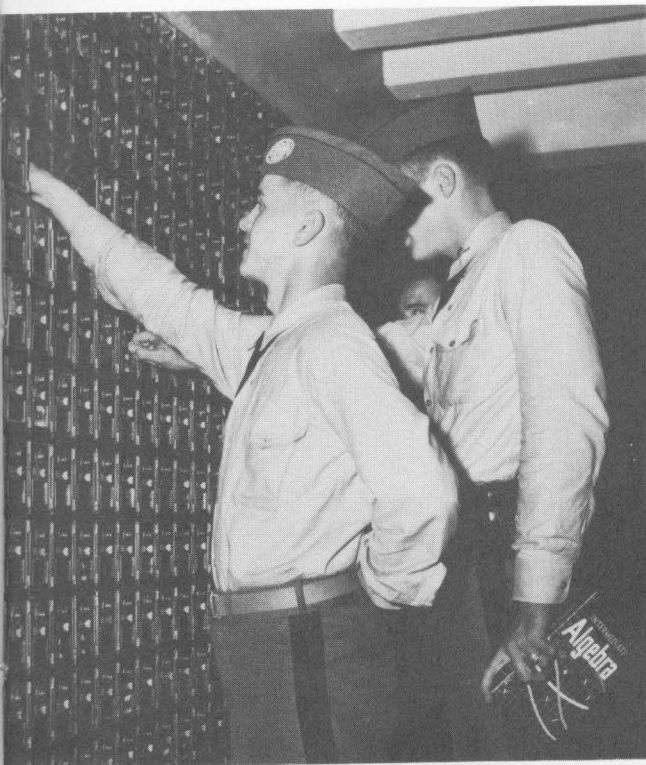

From uniform fittings, to banquets, registration days, to classes, the corps rapidly became acclimated to new procedure and to new faces.

And lo! We knew we had a winning football team. Spirits everywhere soared.

New teachers made friends quickly and added their part to every function. Rocketry and photography blossomed throughout the school. A good beginning!

M-1 MANIA . . . Mencia finds that the M-1 is complicated to take apart and reassemble. Alperstein discovers that his weapon needs a good cleaning.

HIS EYE'S ON THE FOOD . . . Carlos Giammaria watches Lampie watching him, but he won't share the chicken salad. Leindecker wants more, too, but Charlie's sharing none of that first banquet supper.

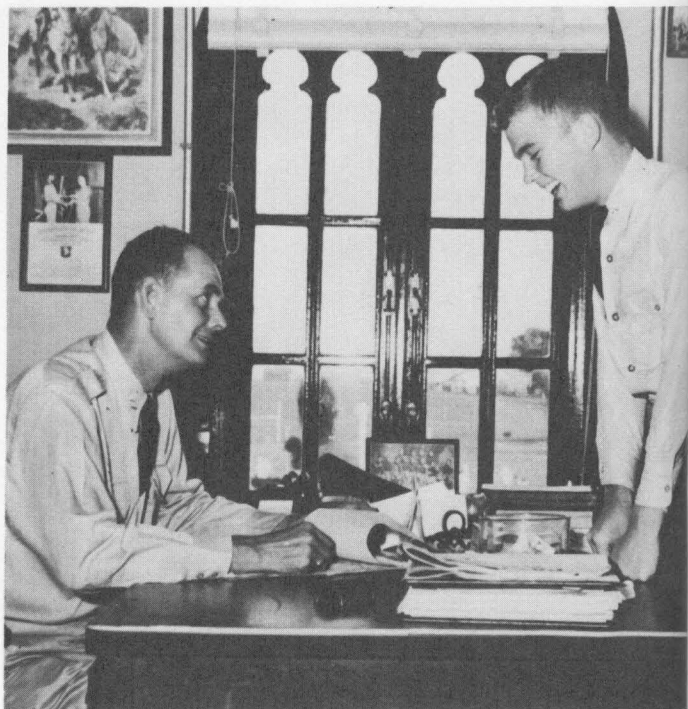

SAME STORY, DIFFERENT SETTING . . . Wilkins and Bowen find that the new boxes, one for each cadet, doesn't mean more mail—it's just easier to see when there's none!

Two dances, four football games, Junior party . . .

ANGLES, TRIANGLES AND SQUARES . . . Jim Groves and Don Bowman leave math class and take on a geometric pattern of their own.

"NOT AGAIN!" . . . Major Wales doesn't look TOO displeased when Sonny Hurst decides that he and J. H. Morris would like to move to 308. It's a daily occurrence for the Commandant.

Dances, girls, parties . . . football games . . . October was progressive! New cadets learned to make a path either to Stuart Hall in Staunton or Fairfax in Waynesboro.

Blind dates . . . Ridge goes slightly off his rocker matching girls and boys for both the Opening Informal and then the Formal.

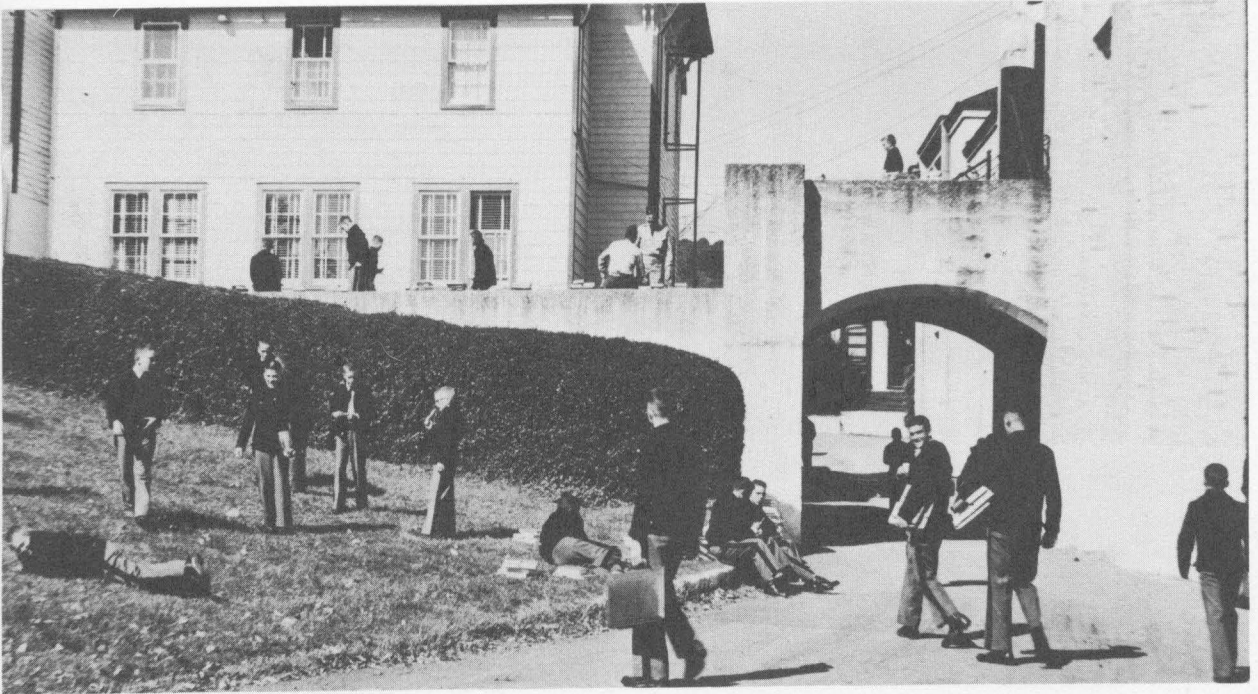

Football—king, as always, in the fall, gave AMA practically an undefeated month, as the varsity swamped all opponents, and the JV's did likewise.

First reports—large honor roll and requests for longer study hours gave proof that the cadets did study more this year!

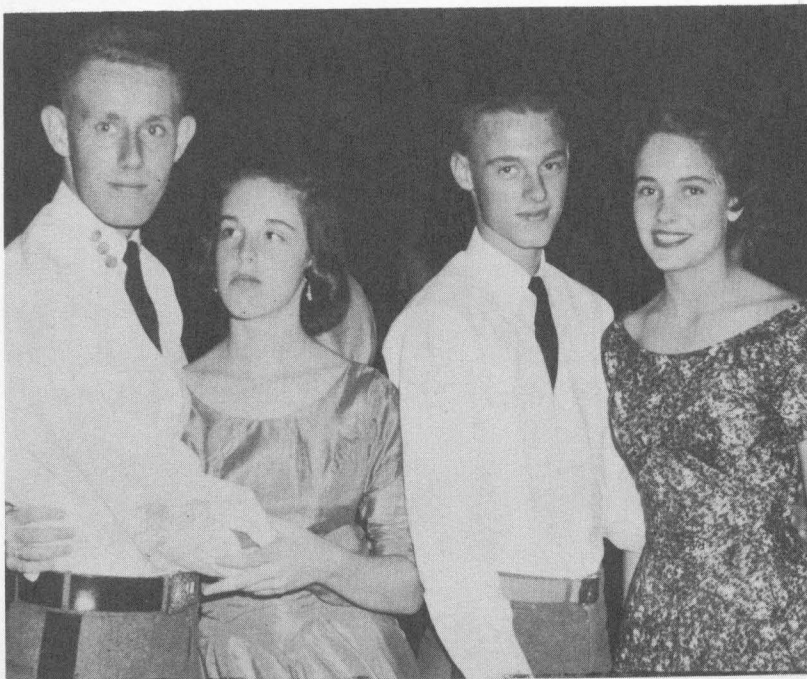

TAKE OFF THE MASK . . . Identification is impossible, but it's not hard to see that the Juniors are enjoying the Halloween party. Recognizable are Bill Parkins, M. E. Rodgers, Capt. Hanson and Benedik.

... RECALL takes two firsts and an A+
... highlights of October.

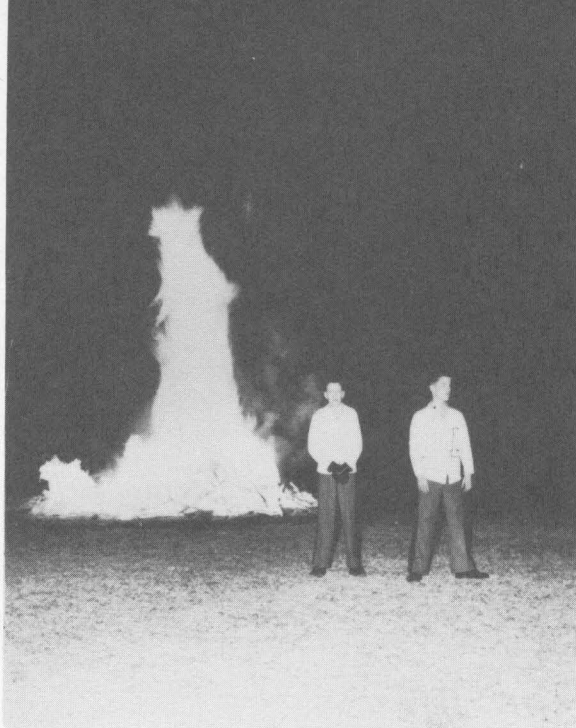

COUNTRY PASTORAL . . . lolling in the bright autumn sun during recess, some cadets rested, others studied, and still others consulted with teachers. This is the time of day when the PX gets its biggest play.

REPUBLICAN PARTY SYMBOL? . . . Corky Ridge, who likes to claim his ears make him the GOP representative at AMA finds competition from Herb Widener at the Opening Informal. Ros Lawson and Elaine Elder enjoy the break.

DEADLY SERIOUS . . . Bill McVey seems to take the Opening Formal in dead earnestness as he dances with Jill Saunders.

BURNING BRIGHT . . . Tons of papers, boxes, and cardboard from the neighborhood provided the incendiary for the big bonfire on the night before the FMS game. Spillan and Bickford wait for the corps and the pep rally.

Busy bright November . . .

RUGGED RAFTER RATS . . . Snell and Lampie use pulleys, ropes, wires and prayers in order to hoist the twenty-foot tree into a standing position. Center for the Holiday Ball, it became the first of the Christmas trees at AMA during the pre-holiday season.

CONCENTRATION . . . not the game, but the food. Towe, Siman, Wiese and a small part of Chip Smith shows that the quantity of food is copious and so are the appetites at the "Big" meal, Thanksgiving banquet and awards night. For the first time in years, Col. Roller was unable to give out the awards and gold footballs.

LONG GREY LINES . . . ready to board buses for the Veterans' Day parade in Harrisonburg. Following the long march, each cadet was treated to a special meal by Col. and Mrs. Roller and everyone was able to go to see a free movie. Capt. Kivlighan checks "C" Company, and Linton gets the "Green Ghost" ready to roll.

SOLEMN SERVICES . . . and then a small token of "thanks" from each cadet to honor the memory of those who gave their lives so that we might study, worship and play in freedom. Ron Moffatt pays his tribute to the veterans of AMA who "died on the field of honor", following the impressive services in front of barracks. Col. Johns of VMI impressed with his short, succinct speech.

...Holiday Ball, ball games...Banquets...Thanksgiving...

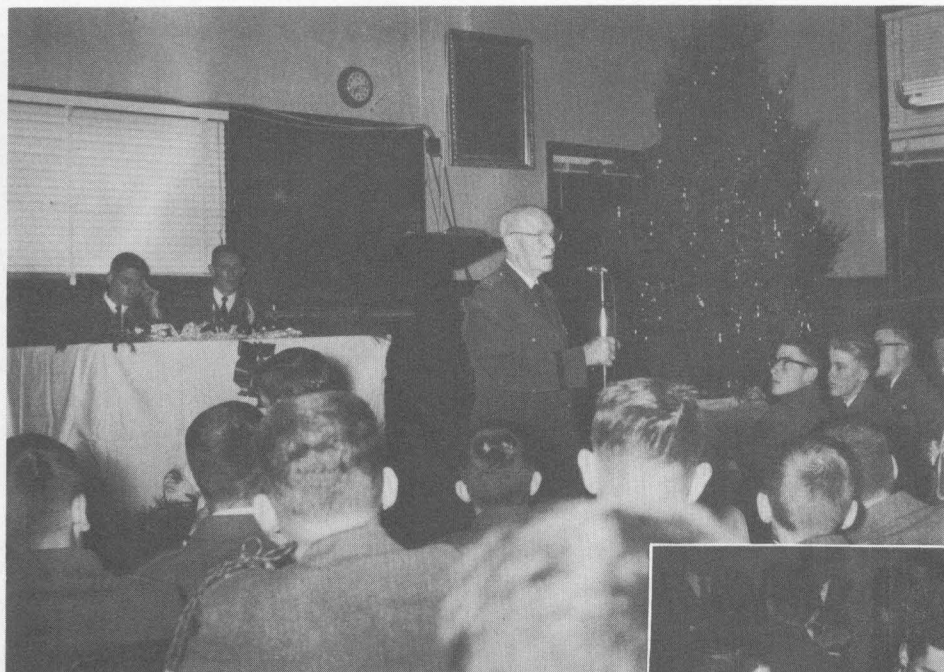

'ERE'S RIDGE, AGAIN . . . along with George Holt and Martha Winstead, Zeke Zehmer and Lynn Smith, with his own date, Ann Dell at the highlight of the Thanksgiving week-end, the Holiday Ball. Playing for the 'Ball was Russ Carlton and his orchestra, who was such a favorite that he was signed for the '59 Final Ball.

FOR A WINNING TEAM . . . Major Kramer, Col. McCue and Major Koogler give out the athletic awards at the Football-Thanksgiving banquet. After the spectacular victory over FMS, Col. Roller decided to give three gold footballs—one to Coyner, one to Kelley and one to Johnson for their outstanding contributions in all of the games. Here, Major Koogler awards Zehmer his letter, as Nadon goes to his seat. McGrath and Townsend have already received their "A's" for their participation on the varsity eleven.

... We're heading home for Christmas! ...

EMOTION PACKED MOMENTS

... as Col. Roller tells the corps about the history of AMA's Christmas gift to the Lynchburg Orphanage. Under the direction of Major Lucas, the "Y" sponsored the drive and collected over $500 to be used for a Christmas dinner at the Orphanage.

PASS THE PEAS, PLEASE! ... Big John Adams, Casal and Brown load up at the Christmas banquet. Forsyth looks a little dismayed at the amount of food which the boys are putting away. During the banquet, a gift from Holt's Gift Shop of Verona was presented to the members of the football teams, the band, the Roller Rifles and the Honor Roll.

CHIRPING CAROLERS ... Capt. Hanson's Junior Choir performs at the YMCA Christmas program. Burns, Rodgers, Mathis, James and Stephen Lee block the rest of the choir from view, but that didn't stop them all from singing lustily and well.

Back to the grind in January . . . sports dominate . . .

KRUPPIE KEEPS COUNT . . . but he doesn't have to, because the new scoreboard added interest to every game. Watching the close game with V.E.S., which had to go into two overtimes, are Davis, Fullen, Moulse, Bridges, Kruppenbacher, Carter, Scotton and Martinez. Wholehearted rooting helped AMA win.

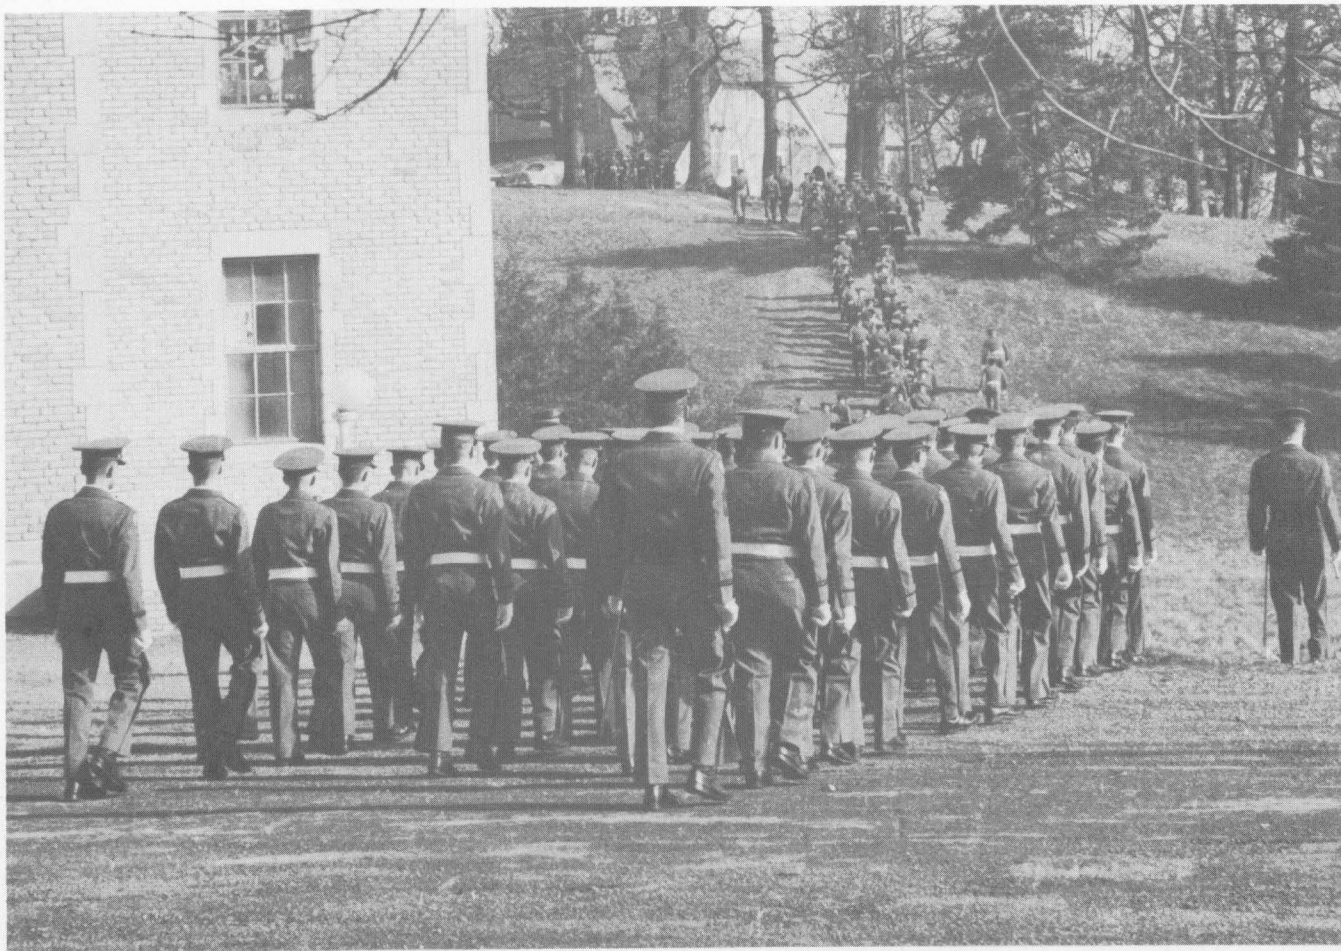

SNOWFALL . . . Dickie Clagett takes a tumble in the only snow in January—far, far different from January '58 when blizzards were weekly greetings from the weatherman.

NOTHING CAN STOP—THE AMA CORPS . . . and the small snow storm just slowed drill to a march around the field. The Color Guard practices without the colors (they hadn't done enough push-ups to carry the flags with the strong north winds).

... as we settle down to the books and study time.

"AND NOT BY BREAD ALONE" . . . repeated every Sunday, the corps marches up the hill to the Old Stone Presbyterian Church to worship together. The Rev. Mr.

James A. Allison, Jr., chaplain of the school and instructor in Bible, delivers a message which gives the boys food for thought.

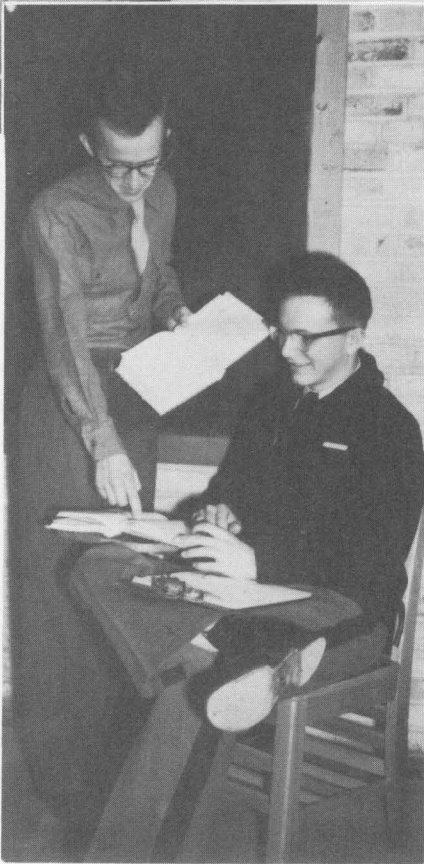

"AVA MARIA" . . . Worshiping in St. Francis Catholic Church in Staunton, Sherrer, Brown, Calhoun, Jim O'Connor and the one hundred other Catholic cadets pray together. Every Sunday, the Catholics and Jewish boys go to Staunton to worship at St. Francis or the Temple.

Ground hogs saw their shadows, snows fell . . .

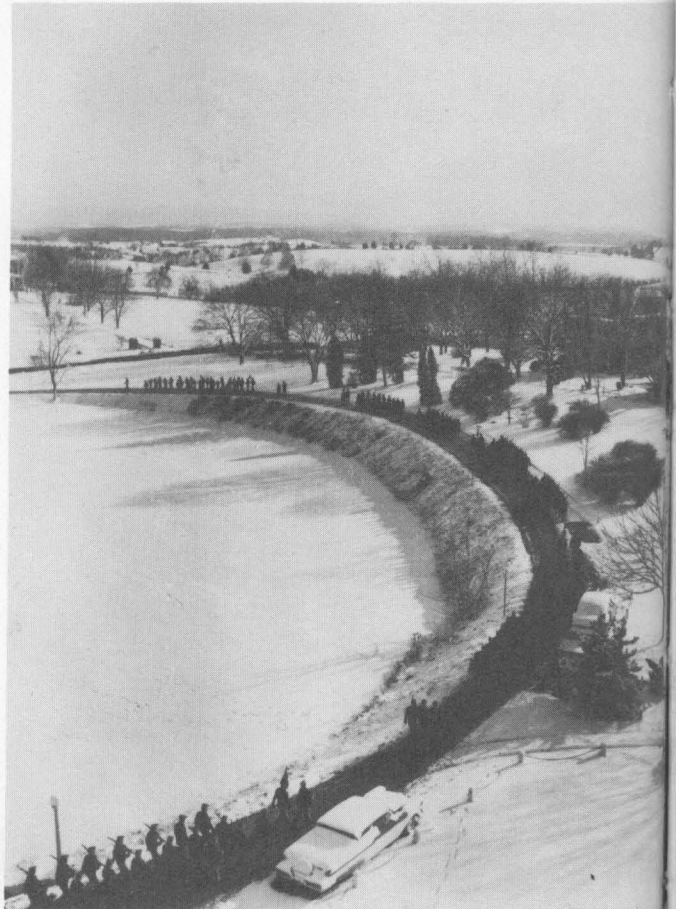

SPRUCE UP, TRIM UP . . . Andy Anderson and Don Tabor try to keep the HQ boys on the ball. Duley looks dubious, but Avery submits to the clippers. Byrd, Tolson, Reed, Burgoldt and Trimble watch and wait their turns. Weekly inspections keep the boys on their toes.

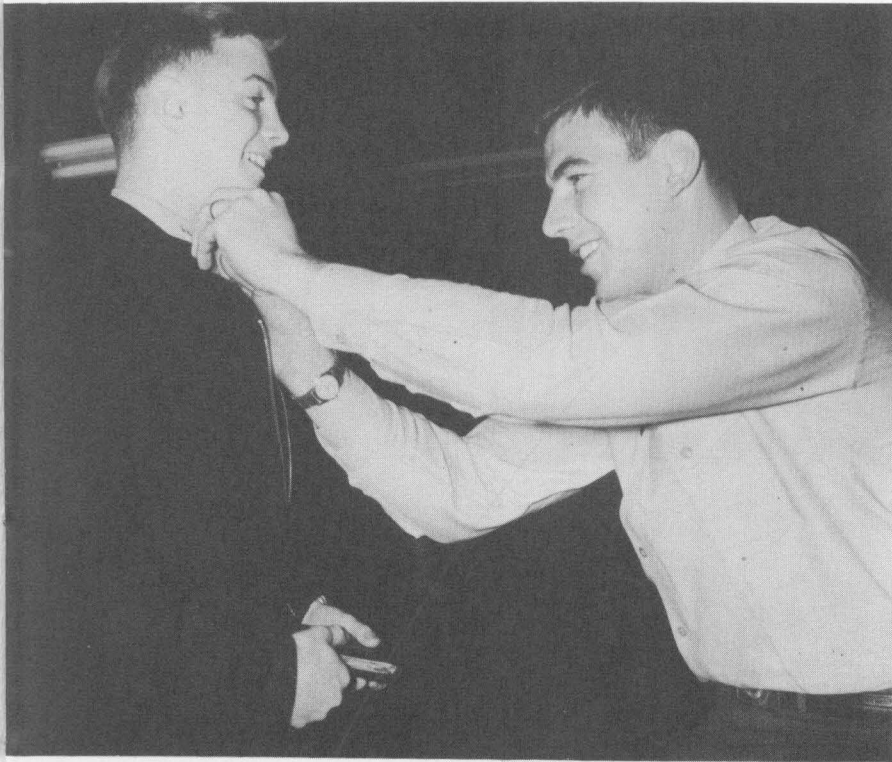

WILLING WORKER . . . and a willing helper. Lt. Frank Thorne, B.S. from the University of Maryland and M.S. from North Carolina State College, arrived in late January and by February had shown that he was willing to help the boys in math at any time. Wortman gains by his help.

QUIET, BROKEN BY COMMANDS . . . The only deep snow of the season made AMA sparkle in white and gave some taste of winter parades and sports to the entire corps. Daily, new boys arrived, keeping the corps at capacity.

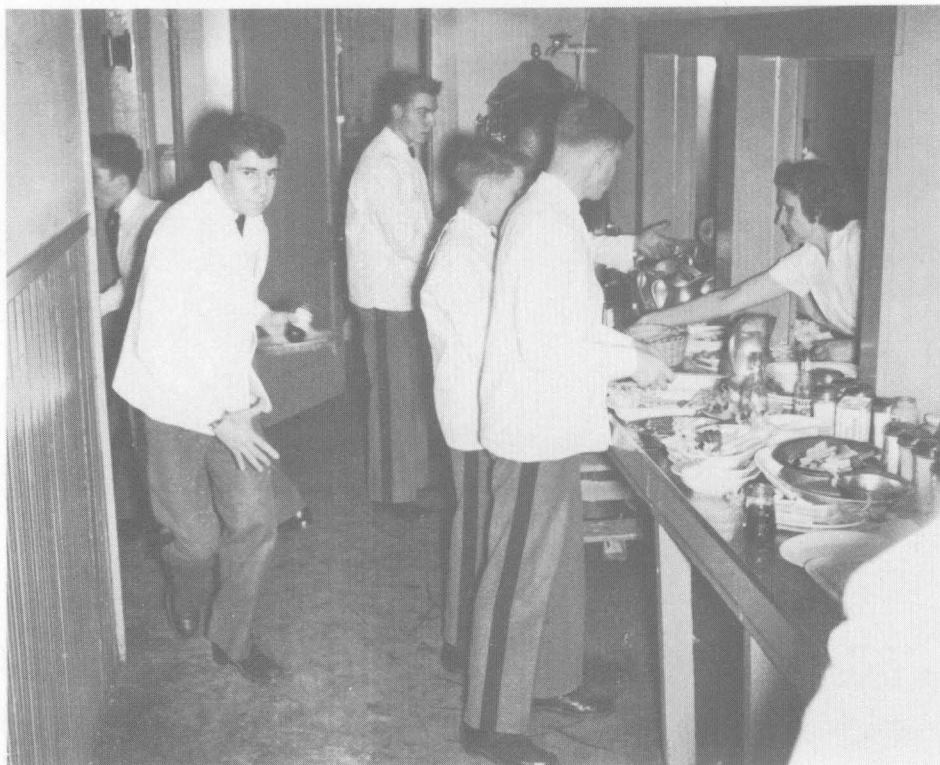

... and AMA turns upside down for Polio and $1,070.

FIRST CAPTAIN KELLEY WILL BRACE! . . . Ireland pays a handsome sum for polio just to see Kelley brace. Of course, Ireland takes command of the corps for one day.

BY YOUR LEAVE, SIR . . . Bowen surrenders his officer equipment to "Lt." Stolitsky who will control the big platoon for the day. AMA donations to polio totals $1,070 for '59.

FAST FOOTWORK . . . LaBrada races out to the kitchen to get his food first for his table, but Schiff, Spillan and Thurston are already there. For certain, we couldn't do without our cadet waiters!

SING ALONG WITH MITCH . . . Record clubs found an avid following in the corps. Steve Linton and Tom Mudd "Sing Along with Mitch Miller", Steve's latest purchase from one of the clubs.

GREAT NEWS—RIFLE CHAMPS! . . . Major Stark presents Col. Roller with the trophy which the Rifle Team won at VPI. Rodger, Morris, team captain, clutches his trophy and Sgt. Binkley helps Major Stark with the plaque.

And Spring Fever hits in March...

REPORT, REPORT, REPORT . . . Ralph Lampie, one of the most efficient OD's, reports a few more infractions of rules which the SG, Whately, brings to his attention. The OD is one of the most important jobs at the Academy and every day for twenty-four hours, he's the man of the day!

SPRING FEVER . . . hit Zehmer early; he even received cakes from Lynchburg! Tearing himself away from the telephone, he managed to make the Track Team and hurl the discus.

IN TIME, MEN, IN TIME . . . Impressive was the tempo which the men of the drums kept. Of course, they liked to be individualists, too. J. H. Morris, Harris, Herwick and Hutchinson provided the beat for the formations, even with the criticisms!

Pin-Up Queen Week-End, Government Inspection . . .

IN HONOR OF HER MAJESTY . . . Peytie Hamilton, Pin-Up Queen for 1958-59, from Alabama and Stuart Hall, beams during the parade in her honor. Bob Peters, who submitted Peytie's pictures, is as proud as she is. Martha Couper, First Princess, with Pete Kelbaugh and Joan Halifax with Rodger Morris complete the court.

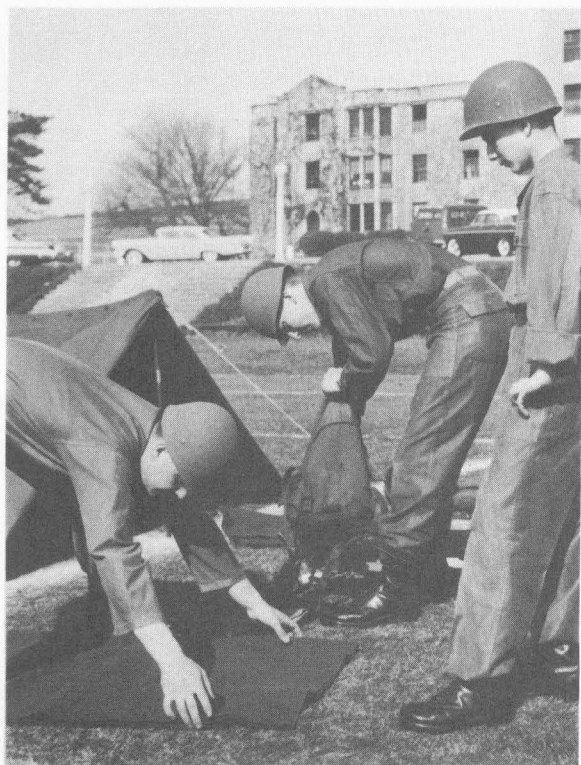

QUEEN FOR A YEAR . . . Peytie Hamilton enters under the saber arch. Selected from pictures submitted by about thirty cadets, Peytie was chosen not only because of her beauty, but also because of her outstanding record at Stuart Hall. Forming the arch were the officers of the Cotillion Club and their dates.

after Spring rest period . . . speeds April into . . .

CLOSE INSPECTION . . . and not only of military facilities, but also of all academic and athletic facilities, the Government Inspectors look over geology equipment. Major Stark, Capt. Albrecht, Col. Carson, Col. Roller and Major Corcoran pose in the laboratory.

TIGHT MONEY . . . Cupp finds it a bit tougher to get money from Major Parkins as the year progresses, but Pin-Up Queen week-end is hard on the wallet!

FIELD INSPECTION . . . one of the reasons why AMA was proclaimed "Honor School" again. C. Rodriguez, Gosson and Speciale tent temporarily and pass with flying colors.

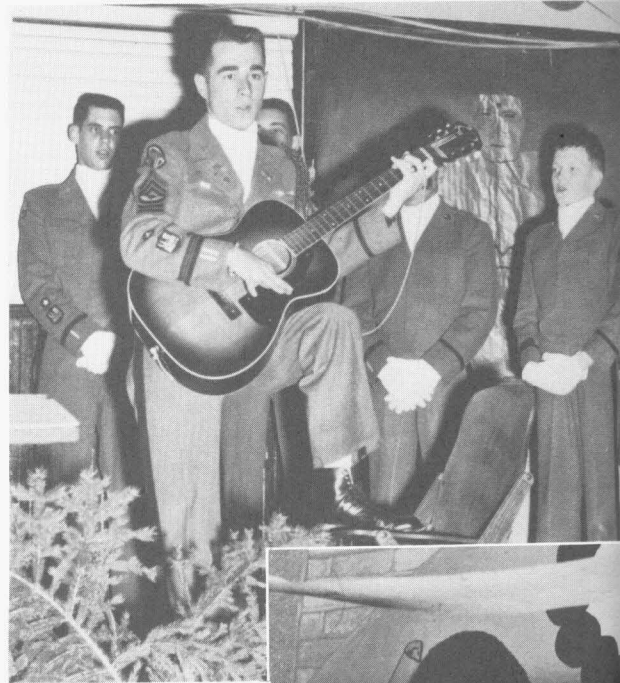

... Junior Dance, SIPA, Founder's Day ...

EULOGY TO OUR FOUNDER . . . May 8th, a day of rest and reverence . . . Col. McCue tells the story in the Old Stone Cemetery of AMA and Professor Chas. S. Roller, as the whole corps assembles to pay homage to the founder. Mr. Allison, Mrs. W. C. Roller, and Col. and Mrs. Chas. S. Roller, Jr., listen to Col. McCue.

DOWNRIGHT DEJECTED . . . but not rejected. Kerlin and Schreiber sit one out at the Junior Dance, which featured a Salute to the South as its theme.

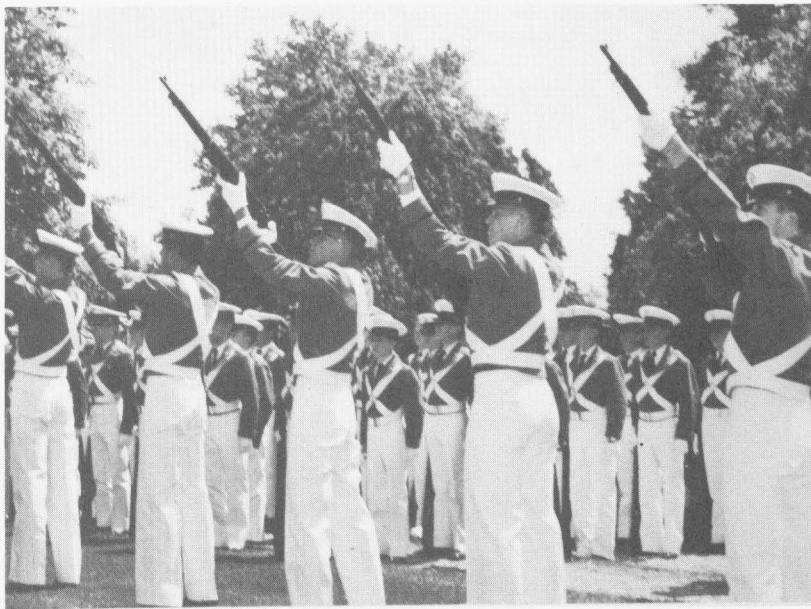

and preparations for Finals and Graduation!

JACKSON LIVED HERE . . . and Bill Blakely was born on the Washington and Lee campus. Representing the RECALL at SIPA, Mike Wiese, editor for two years, and Bill Blakely take in all of the classroom sessions.

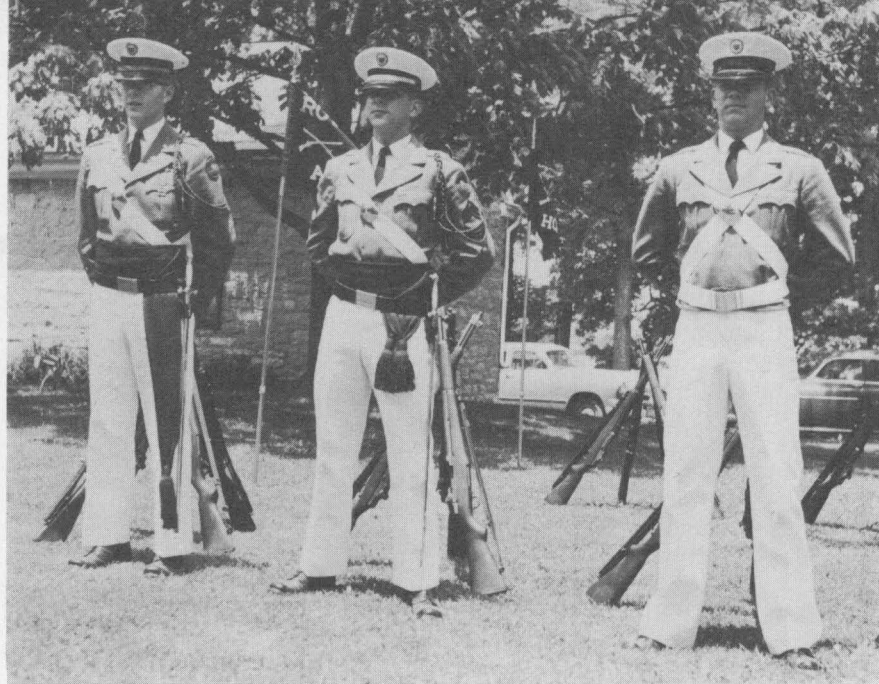

PURE CORN . . . and the corps loved it! Kelbaugh gives with some hillbilly music at the Glee Club concert, aided by Steciw, Lang, Ramos and Spillan. Encore followed encore. It was great!

IN PERFECT SYNCHRONIZATION . . . Linton, Radican, Wiese, Hausmann and Herndon fire a twenty-one gun salute on Founder's Day.

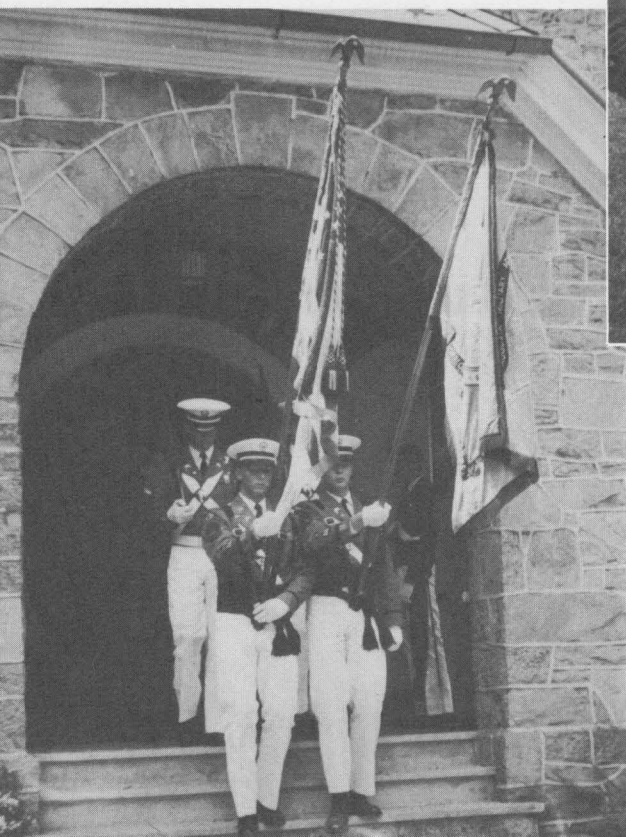

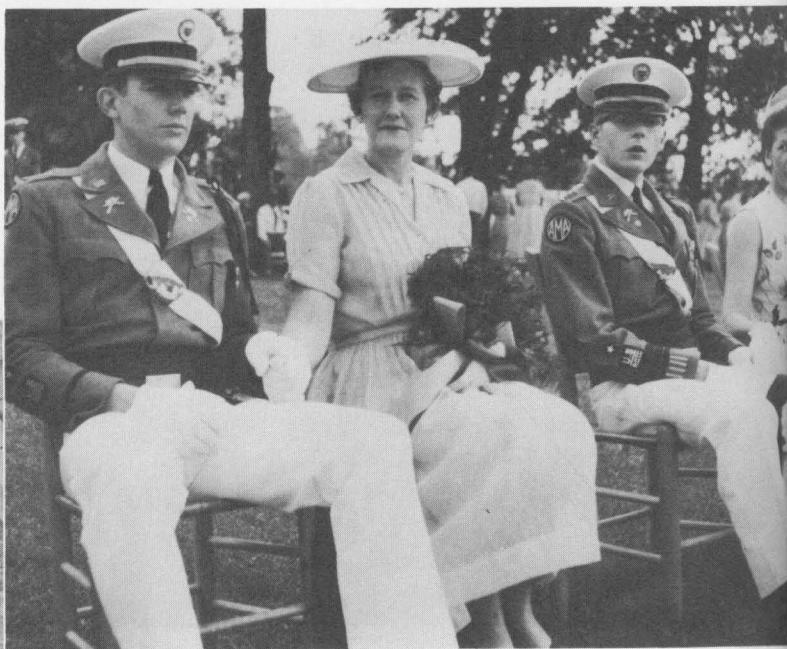

PREPARATIONS AHEAD . . . and they have to be when the plaques are nine feet in circumference. McGrath and Manns design the U. S. shield for the Final Ball theme, Salute to American Heroes.

June

GUARDSMEN FOR THE CORPS . . . during Baccalaureate Sermon, Hugh Harmon, Jim Towe and Chris Horsey stand watch in the warm June sun.

PROUD AS PEACOCKS . . . the mothers of the captains are as proud as they may ever be during Sponsors' Parade. Pete Kelley and Mrs. Kelley and Hugh Harmon and Mrs. Thomas wait for the parade to begin.

FORMATION OF THE COLORS . . . Leaving Old Stone Church after the sermon, Andy Anderson, Bob Siman, Sturges Bryan and John Atkinson form for the parade down U. S. 11 back to the Academy grounds.

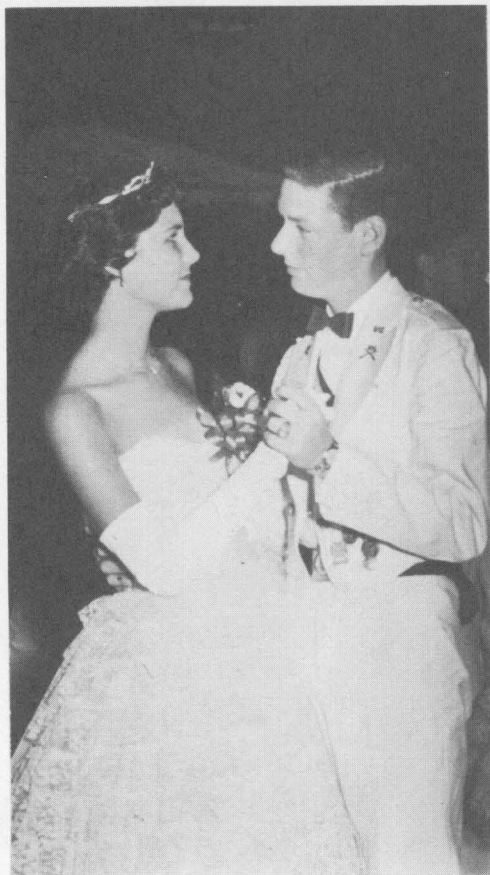

is bustin' out all over!

GRACIOUS LADY . . . Mrs. Ruby Fancher, Duke's mother, pours for Andy Anderson during Col. and Mrs. Roller's party for the seniors and their families and all patrons of the school. "White Hall" makes a perfect setting for a yearend buffet.

LONG AND THE SHORT OF IT . . . Linda Lloyd just doesn't believe Duke Fancher is that tall, but Rocky Snell and Mr. Frank Hale carry on a conversation about those hills of West Virginia during the buffet at "White Hall".

TWO SLEEPY PEOPLE . . . but that's not so when Barbara Schreiber and Ed Burton get together during the Final Ball to dance on until 2 a.m. on to Final Ball . . .

PRETTY AS A PICTURE . . . Linda Lloyd, of Stuart Hall, makes the traditional saber arch even more impressive. Ending the figure, that's when the dancing and dining begin.

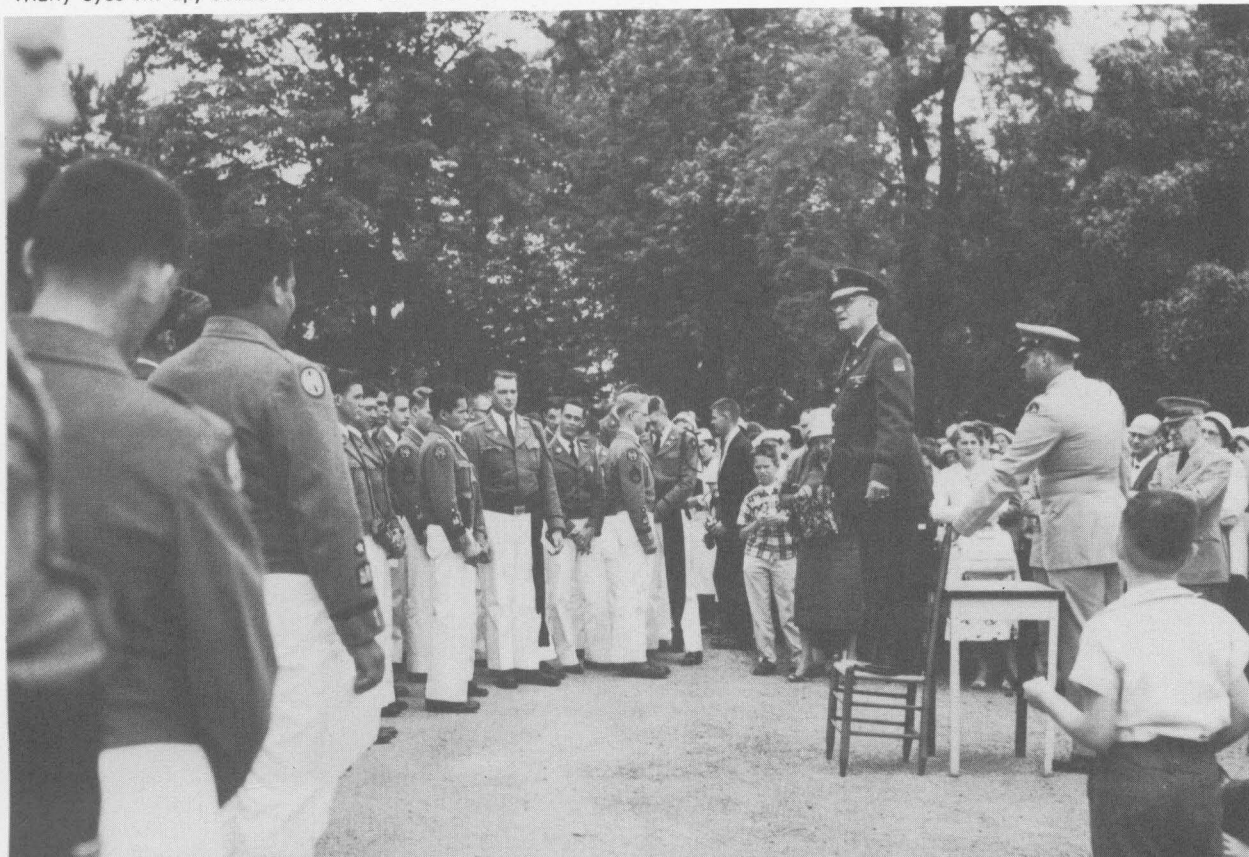

HEROES OF FREEDOM . . . Admiral and Mrs. Perry (Bill Yates and Nancy Kirby), Gen. and Mrs. George Washington (Duke Fancher and Kay Runnels), Gen. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson (Corky Ridge and Ros Lawson), and Gen. and Mrs. William Henry Harrison (Pete Kelley and Peggy Runnels) relive a part of America's proud past.

BEST PLATOON . . . Major Stark gladly gives Steve Durst the cup for best drilled platoon—1st of "A".

"FAREWELL TO MY BOYS" . . . Col. Roller delivers his farewell address to the corps on the blacktop at high noon. Many eyes fill up, because AMA HAS been a home!

and Ad Astra gains new members in June . . .

TOP MEN . . . voted on by old members of Ad Astra Per Aspera Fraternity and by the faculty, the ten outstanding cadets receive their pins from their mothers during graduation. Corky Ridge, Pete Kelley, Hugh Harmon and Andy Akerman are proud, happy and filled with emotion.

COL. ROLLER CONGRATULATES EACH MOTHER . . . Mrs. Zehmer shakes Colonel's hand, while Hugh Harmon and Andy Akerman realize they've been voted among the top men at AMA. Waiting their turns are Wayne Duffy and Jim Weaver. Strong, Garcia, Trout and Lanks were also voted into the fraternity.

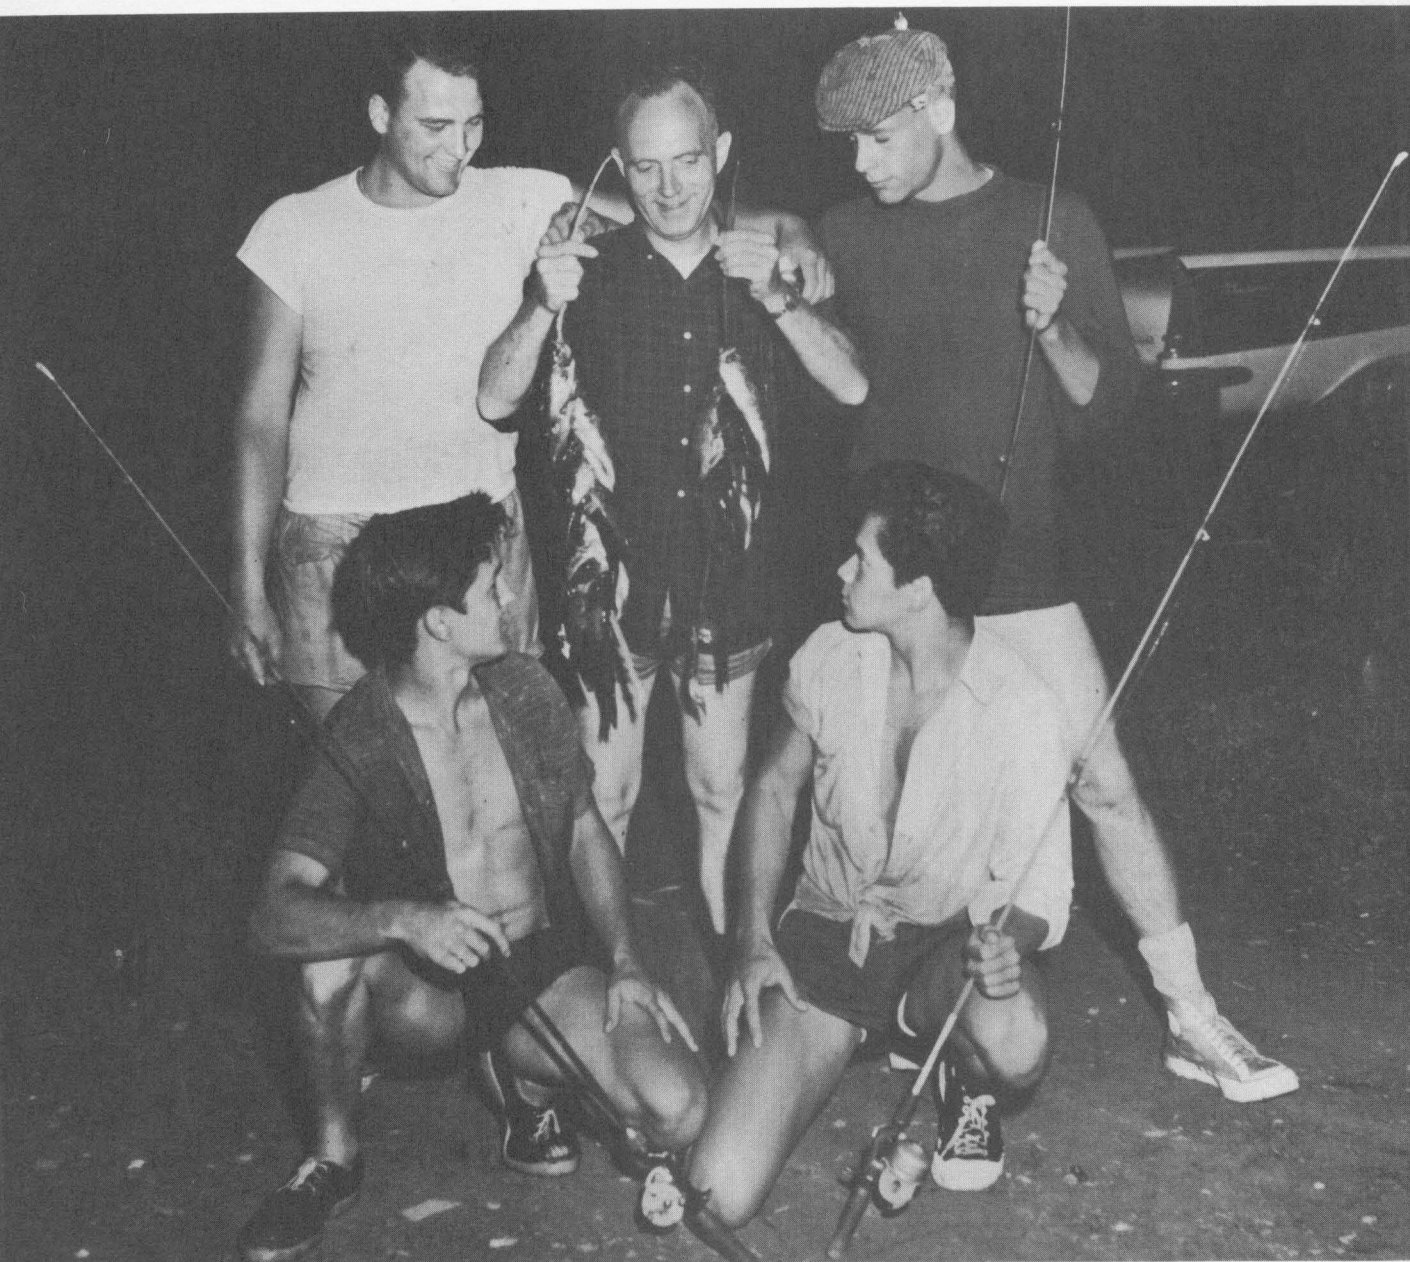

Summertime and Camp Kannata!!

STUDYING IN SUMMERTIME? . . . It seems to agree with Jackie Jackson, Bob Durst, Capt. Hanson, Jack Burnite and Zeke Zehmer. With classes outdoors and lots of activities, it's easy to spend more time on the books.

MIGHTY FISHERMAN . . . Major Savedge displays his catch to Jim Lanks, Zeke Zehmer, Max Casal and Carlos Giammaria, but if the truth be known, he caught about the smallest and the fewest!

The Classes

Progress—'59 . . . Senior class ranks swelled with an influx of new cadets and post graduates—seeking more education—better backgrounds for college work.

Backbone of the school—the cadets which make up the classes: first year through sixth year cadets plus the leaders of the school—the seniors.

Outstanding men—Battenhouse, Coulon and Wiese win NROTC scholarships—fifteen cadets place high on Merit Scholarship lists.

Kelley stars in football and as first captain . . . Anderson, Coyner, Zehmer, Johnson and Gorman spark the football team to an 8-1 record . . . Rodger Morris, Burrell, Blakely and Mayne, W., fire winning scores . . . Calhoun, Nadon, Crawford stand out among the new cadets . . . McVey, Leonard, Blankenship whip the wrestlers into shape and to victories—these are the men who make progress at AMA—'59!

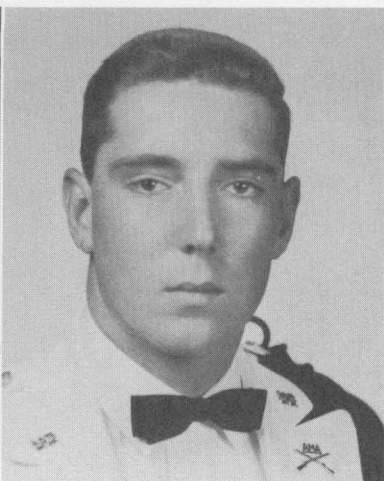

"YOU MUST AIM TO THE STARS" . . . Cadet First Captain Duke Fancher, valedictorian, stresses the AMA motto, "Ad Astra per Aspera" during graduation exercises.

PROUD PROGRESS . . . little J. C. McCue III anxiously watches Col. J. C. McCue, Jr. register him as the third generation of his family to attend AMA. Steve Linton and Stacy Harris note the enthusiasm of Cadet McCue.

AMA's '59 Seniors awakened early to

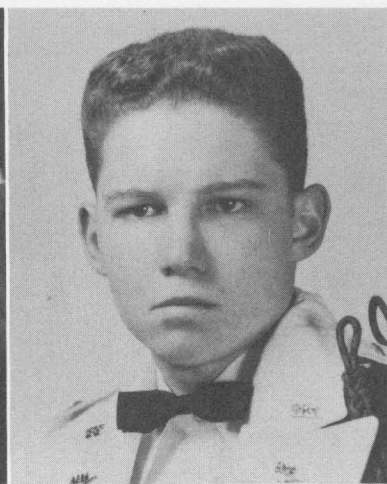

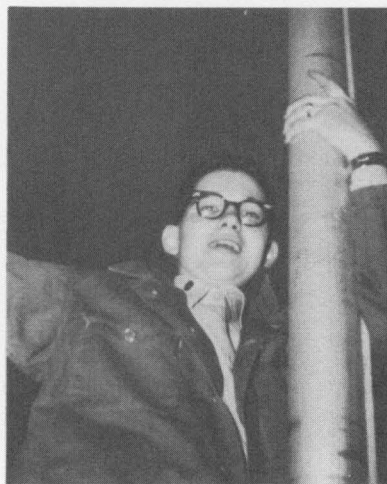

WALTER RANDOLPH ANDERSON

Staunton, Virginia

Pvt., 1; M-Sgt., 2; Captain, 3; Football, 1, 2, 3; Basketball, 1, captain, 2, 3; Baseball, 1-3; Golf, 2, 3; Honor Committee, 2, 3; Roller Rifles, 2, C. O., 3; Student Body Officer, 3; Cotillion Club, 1-3.

Moody—that's the C. W.'s description of Big Andy. When AMA's winning, life is fine, but if the score is in the wrong direction, life can be right difficult. No one could have welded such a large group of boys into a smooth unit — Headquarters — but Andy. An athlete, a good student and a quiet man—it's Andy, a leader now and later, too.

LEE RAY BERGMAN

Durham, North Carolina

Pvt., 1; Cpl., 2, 3; Sgt., 4; 2nd Lt., 5; Honor Roll, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1-5.

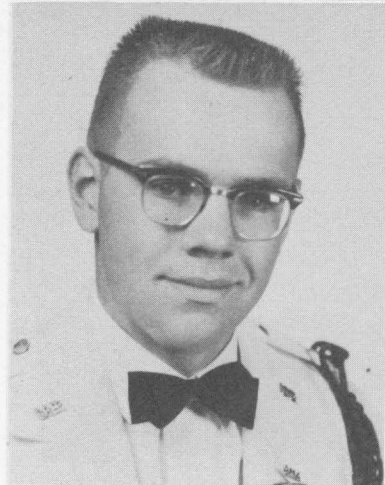

They said it couldn't be done, but they just didn't know Lee Ray—"E" Company just couldn't learn to drill—Ha!—Ole Lee Ray gave them Roller Rifle maneuvers and incentive—and his platoon is just about the sharpest one on the field. Lee Ray's quiet, conservative and a real gentleman, but he just won't give the girls a chance to latch on to all that Durham charm!

ROBERT THOMAS BATTENHOUSE

Westlake, Ohio

Sgt., 1; 2nd Lt., 2; Honor Committee, 2; Roller Rifles, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2; Honor Roll, 1, 2; Algebra 2 medal, 1; Spanish medal, 1; NROTC scholarship, 2.

Chameleon—that was "Bugs" when he arrived at AMA and decided to lead the pack—and that's what he's done. Kind and considerate, he's made every cadet in his platoon feel that he had a friend. One of the most efficient officers in the corps, he's also been tops in academics, sharing his knowledge with anyone who wanted help. He's a Yankee whom we gladly integrated!

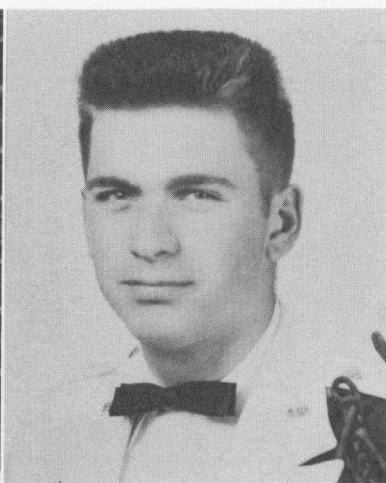

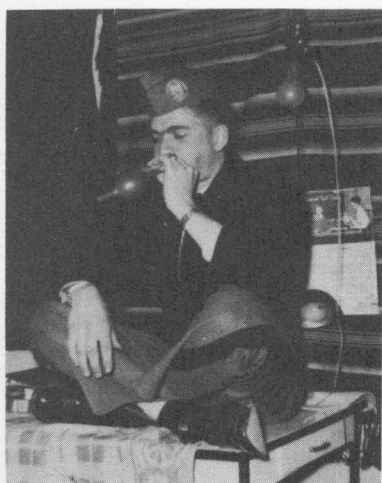

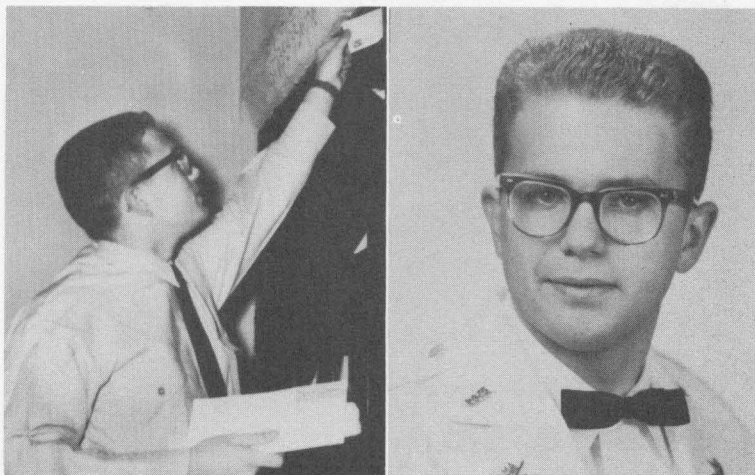

the need for more study . . . higher grades.

WILLIAM MILTON BLAKELY, JR.

Louisville, Georgia

Pvt., 1; M/Sgt., 2; RECALL, 1; Rifle team, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2; Honor Roll, 1.

Frustration personified—he just can't decide what mail box to put it in . . . that's because NO ONE puts box numbers on their letters, but our shy, unassuming Georgia lad has really done a great job with the new mail boxes. Potentialities unlimited in scholastic fields, and he's been a real shot on the rifle team! Teacher, preacher or lawyer, Bill will be a credit to AMA.

WILLIAM CROCKETT BOWEN

Bland, Virginia

Cpl., 1; First Sgt., 2; Honor Committee, 2; Roller Rifles, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2.

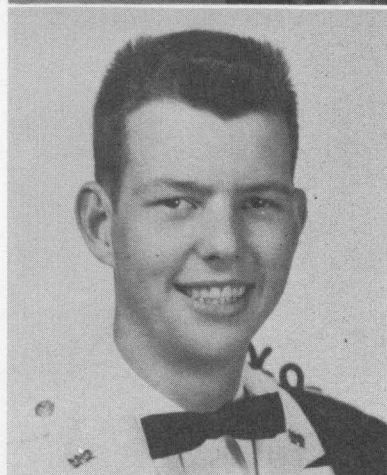

Southwestern Virginia farm boy—we just couldn't take the country out of Big Bill, but no one would want to do it. Respected, admired and emulated, Bill has set an example of gentleness which is surprising for one of his size. Outstanding new cadet and a big help to the officers in Barracks, he's always got a joke, a dry retort, or a smile.

WILLIAM JOHN BURRELL

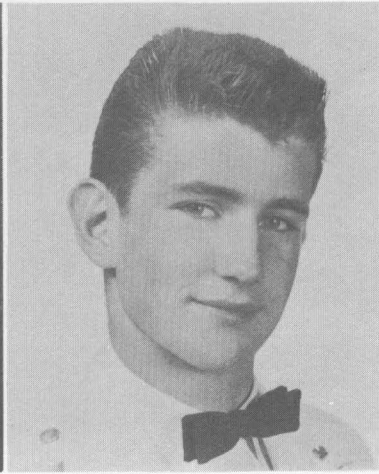

Madrid, Spain

Pvt., 1; Cpl., 2; Sgt., 3; 2nd Lt., 4; Capt. QM, 5; Cotillion Club, 1-5; Decorating Committee, 1-4, chm., 5; Roller Rifles, 4, 5; Rifle Team, 3-5; Lacrosse team, 1, 2, 5; Fencing team, 1, 2; RECALL, 4; Bayonet, Bus. Mgr., 5; Honor Roll, 1, 2, 3.

Bill's just about the most volatile cadet at AMA, but when he isn't blowing up, he can accomplish just about anything he wants to. Final Ball, Holiday Ball or Openings just wouldn't have been the same without the Burrell touch . . . perfect ceilings, intricate patterns. And Bill, too, is a lover.

Progressing rapidly onward, the old

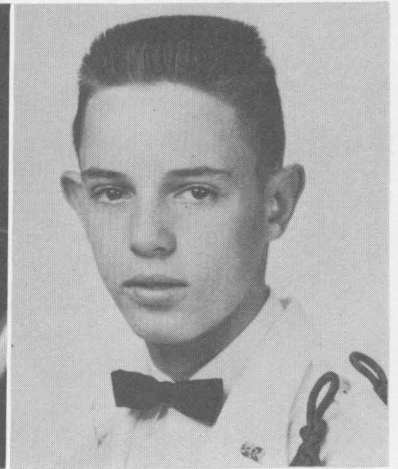

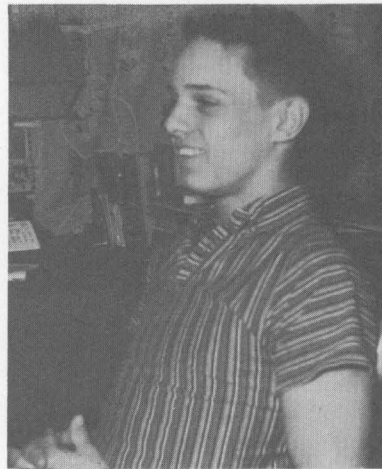

JOHN ADAM KEENE BYRD

Hot Springs, Virginia

Pvt., 1; 2nd Lt., 2; Varsity Football, 1, 2; Basketball, 1, 2; Baseball, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2; Glee Club, 1; Drama Club, 2.

Glance at the cadet with the cocky walk; listen to the wise remark; watch the lad on the football field, basketball court or on the baseball diamond—couldn't be anyone but Keene. He took up where Butter left off and he's done a great job. Keene has the capacity for appearing self-assured under any circumstance, especially with women of any age!

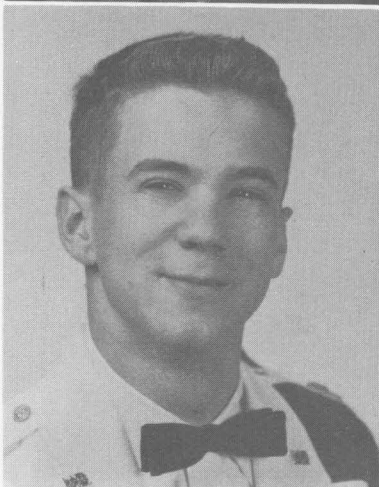

MAURICE WALKER COULON

Boston, Massachusetts

Pvt., 1; SFC, 2; Pvt., 3, 4; Tiger Football, 1, 2; Tiger Basketball, 1; Tiger Baseball, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1-3; 1st Place National French Contest; Algebra 2 medal; Wrestling team, 3, 4; Honor Roll, 1-4; NROTC scholarship, 4.

Brains—there's no doubt—NROTC scholarship winner—first place in French in the Modern Language Tournament—medalist in Algebra 2—brawn—interested in every sport at AMA—winner in his class in wrestling in nearly every meet . . . It's Buzzy, our mighty mite from Boston, accent and all. If Buz wanted to, he could get a job at Las Vegas at any time . . . just ask the C.W.'s!

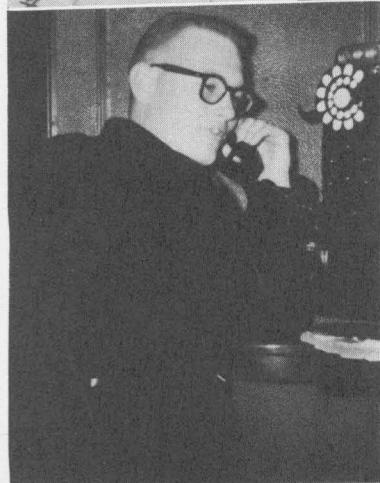

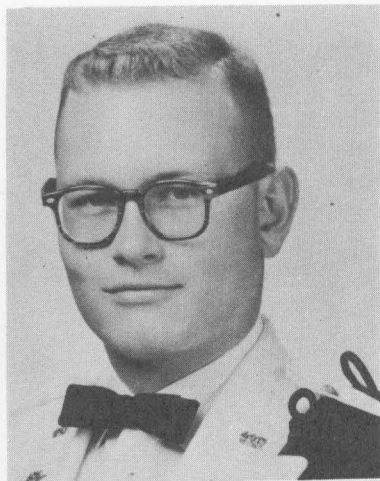

DAVID OLIVER CONRAD

Wilmington, Delaware

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; 1st Lt., 3, 4; Capt., 4; Tiger Football, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1-4; Roller Rifles, 3, 4; Decorator, 1-4; Student Body Officer, 4; Honor Committee, 4; RECALL, Bus. Mgr., 3, 4.

The Voice! D.O.C. And there's no doubt that his favorite dish is sPam! Dave's been confessor to the girls at Stuart Hall e'er these many years, and there's no doubt that the personality kid has been just about the best business manager that a yearbook could have. Never quiet, never calm, always active, his voice has sometimes led him into trouble, but his desire to do what's right can't be doubted!

cadet Seniors saw three NROTC winners!

GEORGE LLOYD EASTLACK

South Boston, Virginia

Pvt., 1; M/Sgt., 2; 2nd Lt., 3; 1st Lt., 4; Swimming, 1-4; Football, 2; Glee Club, 3; YMCA Officer, 2, 3, 4; Roller Rifles, 2-4; Cotillion Club, 1-3; Secretary, 4; Decorator, 1-4.

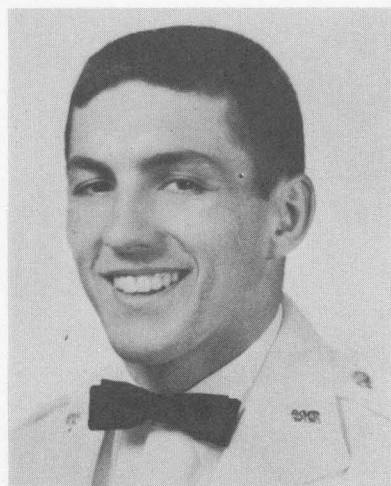

Such a father to the boys in E Company—that's what Lloyd wants us to say and that's the truth! Lloyd managed to spend part of his time before the mirror, the other in advising his friends. Of course, he's spent right much time in Chemistry and at Stuart Hall! Loyal to the YMCA, Lloyd's been a determined president. A fine swimmer, that extra weight held him away from the water in '59, so he spent more time on the books.

KENNETH WARD COYNER

Staunton, Virginia

Pvt., 1, 2, 3; Varsity Football, 1, 2, 3; Varsity Basketball, 1, 2, 3; Varsity Baseball, 1, 2, 3.

Nobody, but nobody at AMA loves athletics more than Ken. And he's kept his grades up high in order to shine in every sport that he really likes. On the football field, that flash of lightning is No. 9—Coyner. And in basketball and baseball, Ken displays sharpness and ability which will carry him far in collegiate competition. Quiet, withdrawn and sincere, the term "nice guy" aptly describes Ken.

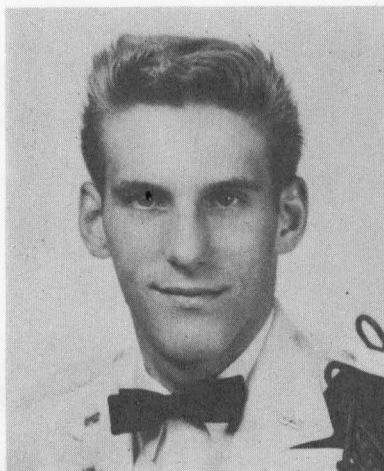

ROBERT BECKER DURST, JR.

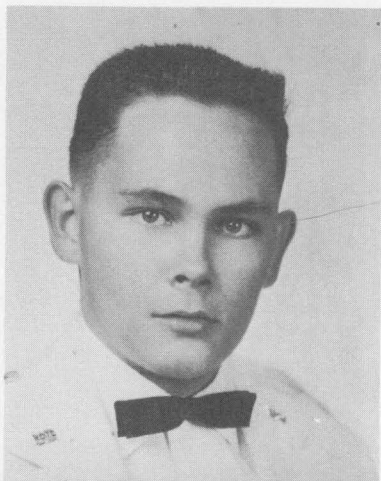

Southampton, Pennsylvania

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2, 3; 2nd Lt., 4; 1st Lt., 5; Roller Rifles, 3, 4, 5; Tiger Football, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1-5; Honor Committee, 5.

Happy-go-lucky—that's the appearance Bob gives, but there's a deep current down under that surface! And that's what the Honor Committee has found out this year, for Bob was always willing to ask a few pertinent questions, succinct, to say the least. Bob's the Durst with the long, blond hair which somehow always managed to escape the clippers. Yankee through and through, we just couldn't convince him that the South had a side in THAT war.

Realizing the importance of hard work

FRED WALKER EVANS

Wilmington, Delaware

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; RECALL, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2.

"I'd rather kiss a cat" . . . this statement will go down in history! Even though Fred discovered that it was spring all year as far as love was concerned, he still preferred pets to girls! Of course, food and Fred go together like a horse and carriage. Famous for his appetite, his packages from home and his beloved "submarines", Fred's jovial, naive and as generous as they come. We'll not forget that rotund personality or his description of his romances!

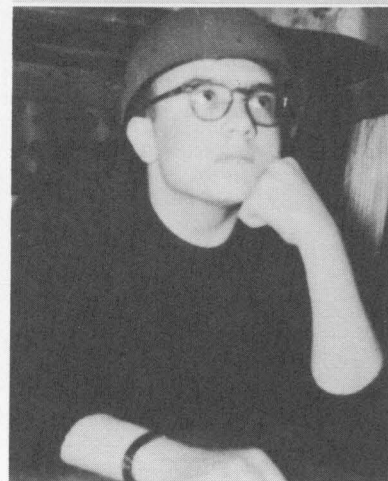

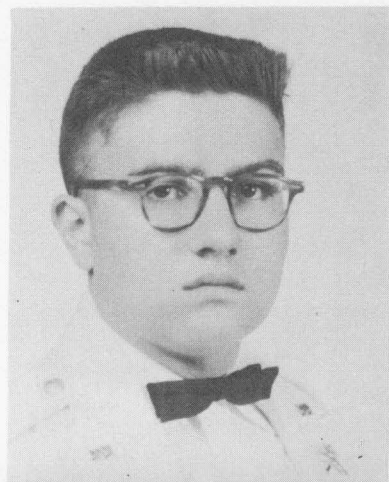

JOSE FERREIRO R.

Santiago de Cuba

Pvt., 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2.

Revolutionist! This year that title could describe just about all of our Cuban cadets, but there's a special difference in Jose's case: constantly he has nose buried in every bit of material that he can read about the disturbance and he considers himself an authority on every phase of the Revolution. Jose pictures himself as a gigol o (gigolo) but we picture him as a good student, a kind person and a smiling Cuban.

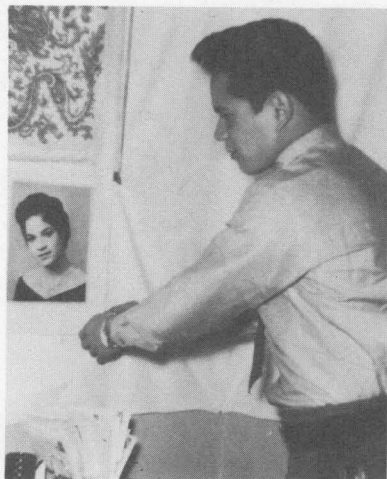

CARLOS GIAMMARIA R.

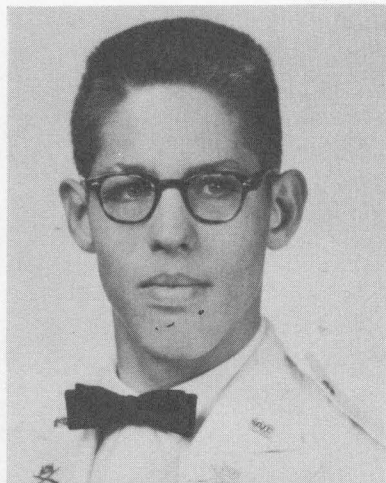

Barranquilla, Colombia

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; 1st Lt., 3, 4, 5; Capt., 6; Junior Athletics, 1; Student Body Officers, 4, 5, 6; Honor Committee, 4, 5, 6; Roller Rifles, 3-6; Ad Astra, 4, 5, 6.

Best dressed cadet—that's the honor the corps has paid Carlos for three years. And he's also the biggest fisherman—if he doesn't catch them, there aren't any! AMA won't seem the same without a Giammaria. Outstanding from his first year, Charlie's been part and parcel of the Honor Committee and Student Body Officers for three years. Stern and efficient, yes—but that doesn't conceal his delightful attitude toward life!

Seniors requested longer study hours.

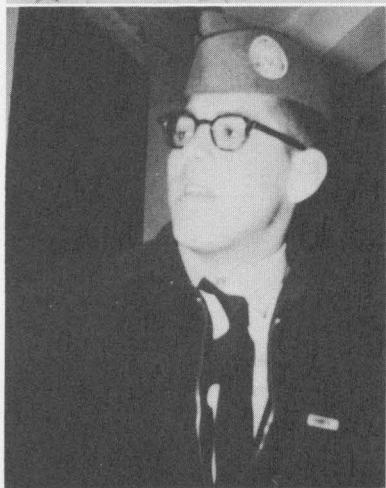

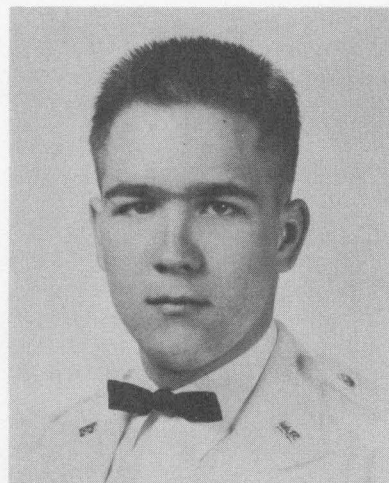

GILBERTO GIL S.

Habana, Cuba

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2, 3; Fencing, 1, 2, 3; Bayonet, 2; Cotillion Club, 2.

Satellite No. 1. That's the appellation given Gilberto by his fellow Latins. And yet, Gilberto's as worldly as they come. Another one of our "mirror" men, he wouldn't think of letting Gook get loose on his hair. Nervous, excitable and trigger quick, this boy really talks with his hands. Gilberto's really been an asset to the fencers 'cause he can use those hands! His pet peeve here—guard duty.

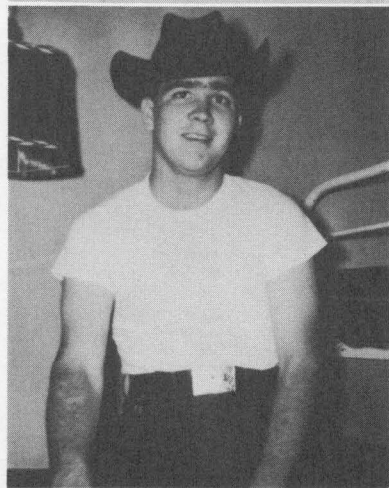

HANS PETER HANSEN

Louisville, Kentucky

Pvt., 1, 2; Bayonet, 1.

Oh, who's our happy wanderer? None, but Hans Peter—who likes to sing his theme song and tap dance to it on the slightest provocation. Pete's also our invisible man!—disappears—reappears. Pete's taken a lot of kidding and he's just about as good-natured as they come. Studious, serious and determined, here's one boy who is still water—cool and deep!

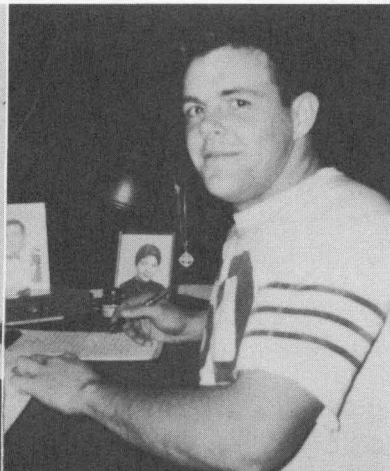

JOHN ELBERT HOLDER

Hillsville, Virginia

Pvt., 1; 1st Sgt., 2; Honor Committee, 1, 2; Football, 1, 2; Baseball, 1, 2; Wrestling, 1; Cotillion Club, 1, 2; Roller Rifles, 2.

Big John's eating habits haven't changed a bit during the year—he's still the unchallenged champ of the full plate. No one believes he's changed that "chaw" of tobacco either! Truthfully, John's as sincere, honest, forthright and good as any cadet at AMA. We're going to miss that drawl, that appetite, those friendly "chaws" and those rock 'n roll sessions. The scouts haven't signed him up yet, but maybe he'll hit the big time yet.

'59's Seniors sought entrance to diverse

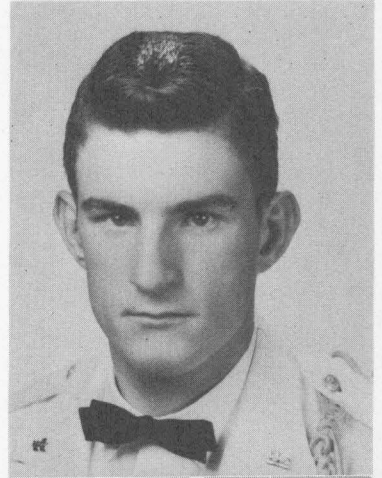

DAVID WILLIAM HUNT

Jackson, Michigan

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; Swimming, 1; Football, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2.

From the "Exterminators" in Michigan, it was but a short jump to the trumpet club here and he's done a pretty good job on that, too! Dave's dike boy, Hughes, has several claims against his best friend—he swears that the only water Dave's seen in a year was in the swimming pool in '58! That Super room was due to Dave's efforts to always be on top . . . and that widow's peak is a holdover from the Michigan days!

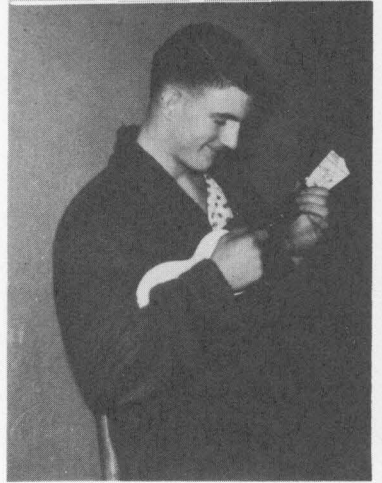

WILLIAM CALHOUN KELLEY

Brooke, Virginia

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; 1st Lt., 3; Battalion Commander, 4; Football, 1-4, captain, 3, 4; Lacrosse, 1-4; Cotillion Club, 1-4; Decorator, 1-4; Basketball, mgr., 2; Roller Rifles, 2, 3, executive officer, 4; Honor Committee, 3, president, 4; Student Body Officers, 3, president, 4; Final Ball officer, 3, 4; Ad Astra, 3, 4.

A real cut-up, that's Pete, once the most-busted man at Augusta. That's why he knows the ropes and has been able to anticipate trouble as First Captain. Lampie's twin, Pete and Ralph are inseparable. Pete's pulled AMA's largest corps together even with many obstacles. Loving AMA and the Valley as few cadets have ever done, Pete's put out his best and it shows every day in every way.

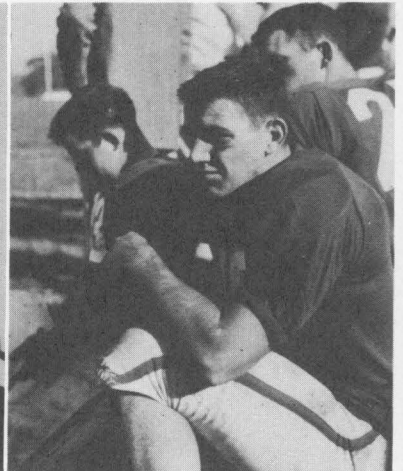

CLAY FRANKLIN JOHNSON

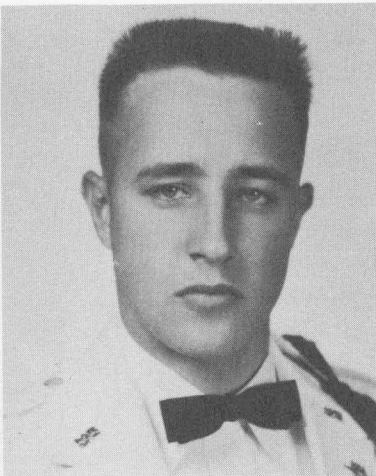

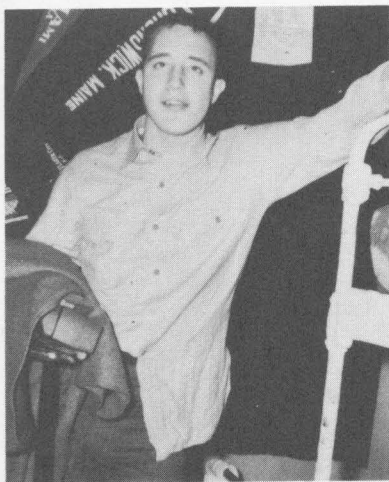

Newport News, Virginia

Cpl., 1; 1st Lt., 2; Football, 1, 2; Basketball, 1, 2; Baseball, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 2; Track, 1; Honor Committee, 2.

Most valuable football player award for two years, but to Mike and Zeke, Clay's sharing of a locker was somewhat tedious. Chief trash can emptier, Clay manages to evade cleaning the room—he's a flash in athletics, but in No. 1, he's molasses. Easy to get along with, Clay's constantly one big smile, particularly when he's with his best friend, Andy. Drum major of the Band, Clay cuts a mean figure on the field, and he's got the girls to go with that golden personality!

colleges--W&L--VMI--VPI--UVa.--East and West!

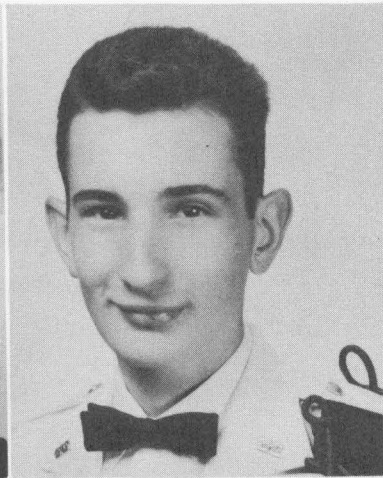

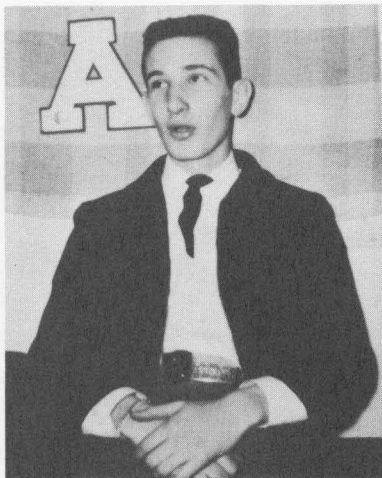

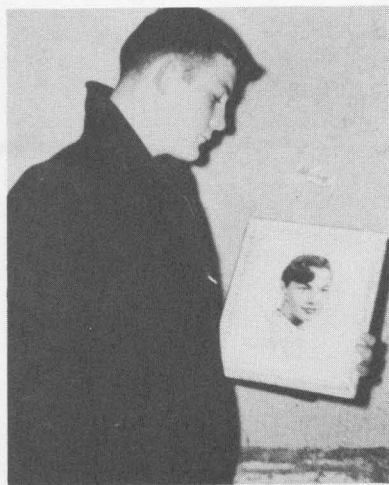

MARTIN FRANCIS KRUPPENBACHER

Yonkers, New York

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; Swimming, 1, 2; Roller Rifles, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2.

Noisiest corner in barracks—201, the center—naturally, Kruppenbacher is there. The Yankee bombshell enlivens every place he goes and he certainly has left his mark on AMA! Beneath that wild New York exterior beats the determination to surge ahead, and Marty's studied hard in order to do just that. Marty's still trying to sell us the Brooklyn Bridge, but, instead, we've convinced him that the South is God's country.

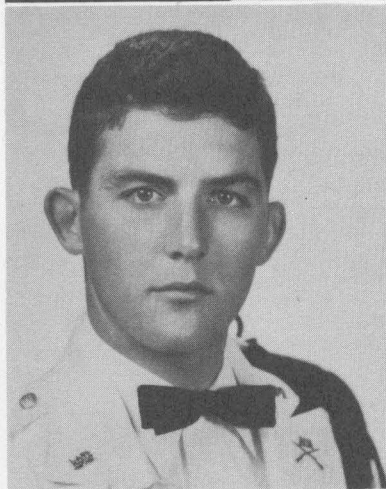

CHARLES VANDERBILT LANG

West Orange, New Jersey

Pvt., 1; SFC, 2; 1st Lt., 3, 4; Roller Rifles, 2-4; Cotillion Club, 1-4; Decorator, 2, 3, chm., 3; Cheerleader, 3, 4; Basketball, 1, 2; Honor Roll, 3; Glee Club, 3.

We don't need a newspaper at AMA with Lang around—for four years he's seen that we get all of the news as soon as it happens! Chuck's a truly fine decorator and no old cadet will forget the Final Ball '58 and all the work he put into it. Versatile, Chuck's an athlete, a songbird and a student. He'll keep that nose to the grindstone!

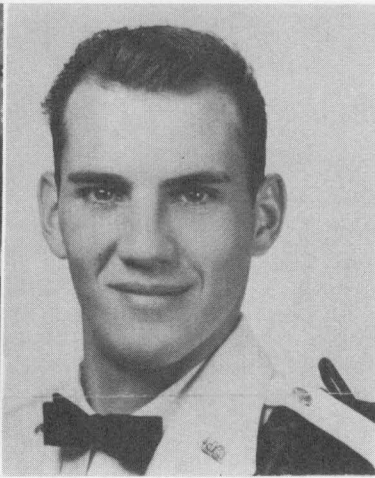

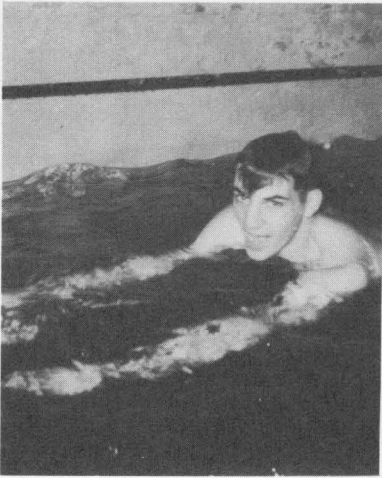

RALPH WILLIAM LAMPIE, JR.

Richmond, Virginia

Pvt., 1; First Sgt., 2; Roller Rifles, 2; Cotillion Club, 2; CAFC, 2.

Kelley's half brother, Ralph, has had to take care of his "children" throughout the year, as first sergeant of "E" Company. Another of our invisible men, Ralph's seldom seen in the afternoon until the time arrives for mail. With his trademark of "jeep", he sometimes confuses with a run on the "Green Ghost". One of the most efficient men on O.D., he's also one of the most feared. Pete couldn't have done without Ralph or Ralph without Pete.

More serious, more purposeful, Seniors

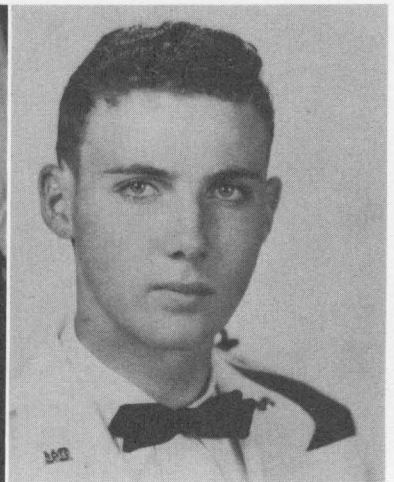

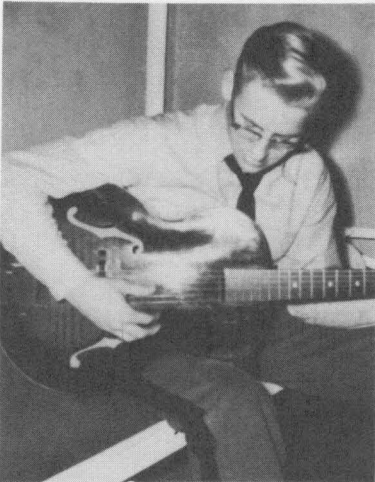

JOSEPH FRANCIS LARUE

Turtle Creek, Pennsylvania

Pvt., 1-3; Sgt., 4; 1st Sgt., 5; Basketball, 2; Football, 3, 4, 5; Track, 4; Swimming, 2, 5; Lacrosse, 1; Roller Rifles, 5; Cotillion Club, 1-5; Decorator, 2-5; Glee Club, 4; Dramatics, 5.

"Wanted!"—that's what the Military Department says about Joe—that if there's a war, he's the cadet they'd most like to have in their platoon! Ole Joe's tried just about everything at AMA, and the results have been above average. Joe's tables at dances have been as distinctive as his statement that "books aren't going to interfere with my education!"

WILLIAM PERRATON MAYNE II

Bailey's Bay, Bermuda

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; 1st Lt., 3; Rifle Team, 2, 3; Roller Rifles, 3; Cotillion Club, 1, 2, 3; Tennis, 2, 3.

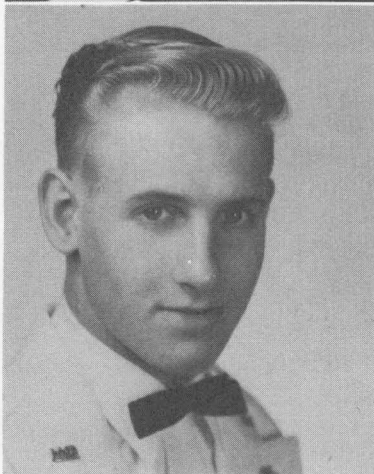

A pretty big "shot" on the Rifle Team, Bill's the quiet member of the duo who are "subjects of the Queen". For two years, Bill and John had the "cleanest room in barracks", and Bill maintains that immaculate appearance in his uniform. John and Bill aren't twins, but they stick up for one another against all odds. Serious and studious, Bill's headed in the right direction.

ERIC ORYOUNG LOGAN

Springfield, Virginia

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; Pvt., 3; Decorator, 2, 3.

Virginia gave AMA two hillbillies—Bowen and Logan. 'Fact is, Eric and his guitar are symbolic of a western country music cult and most cadets believe he's from West(ern) Virginia. As distinctive as his long blonde hair and his drawl is his love of the outdoors. Eric's rather quiet, but on the subjects of farming, hiking and music, he's a monologue of information and fun. Workhorse is a title he aptly deserves.

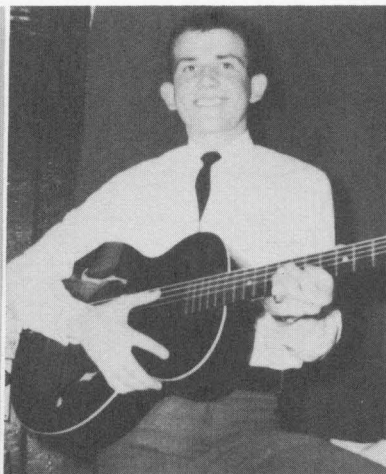

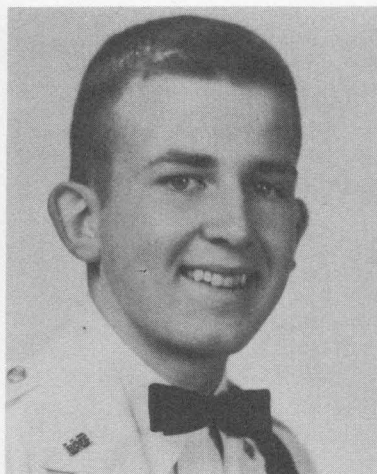

'59 still prefer rock 'n' roll, but not Elvis!

CARL RODGER MORRIS

Crozet, Virginia

Pvt., 1; 1st Sgt., 2; Capt., 3; Battalion Adjutant, 4; Football, 1; Basketball, 1; Baseball, 1-4; Rifle Team, 2-4, capt., 3, 4; Honor Committee, 2-4; Student Body Officers, 3, 4; Decorator, 1-3; Ad Astra, 2, 3, 4; YMCA, 2, 3; Roller Rifles, 4; Cheerleader, 2.

Tip-tap Rodger—everyone in the Valley is bound to have seen Rodger at one time or another performing his famous tap dance at one of the many charity shows. Excelling also as a shot on the Rifle Team and as a pitcher, Rodger's well loved when he makes out the guard roster! Sensitive about his home town's size (population 50), Rodger's a loyal son of Augusta!

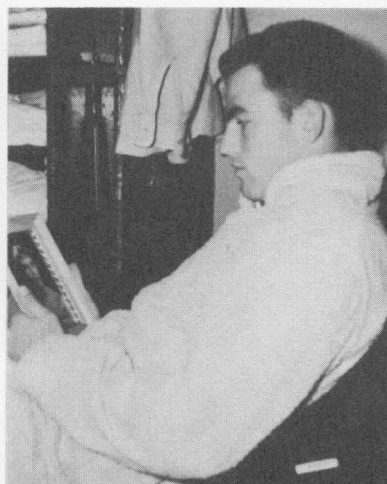

HUGH ANDREW MOULSE, JR.

Roanoke, Virginia

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; Roller Rifles, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2.

"Sieg Heil, Mouse!" The "Beat Generation" has found a supporter in Mouse and the other members of the 3rd Stoop Tower Gestapo Association. Noted for his remarkable ability in card-playing, he's also noted for his resemblance to Corky—in fact, 'ere's ears, No. 2! A big cut-up in class, Mouse still manages to maintain a high average and the friendship of his instructors—and there's no doubt that he's popular with the corps!

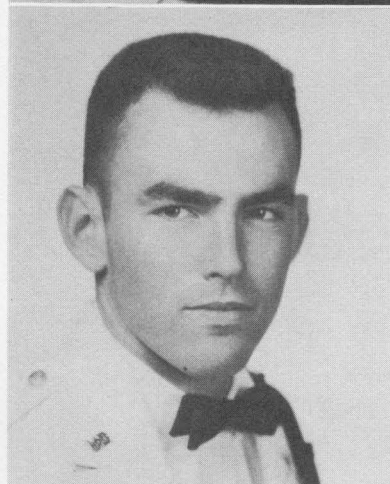

WILLIAM McDONALD McGRATH, III

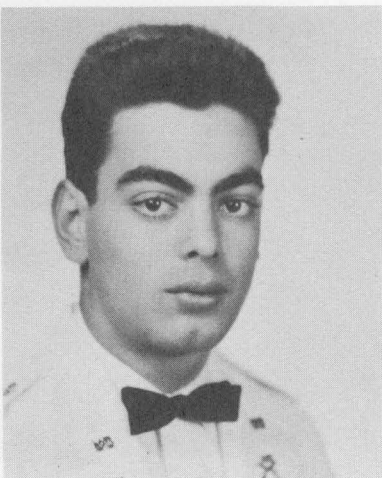

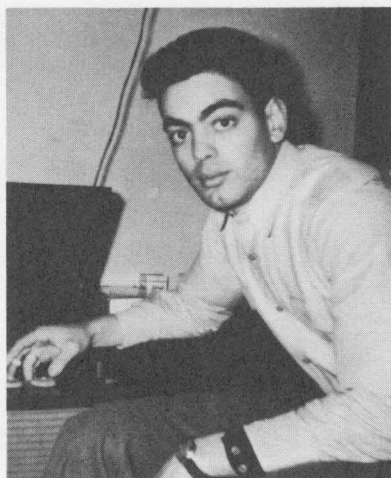

Newport News, Virginia

Pvt., 1; M/Sgt., 2; Football, 1, 2; Fencing, 1, 2; Baseball, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2; Roller Rifles, 2.

"Poodle" not only likes cuckoo clocks, but now he's adopting any stray kittens that he can find. This has made him extremely popular with his roommates! Possessor of the prettiest sister in the school, Bill's sister was a Princess last year. Sensitive about his ears, Bill shouldn't be, 'cause he's one of the most popular color guardsmen at AMA. Never has he been seen in a bad mood—he just smiles all of the time!

With the best football team in eight

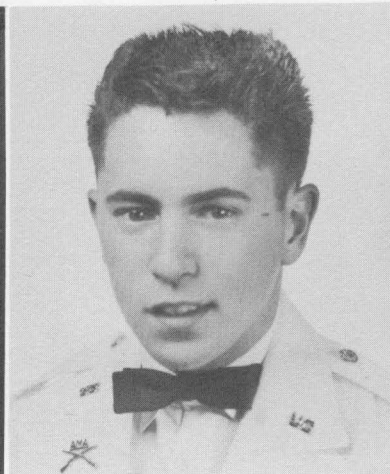

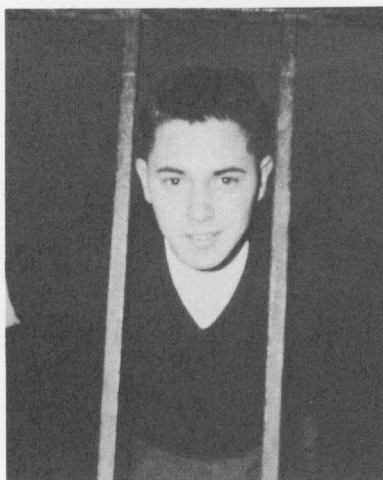

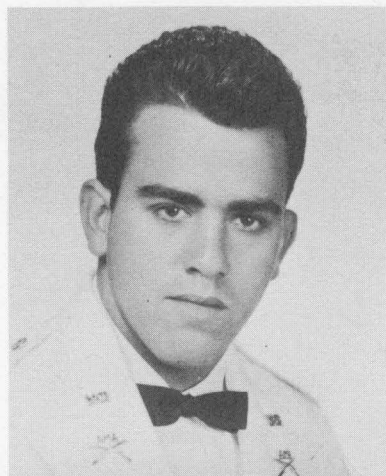

CARLOS J. PEREZ, R.

Banes, Oriente, Cuba

Pvt., 1, 2; Sgt., 3; Bayonet, Art Editor, 2, 3; Final Ball Decorator, 2, 3.

As soon as Carlos arrived on the Ft. Defiance scene, he had a nickname from his Latin American buddies—"Vampiro"—and no one deserves such a name any less. Carlos is kind, considerate, and helpful whenever he's called on, and he has really helped the "Bayonet" and Final Ball with his expert art work. During the summer, Carlos is another one of our fishermen, and in that sport, he is tops.

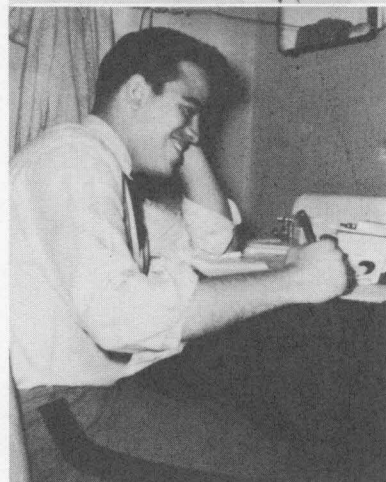

ROGER VINCENT RAMOS, JR.

Long Beach, California

Pvt., 1, 2; Glee Club, 1; Dramatics, 2; Armory Staff, 2; Decorator, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2.

Bill just couldn't have found some one more obsequious than Roger. Without Roger, the dances in '58 and '59 just wouldn't have been as well decorated. Bill and Roger formed the unbeatable team! Expert, on the M-1, Roger wants to have a military career and expand his knowledge in all directions. Our southpaw from California has kept his grades up high for two years; on his way to a service academy is our "Cherokee Charlie"!

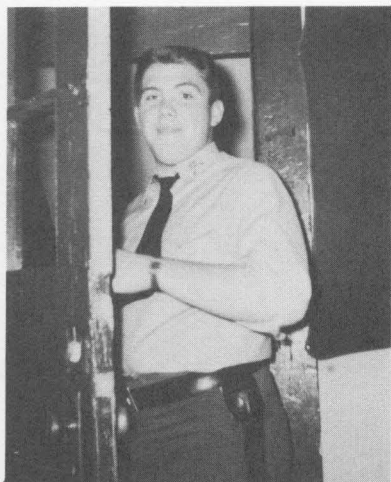

ALDOFO PLAZAOLA, F.

Oriente, Cuba

Pvt., 1, 2, 3; Basketball, 1; Football, 1, 2, 3; Baseball, 1, 2, 3.

Clip, clip: that's bound to be "Gook" taking care of the boys just before inspection. Barber without a license, Gook has a steady trade, and he does a bang-up job. Without that black leather jacket, it's just not the same "Gook" that we know—a ladies' man, a man's ball player, and a barrel of fun. And that rock 'n' roll with a Latin beat is the music Gook likes.

each Senior had pleasant memories.

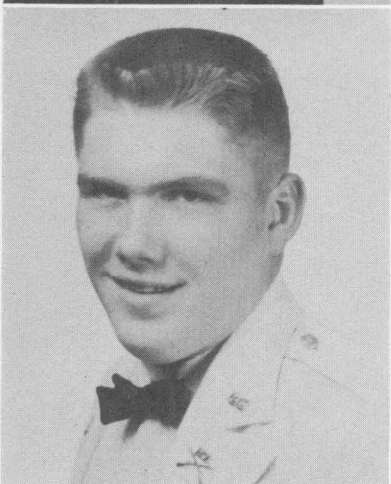

CHARLES ELLIOTT RIDGE, III

Hillsville, Virginia

Pvt., 1; 2nd Lt., 2; Captain, 3; Cotillion Club, 1, 2, president, 3; Final Ball Officer, 2, 3; Decorator, 1, 2, 3; Roller Rifles, 2, 3; Swimming, 1; Football, 1, 3; Tennis, 1, 2, 3; Rifle Team, 2; YMCA officer, 2, 3; RECALL, 2, 3; Ad Astra, 2, 3; Honor Committee, 3; Student Body Officer, 3.

Have you 'eard about ears? Our boy, Corky, takes a lot of kidding about his trademark, but the boy from the mountains has done a fine job as captain of the Band. In fact, he's made it the best ever. Regarded as a cupid by some boys, he's AMA's link with Stuart Hall. He's one of the best, even if we do kid him constantly.

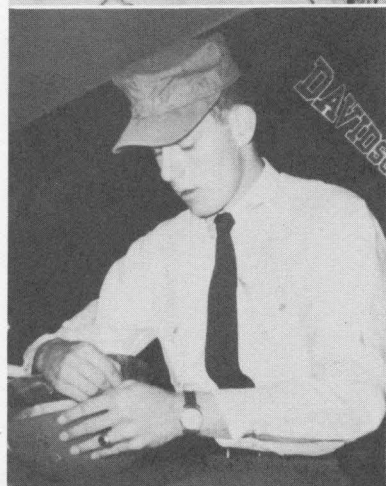

STUART ARCHER SMITH, JR.

Warrenton, Virginia

Pvt., 1; M/Sgt., 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2; Decorator, 1, 2.

Tall tale teller, Chip has about as much influence with the Military Department as anyone at AMA. Large in size, on the dance floor, he glides as if he's floating. Must be due to the Gold Cup—Civil War influences of Warrenton that makes him smooth in everything he does. His personality is as corpulent as his physique. An author already, Chip's had an article published about the Civil War! This boy is really Southern!

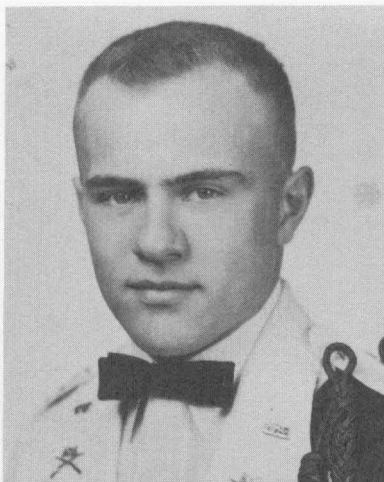

JOSEPH MICHAEL SNELL

Petersburg, West Virginia

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2; Capt., 3, 4; Football, 1, 2, 3; Wrestling, 2, captain, 4; Tennis, 1; Cotillion Club, 1-4; Student Body Officer, 3, 4; Honor Committee, 3, 4; Ad Astra, 2, 3, 4; Decorators, chm., 2; RECALL, 3; Roller Rifles, 3, 4.

Rocky began to take himself too seriously this year; up to now, he's been a ball of fire in everything at AMA. No person could love the school as much as he, and yet have so many controversies about his school! One of the unholy three, Rocky's wrestling was in top form. Kin to everybody in the Valley, the Rock has certainly been an influence on his alma mater.

Contributing to a successful year in e

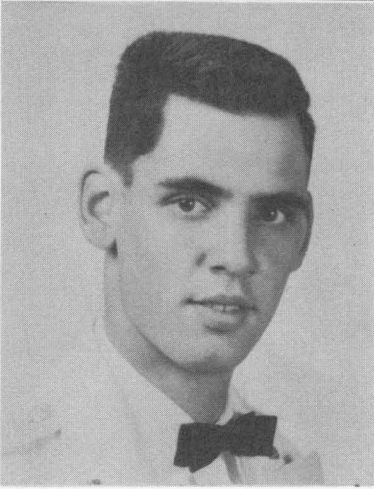

JOHN FREDERICK STECIW

Bay Village, Ohio

Pvt., 1; M/Sgt., 2; Infirmary, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2; Decorator, 1, 2; Movie Projectionist, 2.

Answer to a prayer—that's what Mrs. Canevet says about John and his help in the Infirmary. Added to that, it's influenced him to such an extent, that he's decided to major in pre-med instead of engineering. Electrician, projectionist, and decorator, John's spread himself around the school, and it hasn't been thinly done. In many ways, he's been following in Smoot's footsteps!

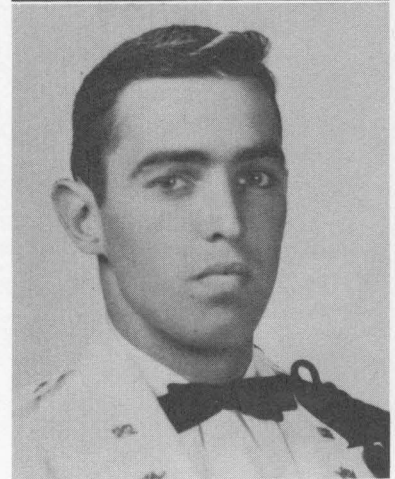

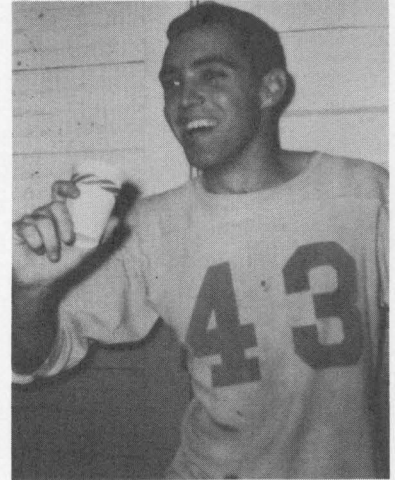

DONNIE RAY TABOR

Staunton, Virginia

Pvt., 1; 1st Sgt., 2; Football, 1, 2; Basketball, 1, 2; Roller Rifles, 2; Cotillion Club, 2.

"I'm going down through the Sunken Garden to the lower Social Hall"—that's the master of the double talk, Donnie Ray speaking. Mouthpiece of Headquarters Company, he's managed to get the boys up on time. A real lover, Don's especially fond of civilian clothes, and he really knows how to dress. Ole "Tomato's" one fine athlete—in football and in basketball. One sport he just can't master, however, is fishing!

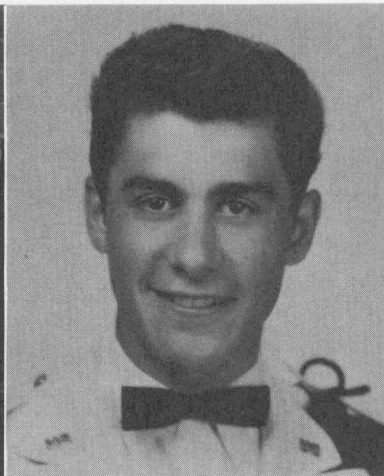

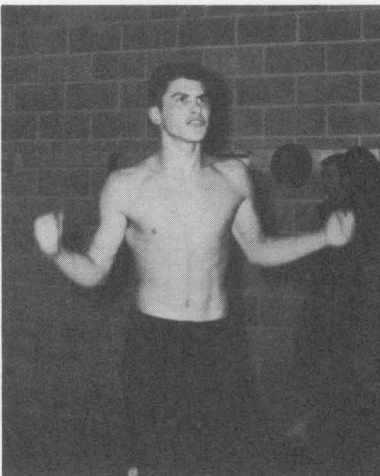

TYRONE GUTHRIE TOMASEK

Baltimore, Maryland

Pvt., 1, 2; Cpl., 3; SFC, 4; M/Sgt., 5; 2nd Lt., 6; 1st Lt., 7; Captain, 8, 9; Junior Athletics, 1-4; Basketball, 5, 6; Football, 7, 8; Baseball, 7, 8, 9; Wrestling, 9; Cotillion Club, 6, 7, 9; Roller Rifles, 5-9; Decorator, 5, 6; Honor Roll, 1-4; Honor Committee, 8.

If you haven't seen the "Jocko", you haven't lived! Caesar and Ty have perfected this, and spread the cult. Nine years at AMA! It just won't seem the same without Ty, and that fourth stoop tower will never be the same. Glance at his activities—look at his picture—he has been a real part of Augusta. Popular? His boys paid $80 during the Polio drive just to keep him in "A" Company!

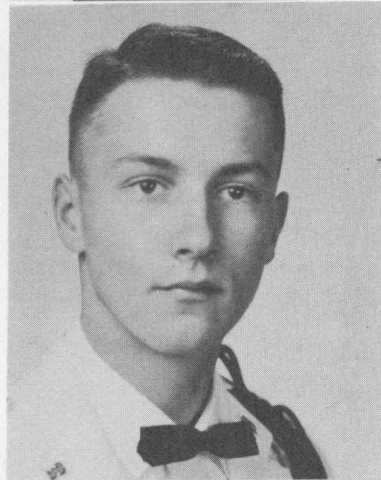

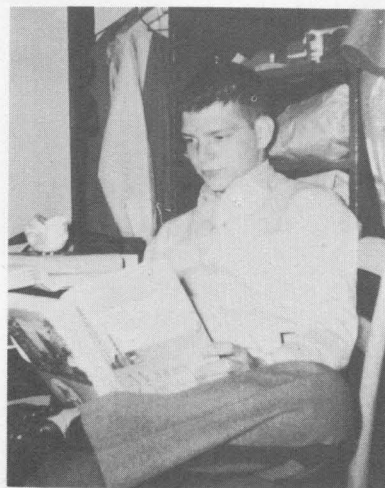

every way was the Senior attitude--SUCCEED!

JAMES PENROD TOWE

Charlottesville, Virginia

Pvt., 1; M/Sgt., 2; Sgt. Major, 3; Fencing, 1, 2; RECALL, 1, 2, 3; Best New Cadet, 1; Football, 1; Roller Rifles, 2, 3; Lacrosse, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2, 3; Honor Committee, 3; Decorator, 2, 3.

"Chocolate Drop"—that's just about the only nickname that Jim doesn't like, but he'll go along with anything! Hard luck struck Jim this year, and we all found out that he has more real stuff than just about anyone, and he, in turn, found out that he had more friends than he ever suspected. His fortitude and humor will always keep him on top. Anyone who calls Jim "friend" is fortunate.

JES RYNIER VAN EVERA

Martinsburg, West Virginia

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2, 3, 4; Lacrosse, 1; Rifle Team, 4; Roller Rifles, 4; Wrestling Team, 1-4.

Known around school as a woman hater, he claims that in West Virginia it's a different story! Our Jes has been a strong man on the wrestling team for four years, and he combines two winter sports at the same time! Jes is one of the few people who never gripes about anything. He's been as easy to get along with and as easy to live with as anyone could wish for.

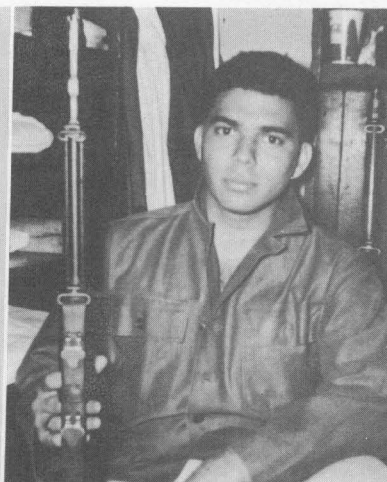

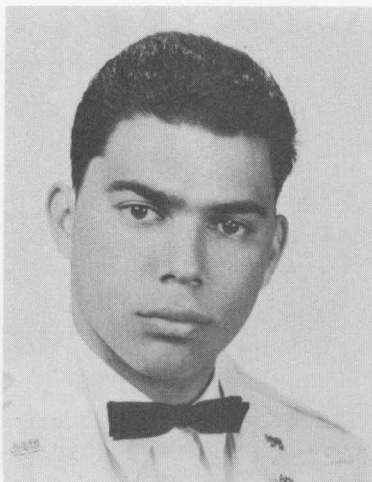

PEDRO VILLAREAL

Santa Ana, El Salvador

Pvt., 1, 2; Sgt., 3.

Obviously, Pedro's spent his time on the books, and it's really been obvious during his senior year. Pete's made Honor Roll, and he's been one of the best physics students. Quiet, polite, and studious, Pete's not been outgoing, but he's been a close friend to a few who found that he'd do anything to help them when they needed help. Must be that he's loyal through and through, because he's been true to his girl back home.

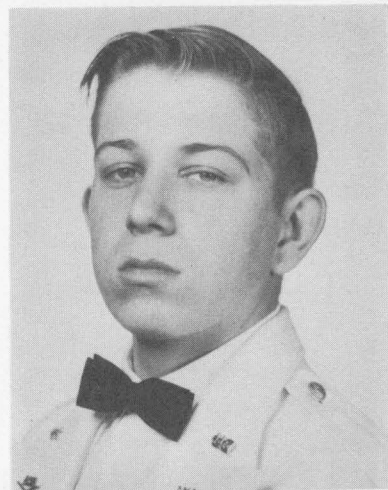

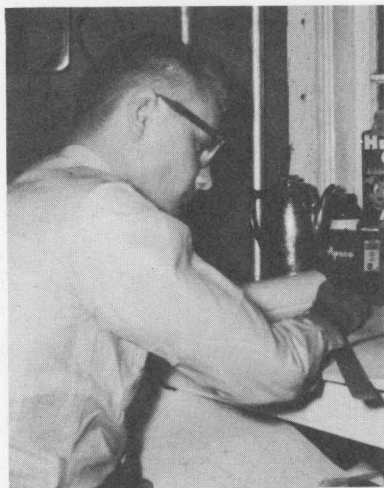

'59 Seniors were AMA's leaders in all fields!

LYLE MONROE WAGNER

Crozet, Virginia

Pvt., 1; Sgt., 2, 3; 2nd Lt., 4; Sgt., 5; Football, 1; Fencing, 2; Cotillion Club, 2, 5; Baseball, 4, 5.

When that left hand of Lyle's starts to draw cartoons, watch out for the sarcasm! It really flows! One of the best students in the school, potentially, Lyle's let off his steam in cartooning, reading, and in learning the automotive lingo. Witty, and quick, Lyle's managed to sneak in a lot of horizontal lab time, and a lot of listening time to radio with his ear-lobe transistor. When Lyle gets on the right track, he'll go, go, go!

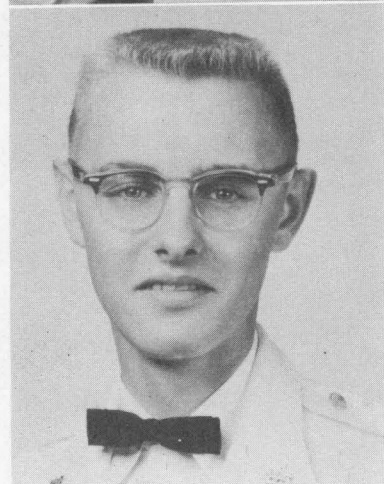

GEORGE MICHAEL WIESE

Silver Spring, Maryland

Pvt., 1; M/Sgt., 2; Honor Committee, 1, 2; Honor Roll, 1, 2; NROTC Scholarship, 2; Roller Rifles, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, officer, 2; YMCA, 1, officer, 2; Best in Military, 1; RECALL, editor, 1, 2.

"General Motors"—that's Mike's nickname, and no more appropriate one could be bestowed upon him. Though the assets are of a different type, he has as many as GMC—personality, intelligence, honesty, and ability. Editor of the RECALL for two years, Mike streamlined his books, added new features, and brought honors to it and to himself. Responsible for the senior write-ups this year, Mike's sharp wit can easily be detected. High on everyone's list of boys to be recalled, he doesn't even act or talk like a Yankee any more!

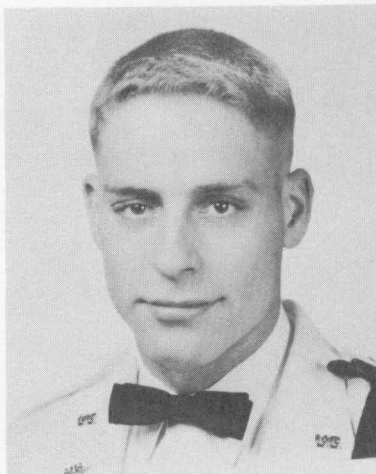

CHARLES BOURDON ZEHMER, JR.

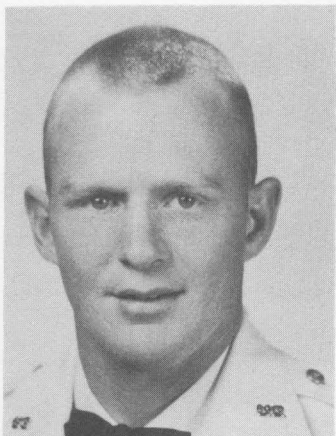

Newport News, Virginia

Pvt., 1; First Sgt., 2; Captain, 3; Honor Committee, 1, 2, 3; Student Body Officer, 2, 3; Decorator, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2, officer, 3; Roller Rifles, 2, 3; YMCA, 2, co-vice president, 3; Football, 1-3; Basketball, 1-3; Baseball, 1-3; Track, 2; Ad Astra, 2, 3.

"I'm the best bummer in the school"—but apparently, no one minds when it's Zeke who's doing the borrowing! When love walked in during Zeke's senior year, he became as well known at Stuart Hall as at AMA. Honest as the day is long, Zeke's standards are high. Ole "Shoe Shine King" had a real friend in Doc, and he was a friend to everyone. AMA has meant a lot to Zeke.

MIRROR, MIRROR ON THE WALL

. . . tells the truth! Just about every cadet glances in the mirror to check his appearance before formation. Zehmer prepares to inspect his company by first checking himself.

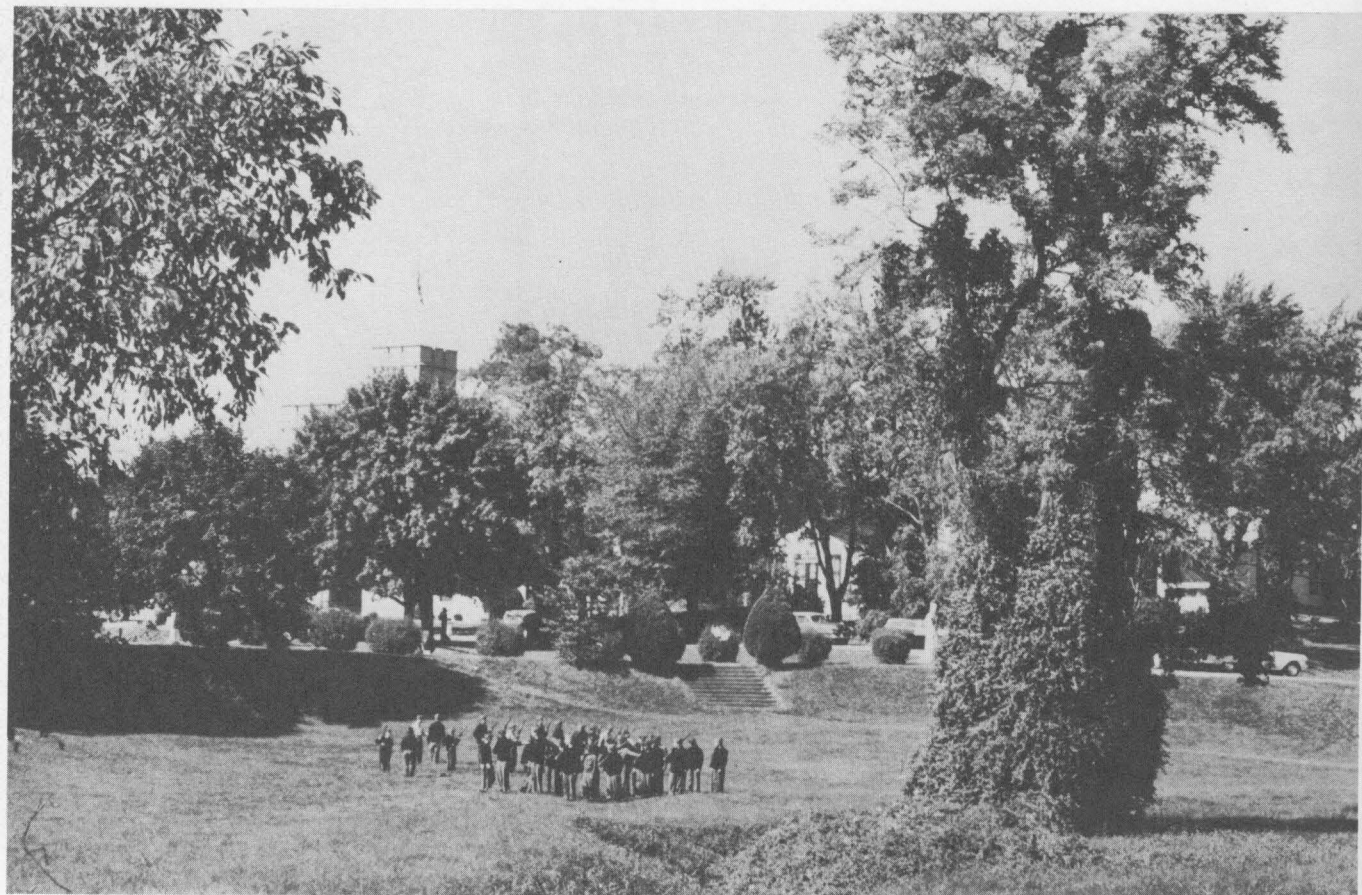

Progress—'59 . . . ranks came, and ranks went . . . privates became corporals and sergeants; sergeants became lieutenants and captains . . . largest corps in AMA's history . . . discipline meant cleanliness, neatness and order.

Inspections at every formation . . . formal inspections once a week . . . Government Inspection in April . . . passing with flying colors, due to the excellent academic training given in the classroom by members of the military department.

Formation at Retreat changed . . . The Band becomes the largest and best that AMA has ever had . . . "Star-Spangled Banner" every night from 19 September until 2 June . . .

Realization dawned on the corps . . . we must be strong in every way in order to meet world challenges . . . voluntary training—producing leaders, men of perception—able to take orders—able to lead—this is the military at AMA—'59!

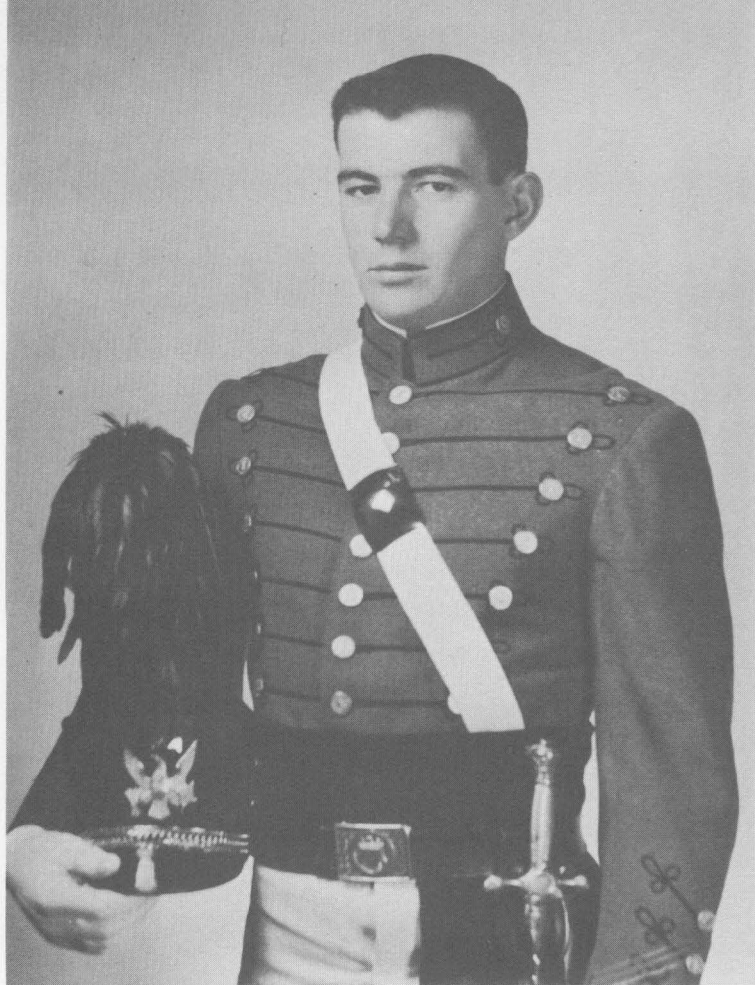

LILY VALLEY PASTORAL . . . fall and spring, "Lily Valley" finds many uses—room for "E" Company drill, a Junior playfield and every now and then, a picnic.

Tribute to the Staff

Five hundred plus boys! And it was the job of the Staff to direct the corps! Seldom could any member of the staff be found who was not doing something for the benefit of the corps.

Specifically, Pete Kelley found that he had to weld a motley crew into a united unit. By the help of his captains and especially his Staff, the results could be seen, in parades, in barracks and in town. Progress, yes! The corps had become the living unit of Augusta!

The most obvious progress we made was in INSPIRING IS THE WORD FOR IT! . . . No other formation at Augusta quite equals the simplicity of the Veterans Day formation. And immediately progress can be seen in the dress, the lines, and the cover of the corps in just two months' time.

TENTING PRACTICE STARTS EARLY . . . by G.I. the gear must be perfect—one of the inspections which gives AMA "Honor School" rating. Blakely and Casal lay out their gear in full field display.

military!

BUTTS MANUAL . . . Exercises with rifles performed to music requires practice by the cadets and the band. During Finals, this display always rates a hand from the spectators.

WE LOVE A PARADE . . . and one reason why so many people come to see AMA's parades on Sundays is the perfection of the color guard. Wiese, Tabor, Linton and Townsend display "Old Glory" and the AMA flag with pride.

The Athletics

Progress—'59 . . . fruits of victory, hard work, and a policy of amateur athletics pays off six years after its inception . . . football team wins eight, drops one . . . basketball team wins more than fifty per cent of its games . . . interest in wrestling picks up.

Johnson, C., Coyner, K., and Kelley star in varsity football . . . J.V. football produces outstanding possibilities in Bart, Horsey, C., and Lobalzo . . . Hoopsters Anderson, W., Coyner,

K., and Calandros spark the basketball team to wins . . . Morris, R., Wayne, W., and Burrell fire first places on the rifle team . . . Nadon, Gaston and Timberlake flash in the water.

More cadets out for football . . . larger squads in basketball, swimming, fencing, wrestling . . . a desire to win—determination to win . . . coaches create interest and show ability by results . . . "we'll stay on top"—athletic spirit '59!

ANOTHER COYNER TO JOHNSON SUCCESS . . . With apparently effortless tactics, Clay Johnson (24) stretches his hands out to receive Coyner's pay-off pass against W&L. Ben Couch reaches futilely and AMA wins 26-0.

MID-AIR SNARE . . . Anthony snares the ball from the air, and it looks like clear sailing for a TD against Norfolk Academy. Out of the picture, however, Anthony was stopped short of the goal. AMA picked up another victory, 55-0.

Best season since '51 for the Blue Streakers . .

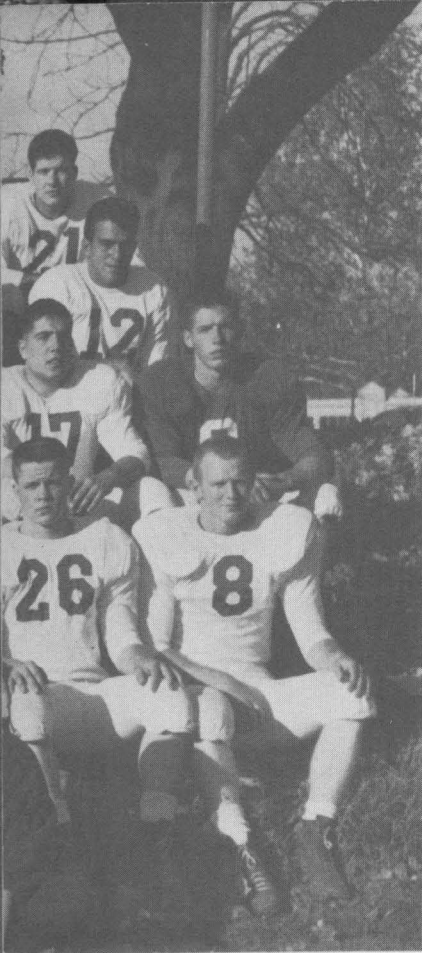

LAST PLAY OF THE FIRST HALF . . . Score 13-0 in favor of AMA, when Ken Coyner broke loose to toss a pass 30 yards to Tabor, who went over for the tally. Coyner's kick made the score at halftime 20-0.

There was just no stopping the Blue Streaks for six straight games! In the first six starts AMA was unscored on, except by VES, and it looked as if AMA had fielded its first undefeated team since 1951.

Up against EHS in a pouring rain, spirits drooped and for the only time in the season, AMA ended up on the short end of the score, 0-19. Snapping back the following weekend, AMA rolled over Randolph-Macon 34-13 and completed its highly successful year with a 32-6 victory over arch rival, Fishburne, on Thanksgiving Day.

Statistics show the power of AMA's defensive play, as the Blue Streaks' opponents tallied 44 points to AMA's 278. No editorializing is necessary to praise AMA's offensive play—278 points does that!

... first win over Foresters in ten years ... a romp over NA ...

DOWN AND DOWN PETE GOES . . . but that wasn't typical of full-back Kelley who pulled AMA out of a hole against FMS. FMS drew first blood, but the Blue Streaks won 32-6.

And The Rains Fell For Woodberry's Fall!

Amid seas of mud, AMA's Blue Streaks gained its first win over Woodberry Forest in ten years!

AMA's rock-hard defense held the Orange-men to 42 yards gained, while a sparkling offense built around Clay Johnson, Gorman and Coyner consistently penetrated the Woodberry defense.

Early in the second period, speedy scatback Clay Johnson grabbed the pigskin and raced 24 yards through mud and the Orange-men's defense to pay-dirt.

Completely dominating the second half both on offense and defense, AMA kept WF bottled in its own territory. Zehmer, Kelley and Townsend added the final 2 points, as they trapped a Woodberry back in his own end zone. Final score—8-0!

Cadets Smother Norfolk Academy 55-0 On Home Ground

Long drives from the first whistle helped the AMA cadets to coast to an easy victory over Norfolk Academy on a dry, dusty field at Fort Defiance.

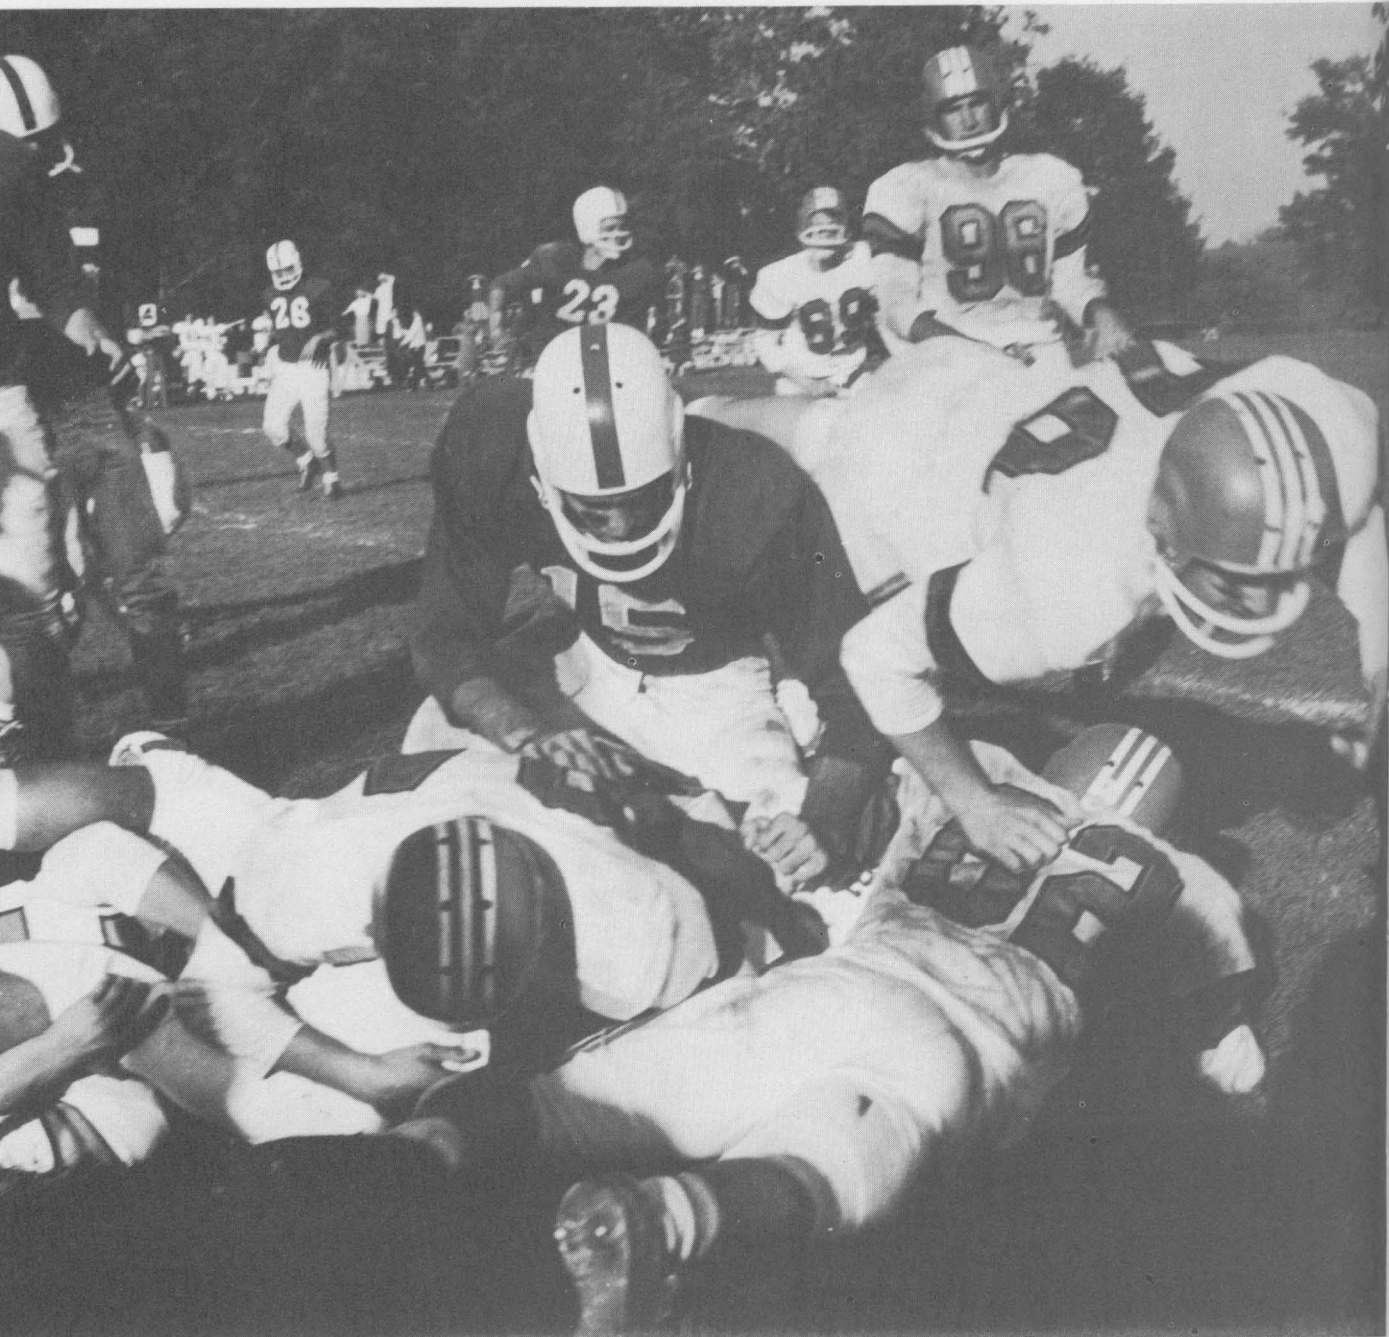

Driving down the field on long passes and runs, the Blue Streaks crossed the goal marker five times in the first half. Ken Coyner's golden toe booted 7 out of 8 extra points for the Streaks.

A spectacular event occurred when Walt Anderson kicked a 68 yard punt. Led by speedy runs by Clay Johnson, Bill Gorman and Ken Coyner, and the target accurate passes of Keene Byrd, the cadets crossed the goal line three more times in the second half. Victory was AMA's for the second straight weekend!

EVEN WITH AN INJURED HAND . . . Zehmer was accurate on the receiving end. Catching a beauty in the RMA game, Zeke streaked over for a tally—and it was called back! AMA won, 34-13.

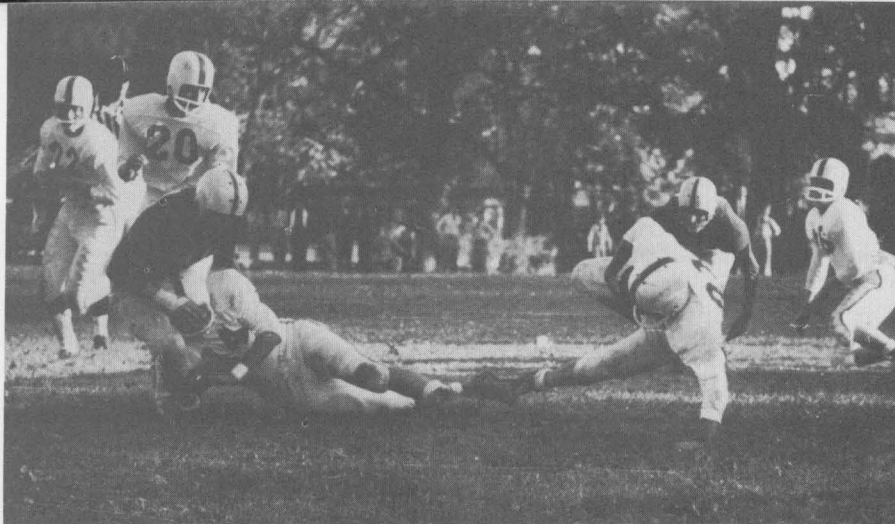

... Blast V.E.S. and then go on to avenge three straight losses to St. Christopher's ...

Fumble, fumble, who's got the ball? . . . Fumbles characterized the 55-0 win over Norfolk Academy. Fumbling five times, NA's mistakes were capitalized on by AMA four times. Late in the third period, Sherrer trapped end Tom Ryan behind the line of scrimmage, grabbed the pigskin, and fell on it. Just visible is Sherrer's helmet (No. 12). Help came from Don Tabor (No. 15), but it was too late on this play to turn the fumble recovered into yardage gained.

"RADAR" HITS No. 3 HOLE . .
Byrd (No. 20) hands off to Radar Phillips (No. 21) during the Miller game, but Radar trips over Wainwright (No. 14), who had come in to block his man. AMA gained 3, and the game saw an astronomical score of 69-0 for the Blue Streaks.

Rollermen Rout VES 34-6

Keeping up its winning ways by quickly gaining the upper hand over VES, Clay Johnson streaked 15 and then 48 yards to tally two touchdowns in the initial period. Ken Coyner's educated toe made good both extra points.

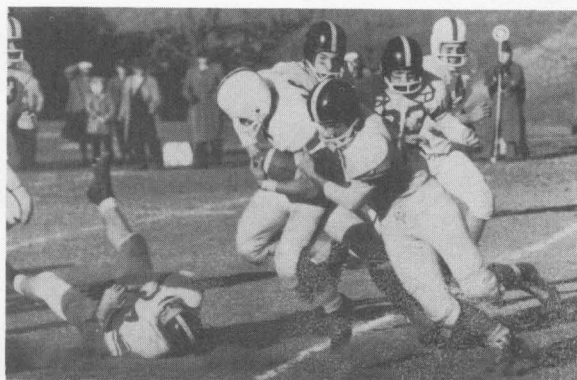

After a hard fought scoreless second period, the Blue Streaks struck again on a 10-yard scoring pass from Coyner to Anthony. Coyner added the extra point with his kick and went on to score later with a six-yard sneak. Coyner helped the score with his extra point and in the final AMA score, passed 30 yards to Johnson, and then split the uprights for the extra point. VES's only tally came in the third quarter, ending up on the wrong end of a 34-6 score.

PETE BARRELS THROUGH AGAIN . . . and it takes just about the whole RMA line to stop him! AMA was in the win column again with a 34-13 victory.

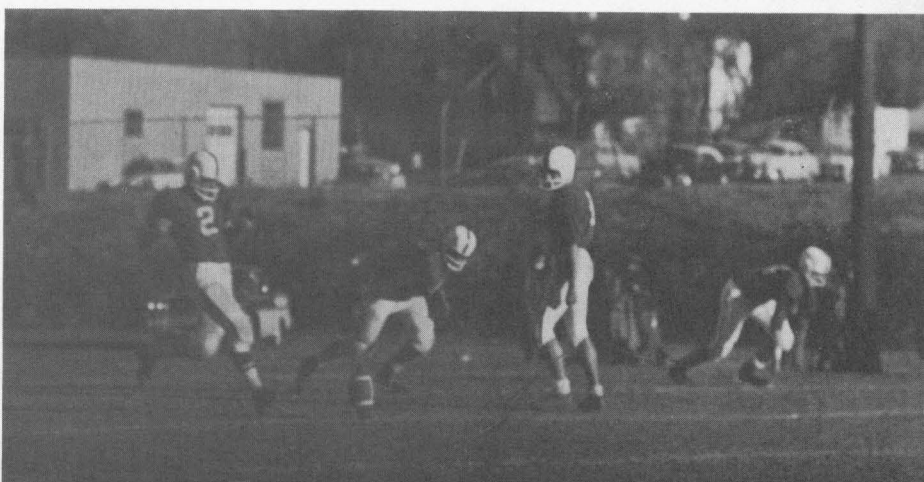

Saints Bow to the Streaks 20-0

Touted as a tough team to beat early in the season, St. Christopher's got a taste of AMA's powerful defense which contained every offense the Saints could put forth.

Not getting started until the second quarter was almost over, two quick scores came before the half. The cadets' third score came late in the third period when a Saint fumble on their five set the stage for Bucky Sherrer to plow down the middle for the final six points.

KICK-OFFS ARE IMPORTANT, TOO . . . and Zehmer's left toe got a workout all season long. Here Zehmer (No. 2) begins his fifth left-footed boot during the FMS game.

GOLDEN TOE . . . Coyner's golden toe gives way to a fleet footed run against FMS on Turkey Day. A short gain helped AMA on its march downfield. Zehmer throws an effective block.

BABY GENERALS BOW 26-0 TO THE POWERFUL BLUE STREAKS

With the Blue Streaks playing before a home crowd, the Baby Generals of Washington and Lee realized within minutes that they could not penetrate any closer than the 17-yard of the Augustans.

Crossing the W&L Frosh white marker late in the first quarter on a pass from Coyner to Clay Johnson and twice again in the second quarter on another one of Coyner's accurate passes and an unbelievable 91-yard run by Bucky Sherrer, the Rollermen had a 20-0 lead at half-time.

A scoreless third quarter gave way to another tally in the fourth quarter when Dick Phillips crashed around the right side of the line for the final score. AMA had won its first contest with a freshman team since 1951.

MILLER SCHOOL DEFENSELESS AGAINST THE CADET MIGHT

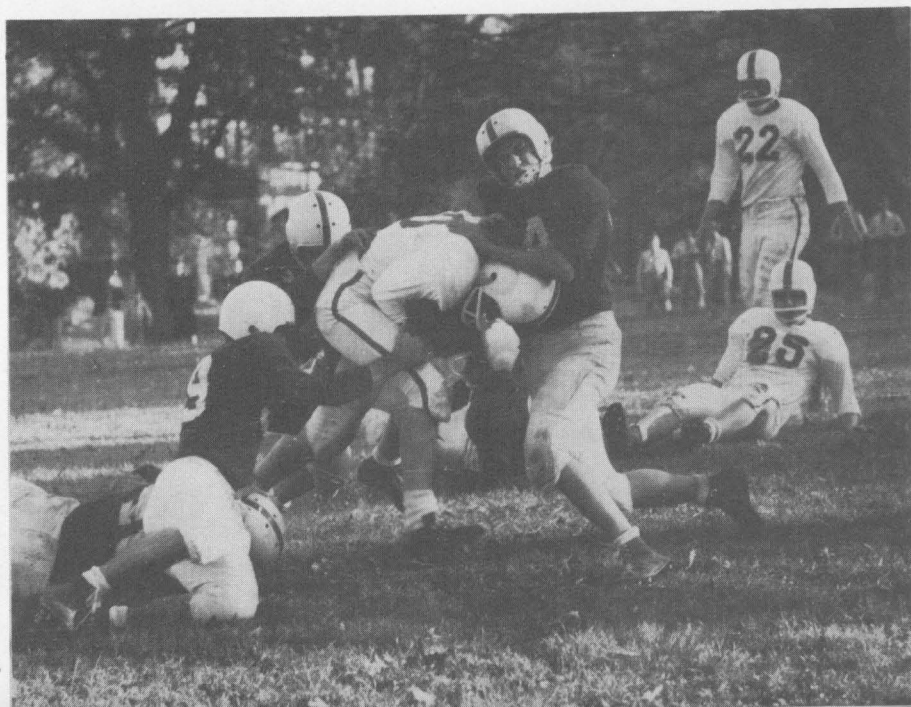

Unable to muster a defense on the opening play, there was just no stopping the Blue Streak team for four quarters.

Scoring ten touchdowns, five came as the result of Miller School fumbles and intercepted passes.

Leading the scoring with two touchdowns and five conversions was Ken Coyner. Players with one goal apiece were Johnson, Kelley, Zehmer, Trimble, Gorman, Wainwright, LaRue and Byrd. 36 men saw action in the 69-0 game against Miller.

. . . Rollermen blanket W&L Frosh--smother Miller School 69-0

GRIMACES OF PAIN . . . came on the Millermen's faces whenever Sherrer carried the ball. Picking up a first, here Bucky plows through for six yards.

... Blue Streaks receive their only setback against EHS ...

GLOOMY SATURDAY . . . Zehmer tries to catch up with Tom Fitzhugh during the mud-curdling EHS game, but Fitzhugh pulled away to score in the second period.

SUNSHINE SATURDAY . . . Just before the skies erupted, Coyner scoots around end during the Woodberry Forest game. Calhoun came in to help, but the Woodberry men trapped Ken for a loss. The rains brought victory this time, however, as AMA beat the Orange-men for the first time in over ten years.

EHS DROWNS AUGUSTA 19-0

And the spirits went down, down, down. With a EHS score within the opening three minutes of the game, AMA was never able to muster the same spirit, drive and determination which it had displayed in its first six starts.

Playing in Alexandria on a field thick with mud from an intermittent rain, neither team was able to do much running or passing.

Scoring again in the second period, EHS had a 13-0 lead at half-time.

Rebounding in the third quarter, the Blue Streaks looked set for a TD when a fumble ended their drive. Intercepting an AMA pass in the fourth period, EHS ran for their third touchdown of the rainy day.

... Blue Streaks sting Yellow Jackets 34 to 13

RANDOLPH-MACON SMOTHERED

Rebounding from the stinging loss to EHS the week before, AMA's Big Blue team came roaring back on its home field to smother the Macon-men from Front Royal.

Turning loose a running and aerial attack, AMA scored twice in the first few minutes of play. Two more TD plays were called back, but the Blue Streaks couldn't be demoralized.

Starting for AMA as quarterback was Ken Coyner who scored one six pointer and passed for three others. Defensively, AMA allowed RMA only one first down during the first three quarters of play.

Meeting the oncoming Yellow Jackets were Walt Anderson, Don Tabor and John Holder who held the Jackets play after play and knocked down all passes.

In the final quarter, the final AMA TD came on a long run by Jim Crawford, ending the game with a 34 to 13 victory for Augusta.

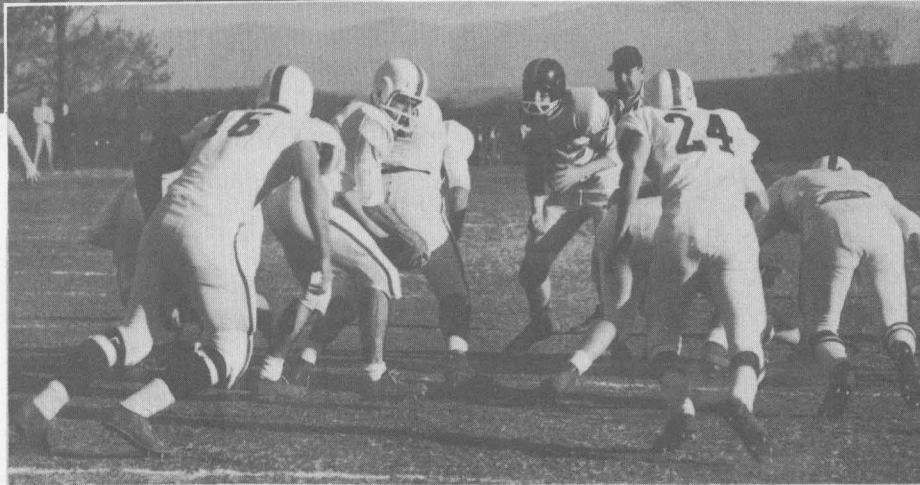

LEAP FROG, LEAP . . . In one of the most spectacular plays of the year, Clay Johnson started around his end, jumped over his man, took four or five more steps, to gain a total of five yards against the Macon-men. Captured on film by Hal Dillon, this shot converted him to 35mm photography!

... and then roast Fishburne 32 to 6 on Thanksgiving Day!

FREQUENT TRIP . . . Coyner crosses the goal line in the RMA game, as the Blue Streaks win by 34-13.

SNAP THAT BALL . . . Coyner hands off to Kelley (No. 16) who had been moved from guard to fullback for the RMA game. Kelley slammed through for a needed first down.

AMA ROLLS EASILY AGAINST FMS

Those Caissons just couldn't keep rolling on Thanksgiving Day! After a fired-up Fishburne six-pointer in the initial moments of the game, a Coyner to Zehmer pass and a conversion gave AMA the lead 7-6.

Forcing FMS to punt after Zehmer charged in and dropped Wayne Henley before he could pass, AMA's Sherrer received the ball and ran 84 yards for another tally.

On a Fishburne fumble, Zehmer grabbed the ball and ran for still another score. A Johnson TD in the third and again in the fourth quarter gave AMA its 32-6 rout over FMS.

Using the same offensive and defensive plays as the varsity, the Baby Blue Streaks started off in rocket fashion, winning the first three games by healthy margins.

Giving up three key players to the varsity, the last two games found the junior Roller-men in the loss column. Whiteside, tackle, and Ridge, center, were the backbone of AMA's defensive line.

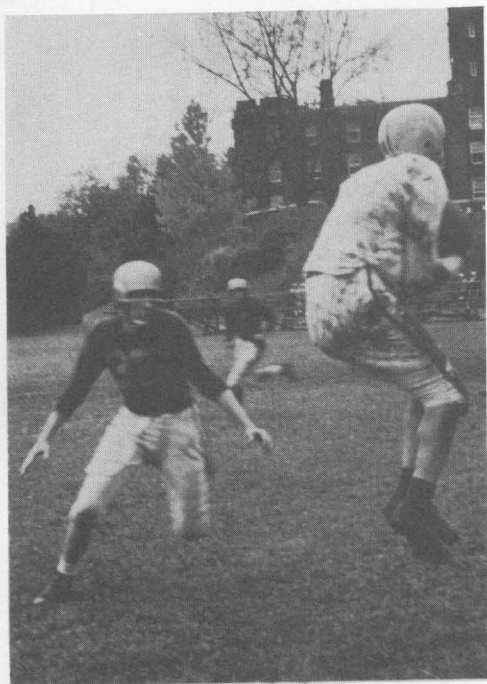

Trimble, who stepped up to the varsity, intercepted the pass which sparked the team to a romping victory over Fishburne in the first game.

Unable to out-maneuver AMA's defensive squad, VES fumbled in the first quarter. Recovering for the Streaks, C. Rodriguez started the scoring spree. Weight and size advantage, a decisive factor in the first three games, couldn't overcome the experience of AMA's opponents in the final two games.

IN FOR THE TACKLE . . .
Fishburne's speedy halfback finds that McAleese, Whiteside and Ridge (in white) are up on the defensive plays, as they stop him from a first down.

PEEPS BITE THE BEARS . . . Lester Davis carries the ball around end, picking up eight yards. Fisher blocks the backfield. AMA won its return game with the Bears, 8 to 0.

MOVE UP TO THE VARSITY! . . . That was FMS's sentiments about Trimble in the second game when AMA won 45-6. Trimble snatches their only hope from the air, late in the fourth quarter and darts to paydirt.

... Peeps tread water with two wins, two losses, one tie.

Blue Streak Cagers' Calandros stars . . .

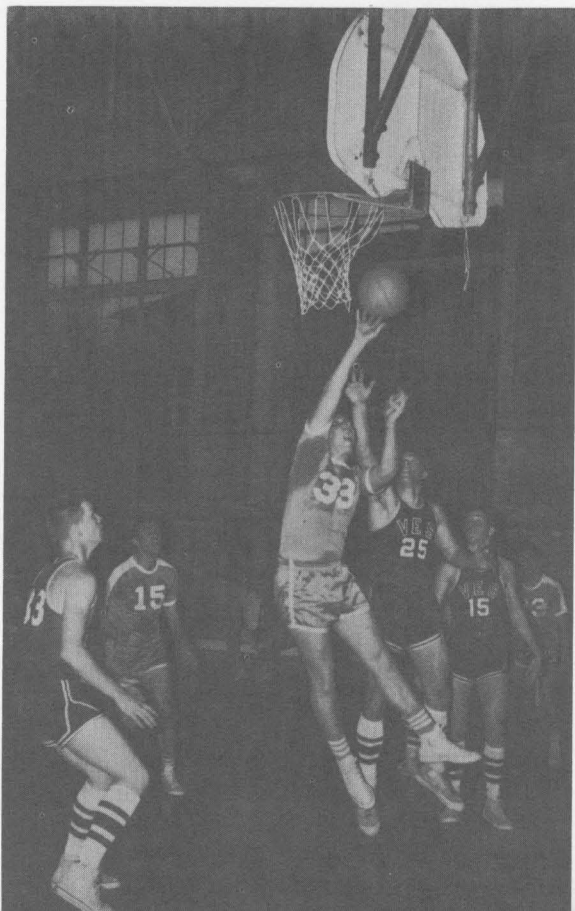

Slightly less than a winning season was the record of the 1959 Blue Streak cagers. Coming up against teams of greater height and more experience, several upsets resulted, however, from the dead-eye shooting of John Calandros and the steady playing of Walt Anderson.

On home court, the Blue Streaks gave a spine-tingling account of themselves in the VES contest. With two overtimes, the resultant AMA victory came when Don Tabor tapped the bucket for the two points to give AMA the game, 39-38.

As unusual as Wrong-way Corrigan's flight to Ireland was Keene Byrd's two point basket for Randolph-Macon in the second Blue Streak encounter with RMA. In one of the tightest games of the year, Byrd stole the ball on RMA's end of the court. Evading RMA's man, Byrd turned, fired, and sank two points for RMA! Final score, 62-60, RMA's favor.

FREE RIDE . . . AMA's Houff rides Miller-man No. 12, straining for one of the two point bucket shots which gave AMA an 85-33 victory over Miller.

Standout shots this year were John Calandros, Walt Anderson, Ken Coyner and Don Tabor, all of whom ended the season with double-figure averages.

Reversing last year's 10 wins, 6 losses, AMA's hardwood Blue Streaks pulled through with one of the two best records in the past six years.

with Anderson and Coyner as spark plugs.

IN THE PICTURE . . . Zehmer helps his scoring average in the Miller game, as he tips in for two points.

WHO'LL MAKE THE HOOP?

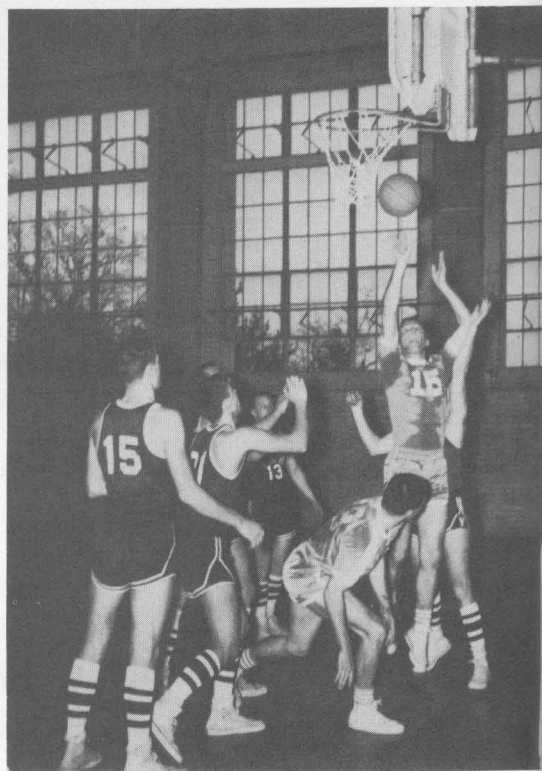

. . . Brown brings the ball down the floor with no opposition during the Miller game. Calandros and Tabor race in for the kill.

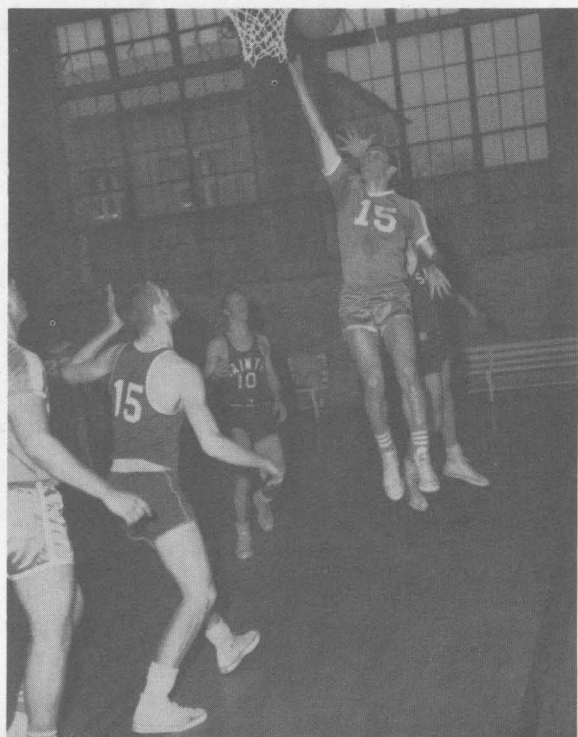

Cagers stage a good season . . . not a winning one.

REBOUND HOUND . . . Tabor grabs the rebound from a St. Christopher man, but the season's closer is a heart-breaker, producing a 39-42 loss.

WORTHY POINT . . . Tabor tips in the winning point in the double overtime VES game, as AMA wins 39-38.

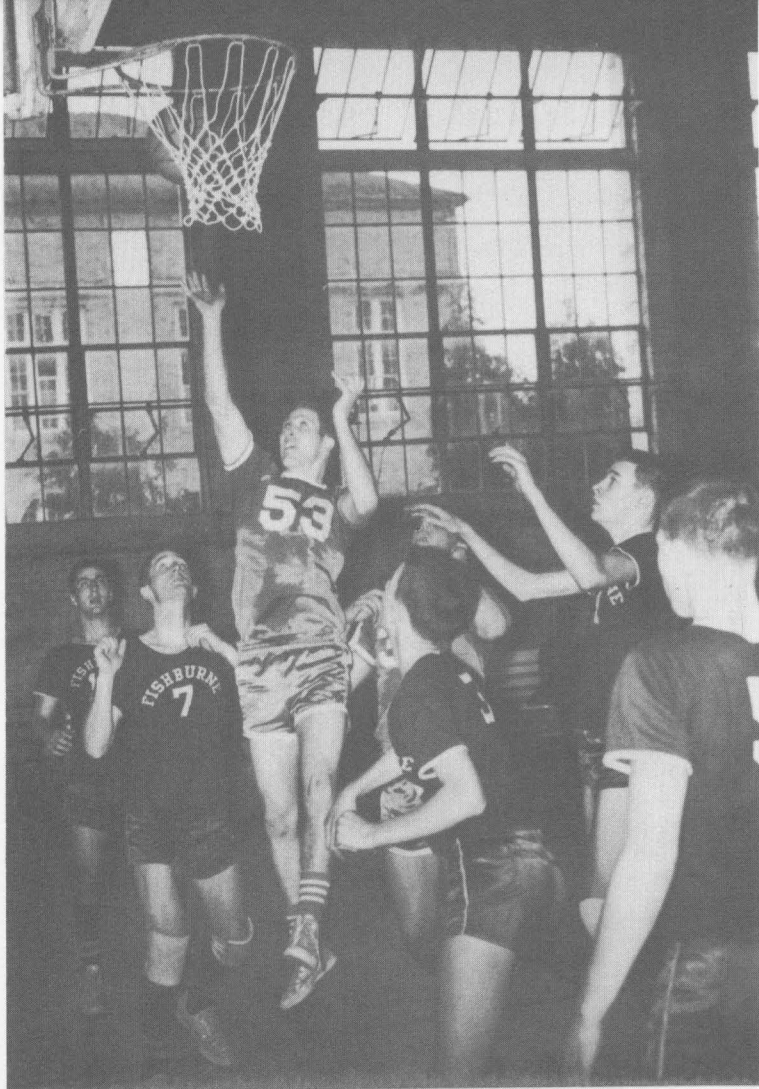

ACES HIGH . . . Coyner, an AMA great in football, basketball and baseball, demonstrates his agility during the Miller stomping—85-33!

TOTE THAT BALL . . . Clay Johnson helps AMA score another victory over chief rivals, Fishburne. AMA won both games, 49-41 and 63-59.

HARDWOOD MEN OF '59

ANCIENT RIVALRY . . . Renewed after twenty years, SMA and AMA meet once more on the basketball court. Walt Anderson evades Staunton's Pistone and dunks the ball for two points.

First time in 20 years! AMA plays SMA in Eastern Invitational Tourney!

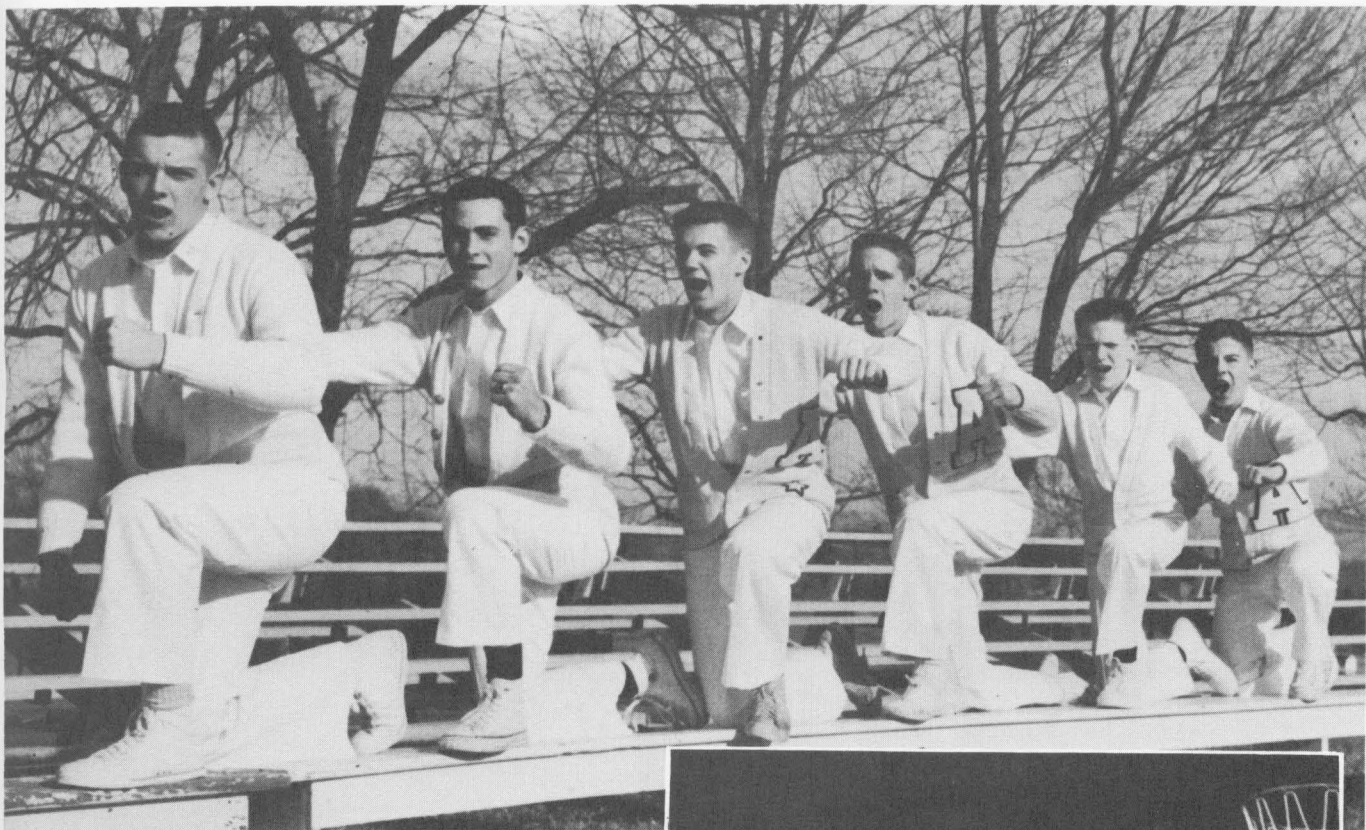

SWAY BALL . . . Sharpshooting John Calandros nets two more points in the game which saw SMA down AMA's Blue Streaks 98-72. Calandros's total for the game was 23 points.

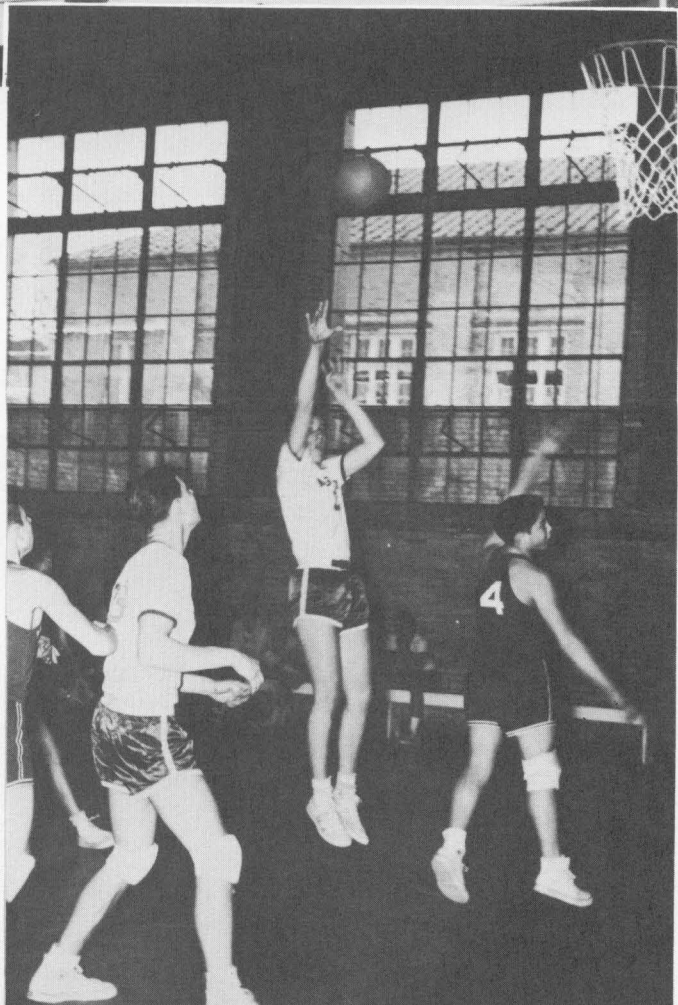

WITH OUTSTRETCHED ARMS . . . Hyde (No. 45) grabs off the rebound while surrounded solidly by SMA's giant players. SMA ended up third in the tourney, with Greenbrier winning the title and St. Francis netting the consolation prize.

Cheerleaders pep up the corps throughout the year . . .

... "WE GOTTA YELL . . . for AMA or bust!"
... that's the way the cheer goes, as Moffatt, Alperstein, Conrad, Holt, Spillan and Bickford pep up the spirit of the corps at football games and during basketball season.

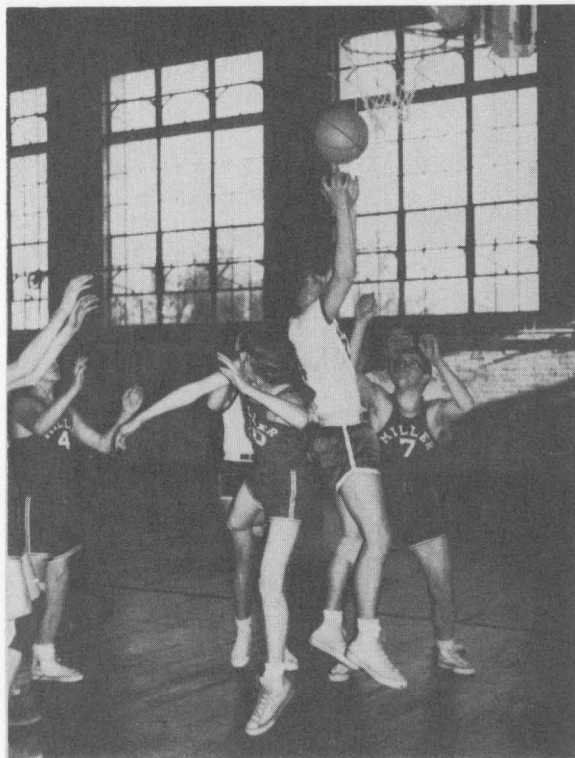

LEAPING TO A GREAT SEASON . . .
no cheering was needed to push the JV's to a 9-2 winning season. Heltzel rockets the ball for two points of AMA's sizzling 59-23 victory over VES.

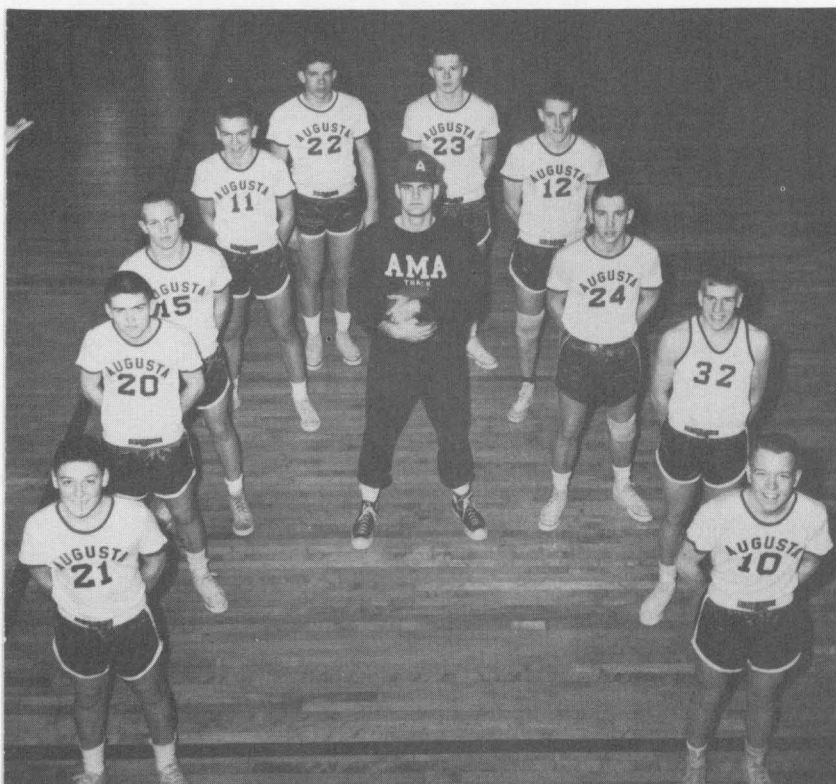

Winning season for the J. V. Cagers . . .

FUTURE STAR . . . Reigelman displays his potential against Miller in the first game victory for the Baby Blue Streaks, 38-12.

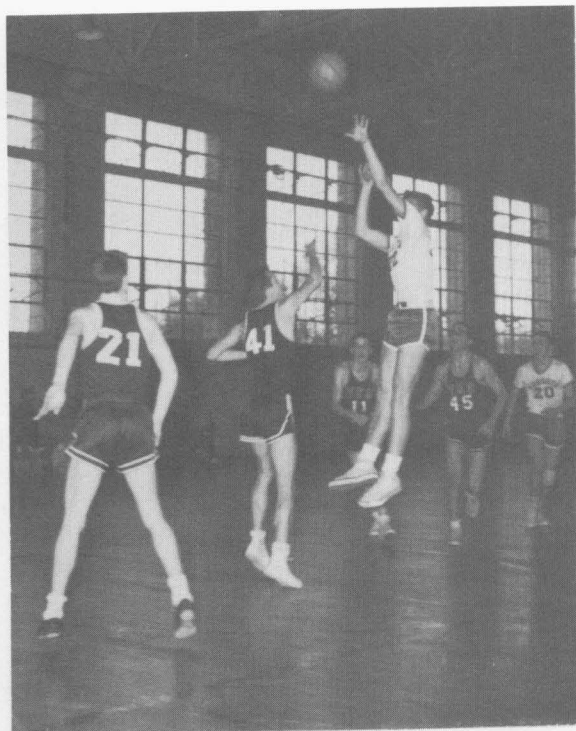

64 TO 6 . . . that's what Crawford helped his team do in the second Miller game. Crawford proved his versatility in athletics in basketball and football in '59.

SUPER HARDWOOD MEN OF '59

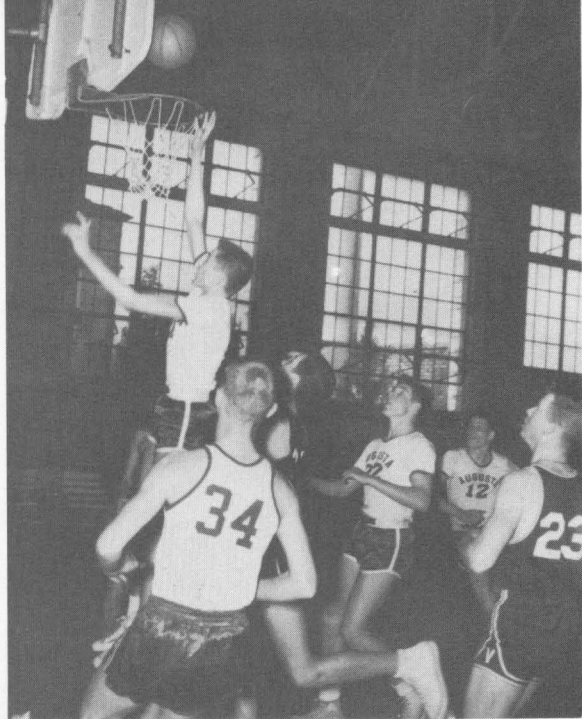

Clockwise: Page, McLelland, Tolson, Reigelman, Blaylock, Cooper, Heltzel, Crawford, Shank, Whately and Coach Livick.

with Heltzel and Cooper
starring.

BLAYLOCK BOUNCE . . . Wayne Blaylock, mainstay of the JV's for three years, adds his two points worth in the JV's second victory over VES. One of the high scorers, Blaylock moves up to the varsity in '60.

WHO'LL GET THE BALL . . . Blaylock aims and it's Heltzel who will take the ball and sink it for two more against VES.

MORE EGGS IN THE BASKET . . . Ron Reigelman puts two more in for AMA's 39-24 victory over VES.

Not even two losses could spoil the Baby Blue Streak cagers' spirit. With Heltzel, Blaylock and Cooper, phenomenal scores were the rule, not the exception.

Losing only to the varsity of Blue Ridge School and to Woodberry Forest JV's, Coach Livick's Baby Streaks set the courts afire against VES, Miller School, Fishburne, North River and RMA. Avenging their earlier loss to Blue Ridge School, the JV's couldn't be stopped thereafter.

Timberlake, Gaston, and Basto top the Aqua-Streaks

AQUA-STREAKS '59

Kneeling: J. H. Morris, Mgr., Coach Talbot, Hoppe. First row: Gaston, Keller, Mazzei, Juby, Timberlake, Helduser, Basto, Sherman, Willcox. Second row: Daugherty, Leonard, Johnson, M., Phillips, R., Wainwright, Nadon.

BACKSTROKE STARS . . . Mazzei, foreground and Basto, in the background, show their form in the FMS meet which AMA won 76-10. Basto was the best of the backstroke men on the AMA team, promising much for '60.

BACK-FLIP PIKE POSITION . . . that's the dive Chris Timberlake is executing in the VMI meet. Timberlake and Gaston scored in diving in every swimming meet in '59.

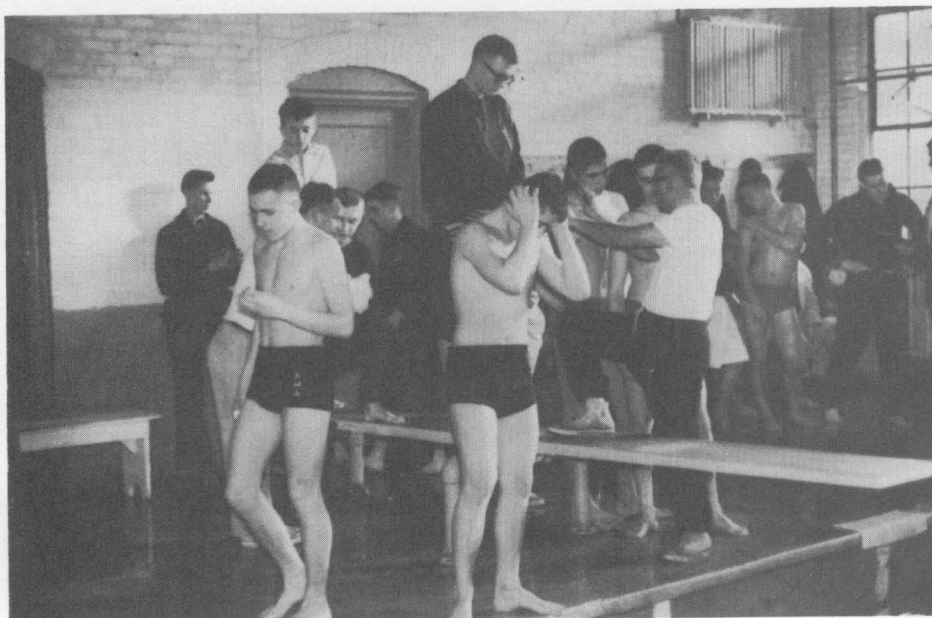

... with a new squad showing progress, aiming for '60!

SEA ANIMAL? . . . Nadon executes the Butterfly stroke in AMA's 40-46 loss to MMA. Showing great form and ability, Nadon starred in the 100 meter free-style and along with Gaston, Holt and Phillips, broke the VMI Freshman pool record.

Sherman--most improved swimmer--Willcox states "Wait for '60!"

COACHING ADVICE . . . Mazzei and Basto emerge from their backstroke feat against VMI. Coach Talbot, Major Hoover and Willcox were invaluable with their advice and enthusiasm.

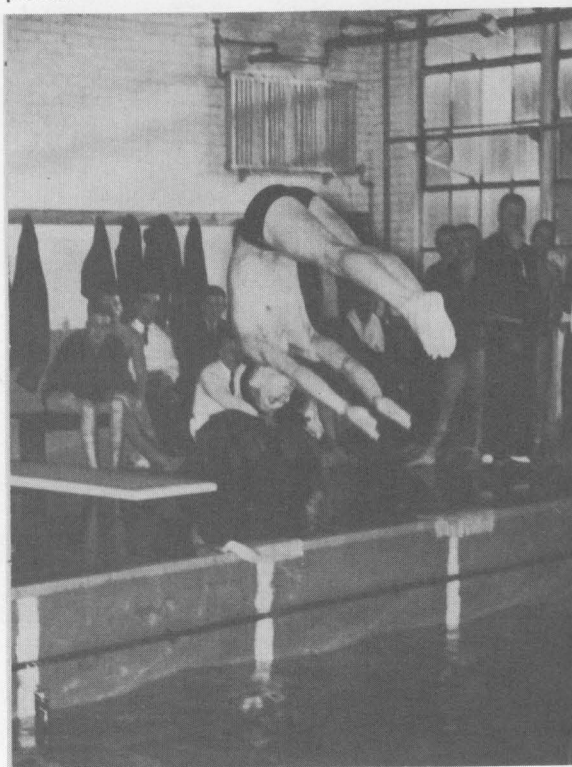

Five old men formed the core of the swimming team in '59, and yet, the green men of Augusta were able to emerge with two victories and a pool record!

Working with his team, Willcox was dubbed player-coach by the aquatic men. Sherman, starting slowly, developed into the most improved swimmer and Basto made the backstroke his forte, with a victory in every meet.

INWARD BOUND . . . Mitch Gaston executes his inward dive, but his best one was the jack-knife. In every meet, he was in one of the three top places.

Fencers foiled--earn a break-even record.

Shattered were the fencers' hopes for a victorious season when two defeats—one to the Naval Academy and the other to the University of North Carolina—allowed only a break-even season.

Lacking experience, and with only five lettermen returning, the fencers could compete only with college teams. Against heavily favored VMI, the Fencer-streaks slashed to a 16-11 victory and then in a return match, were winning by 11-7 when the meet was called.

Outstanding were McGrath, epee, Gill, epee, Amendola, foil, and Rodriguez, foil. Highlight of the Naval Academy meet was the two victory foil feat by Towe, who had been lost to the team by an early season injury.

Prognostication for '60—more lettermen returning, and better season with an electric foil which Coach Hoover has purchased for the team.

"KEEP YOUR ARM UP, UP!" . . . Gil coaches Gracia on epee technique. Bartels' arm shows his muscle development. Martinez watches.

Grapplers steam off the weight...

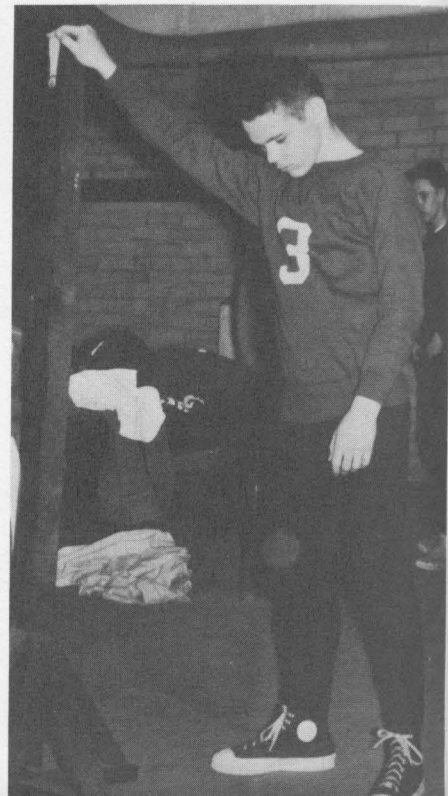

SWITCH ARTIST . . . Rocky Snell, AMA's 136-pounder, awaits the signal to try a quick switch on a VMI man. It didn't work this time, and VMI blanketed AMA 0-38.

INTERESTED SPECTATORS . . . wrestling always drew crowds. Nunez, Leonard, Mayne, Major Stark and Bob Siman watch the mat closely during the 28-28 tie with Covington.

FIVE YEAR STAR . . . Team captain Bill McVey is caught deep in thought before the Woodberry meet, which was a surprise showing for AMA. In '58, the score was 8-37 and this year, 13-31, both in WF's favor.

Progress was definite for the wrestling team in '59, which made a record of two wins, two ties and seven defeats.

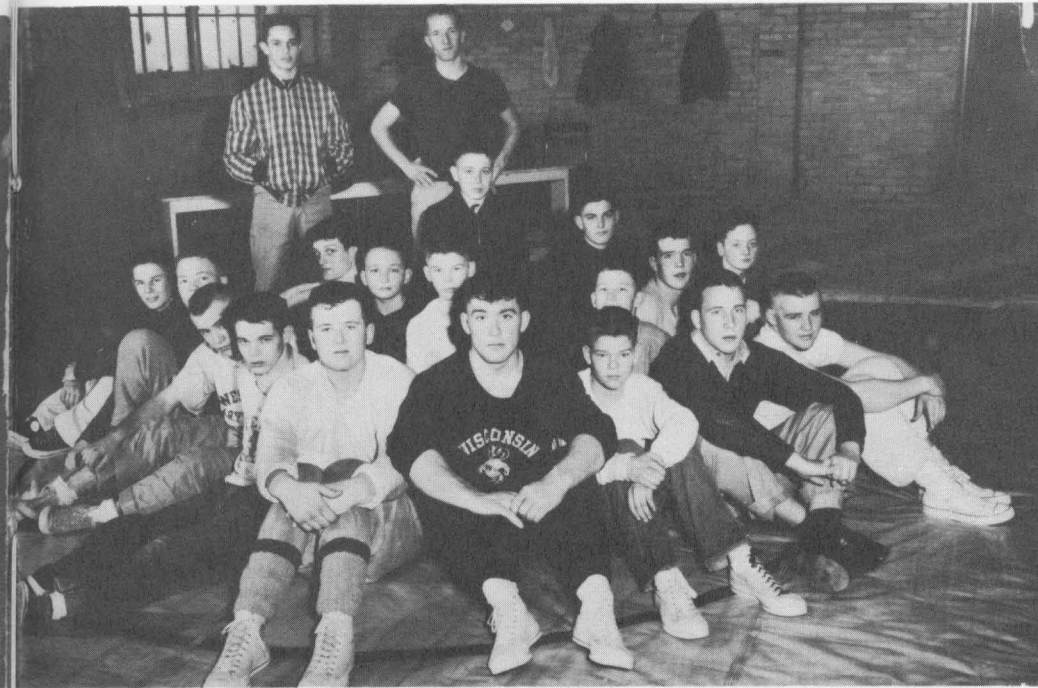

Whitewashed in the opening meet, the Streak grapplers fought back the following week to smother the U. Va. freshman team.

Undefeated in ten matches was Ralph Leonard. Coulon, co-captain of the team, won five, lost one, and tied one. Blankenship, in his first attempt at the sport, chalked up a 7-4 victory record. Johnson with a 4-1 and Maupin with a 6-1 record were the stand-outs of the year.

Facing Culpeper for the season's finale, the most evenly matched meet of the year saw the Streaks lose by the narrow margin of 20-24.

and Leonard goes undefeated in heavyweight class.

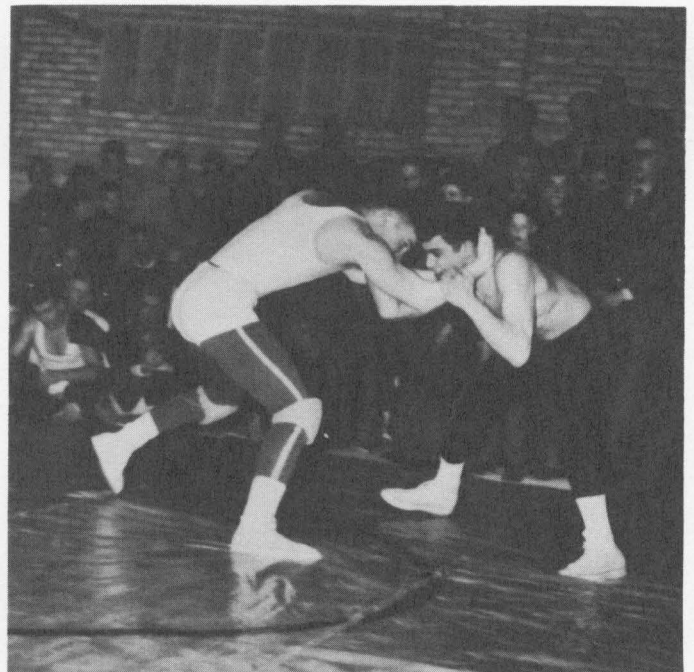

Varsity Grapplers '59—Clockwise: Leonard (dark shirt), Weaver, McVey, Snell, Cotton, Whetstone, Blankenship, Wagner, L., Fullen, Whiteside, Wintringer, McEwan, Calhoun, Maupin. In the circle: Skipper, Reichard, Hedden. Standing: Coulon, Coach McDowell.

WRESTLING HEAD TO HEAD . . . Ty Tomasek, AMA's dark horse in tights, comes up against VMI's potential state champion. The Blue Streaks, losing 0-38 in the first V. M. I. encounter, snapped back the second time to score 6-20 at V. M. I.

Sharpshooting Streaks . . .

FONDLE IT, BOY . . . Burton adjusts his sling and checks the most important item to a rifle team member—his weapon.

SPOT SHOTS, BATTLE! . . . Battle aims his sight slightly off the targets. Checking fire is important during practice sessions.

Only three returning lettermen and a new coach combined to turn what seemed to be an impossible task into a success story. Having to live up to the record of the '58 team—2nd Army champs for the third time in four consecutive years, State Champs for the fourth year in a row—appeared beyond reach.

Hard work, much smoke and fire, and practice, practice, practice gave the '59 Riflemen an above average season.

Placing second in the annual VPI Invitational Tourney, AMA's Riflemen then out-fired three other military prep school teams at the Fishburne Invitational to recapture the State Championship title.

Gold medal winners in '58, Rodger Morris and Bill Burrell consistently led the AMA team and topped all opponents for high score honors. Newcomer John Battle proved to be the most improved member of the team.

Team Captain: Rodger Morris.

Coach: SFC Joseph Komisar.

The Organizations . . . and honors

Progress '59 . . . tightened organizations . . . greater efficiency among the Student Body officers . . . more decorum during Honor Committee trials.

Larger number of men in Ad Astra . . . more money for polio . . . record hop given by WTON . . . higher attendance at dances . . . more breaking, more introducing of dates to friends . . . new format for the "Bayonet" . . . enlarged number of pages . . . crisper reporting . . . greater coverage of school events.

Increased interest in debates . . . more floor discussions during Ciceronian Literary Society meetings . . . Junior debate "Resolved, there IS life in outer space" . . . declaimers offer a wider selection of materials.

Roller Rifles execute new movements . . . sharper uniforms . . . sharper drilling . . . place in the Alexandria parade . . . go to Apple Blossom Festival.

Spirit in every organization . . . improve! Volunteers sacrifice to decorate . . . helpfulness at Y. M. C. A.—spirit '59—sacrifice . . . help one another . . . succeed!

SCHOOL SPIRIT IN ACTION! . . . Pep rallies just wouldn't have been the same without the enthusiasm of Carlos Giammaria, Rocky Snell, Ralph Lampie, Juan Tamargo, Chuck Lang, and Al Escoda.

SNOW MAN . . . Bickford tries to impress Irene Kennelly during the First Sunday activities, including opening YMCA. Rose, Conrad, Smoyer and Martillotta try to strike up acquaintances.

ROCKY MAKES A POINT . . . Brought before the officers of the Student Body, the accused presents his case to vice president Rodger Morris, president Pete Kelley, and secretary Rocky Snell. In honor offenses, the officers of the Student Body are also the officers of the Honor Court.

TRACKDOWN! . . . by Student Body Officers and Honor Committee

Discipline and honor are the key words to any well-run military school. Under Augusta's ROTC system, the officers of the Student Body are entrusted with hearing cases, making recommendations, and constantly attempting to have a well-disciplined corps.

Any serious violations of conduct, not of honor, comes under the domain of these eight men, selected by the Principal because of their superior performance of duty. Their recommendations go to the Academic Board and Col. Roller for approval.

Together with the officers of the Student Body, the officers of the classes comprise AMA's Honor Committee. Cases are heard, with a faculty officer present to see that the accused has a fair trial, and a defending lawyer who aids the cadet.

If found not guilty, the cadet's name and the action is never published. If found guilty, the case is heard by the Academic Board and reviewed by the Principal. Every effort is made to see that the innocent are protected, and that the guilty are given a fair trial.

DEBATE . . . Frequently, the debates after a trial last longer than the official hearing! Senior representative Dave Conrad, Spanish representative Carlos Giammaria, sergeants at arms Walt Anderson and Corky Ridge, and treasurer Zeke Zehmer discuss the merits of the accused's case.

"I STILL SAY evidence does not prove his guilt!" . . . Bob Durst, secretary of the Fourth Year Men, makes his point to president Bill McVey, and vice president Steve Durst. It's an unusual event when brothers are on the Honor Committee!

TOO INVOLVED . . . that's what secretary of the Third Year Men, George Holt, seems to feel about the current case. Vice president Jim Towe and president Sonny Hurst check previous case findings.

WHY THE DICTIONARY? . . . Legal terms sometimes are needed! Flanked by two Honor Committee representatives, new cadet representative, Paul Calhoun, checks for word meaning. Clay Johnson and Mike Wiese, auxiliaries from the corps-at-large, help Paul.

LISTENING SERIOUSLY . . . When a man's honor is at stake, concentration is called for. Second Year secretary Bob Battenhouse, president John Holder and vice president Bill Bowen listen carefully before casting their votes.

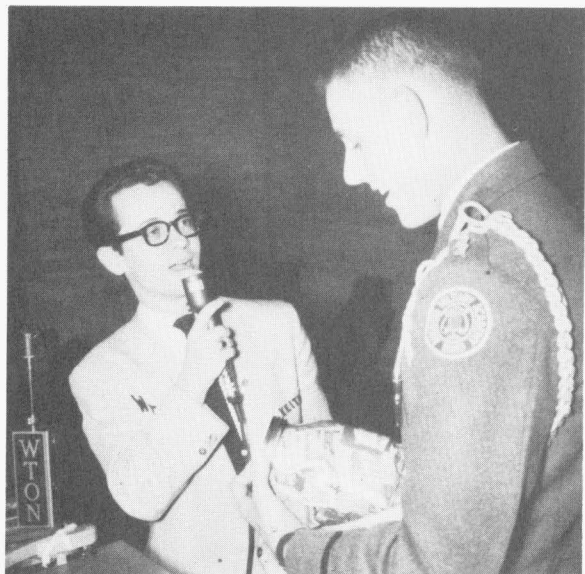

... Faculty vote selects ten top men for Ad Astra!

RECORD HOP, POLIO DRIVE . . . Sponsored by the men of Ad Astra Per Aspera, these two functions were outstanding this year. Pete Kelley, Rocky Snell, Rodger Morris, Zeke Zehmer, Jim Weaver, Elliott Ridge and Carlos Giammaria made the plans which insured success for Polio and the Record Hop.

No honor at Augusta can mean any more than a nomination to Ad Astra Per Aspera fraternity. Founded by Col. Chas. S. Roller, Jr., in 1925, each year the old members of the faculty and the cadet members vote for the ten men who will be initiated during Final exercises.

Faculty members sharing this honor with the cadets are Col. J. C. McCrum, Jr., Col. H. D. Deane, Col. H. B. McCrum, Major P. V. Hoover, Major E. W. Parkins, Major C. E. Savedge, Major F. M. Sizer and Major S. S. Wales.

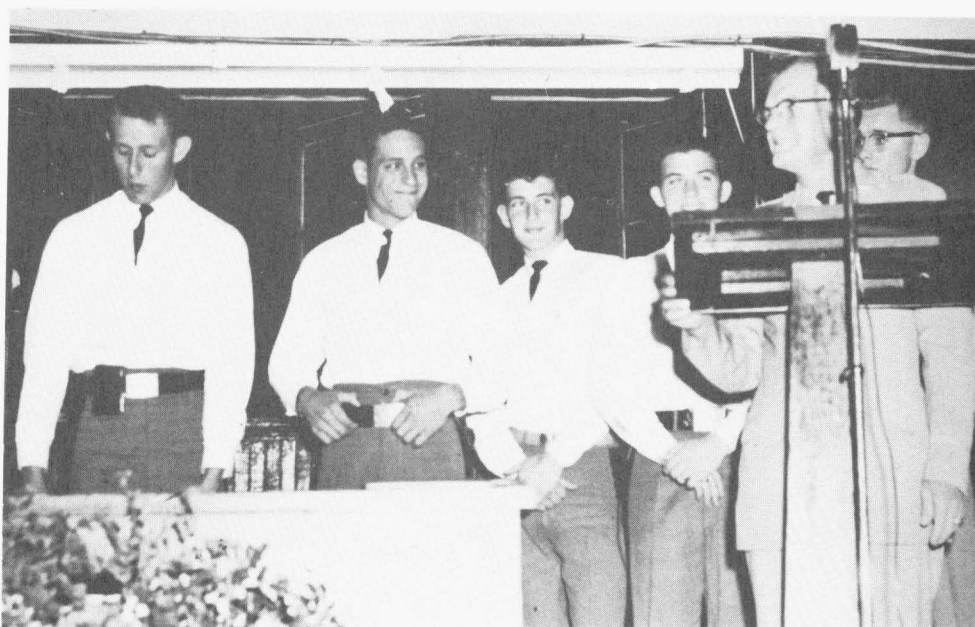

FLOORED! . . . that's what Keith James is when Corky Ridge presents $1,070 to him for the WTON Polio Fund. DJ Keith James, who is a favorite with AMA, mc'd the Record Hop which was broadcast over WTON.

... Biggest influence on a New Cadet ... "Y.M.C.A."

MUTUAL APPRECIATION..

Lloyd Eastlack, president in '58, and a cabinet member in '59, presents Major Lucus with a token of appreciation for his services. Eastlack received the Loyalty Medal for his faithfulness and interest.

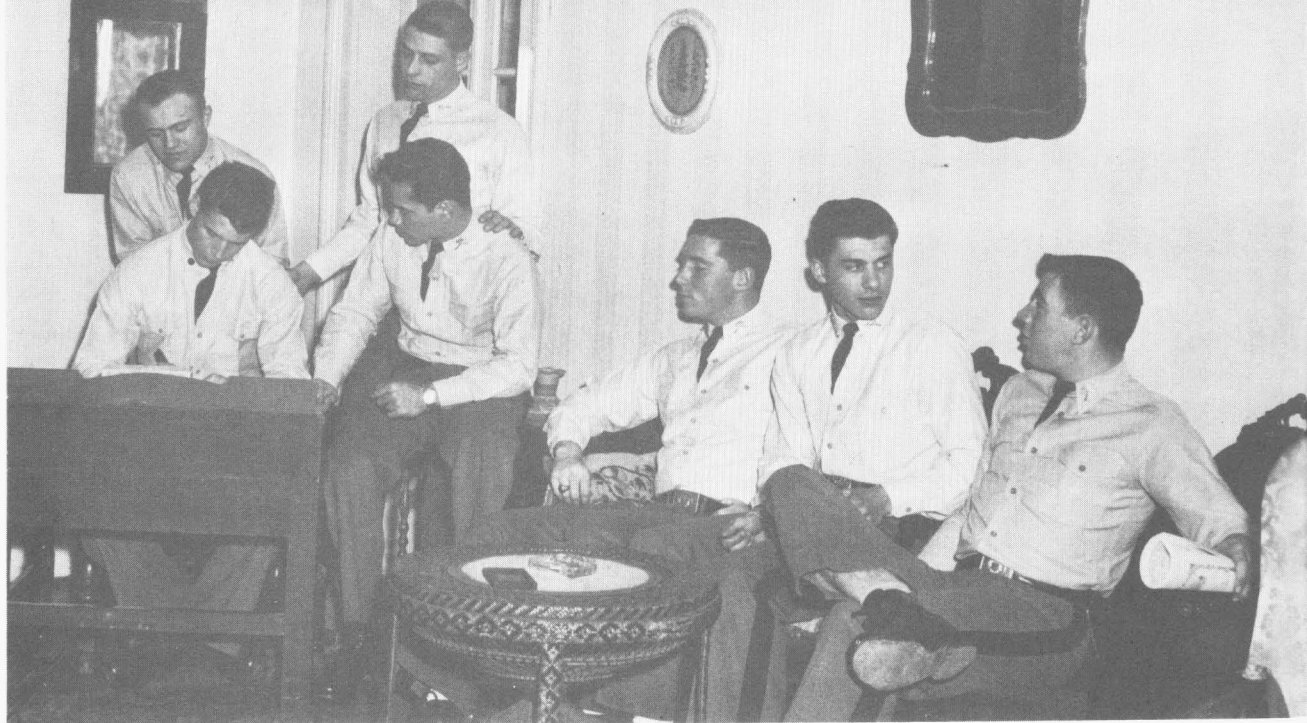

INSTALLATION CEREMONIES . . . Major Lucus, sponsor of the Y. M. C. A., installs Corky Ridge and Zeke Zehmer as co-presidents, Keene Byrd as vice president, Lampie as secretary-treasurer and Mike Wiese as recorder.

"HARK THE HERALD" . . . highlight of the first semester is the Christmas Y. M. C. A. With a full program and a "cause", every cadet enters into the spirit. Major project of the year is the Christmas gift to the Lynchburg Orphanage of Christmas dinner. This year, over $500 was given by the generous corps. Singing during the collection, just after Col. Roller's speech, was the Senior Glee Club: Lloyd Eastlack, John Ulrich, Sonny Crocket, John Battle, Jim Shank, Vic Herwick and Max Lacy sing heartily.

ADDED OFFICERS FOR A LARGER CORPS . . . Secretary Dave Trimble takes down suggestions for the weekly meeting of the Ciceronian Literary Society. Rocky Snell, sgt.-at-arms, Zeke Zehmer, sgt.-at-arms, and Carlos Giammaria, co-vice president, help decide on the program. Treasurer Walt Anderson, president Tyrone Tomasek and co-vice president Pete Kelley chat about plans for the Final meeting, one of the highlights during Finals.

. . . Ciceronian Literary Society meets more often . . .

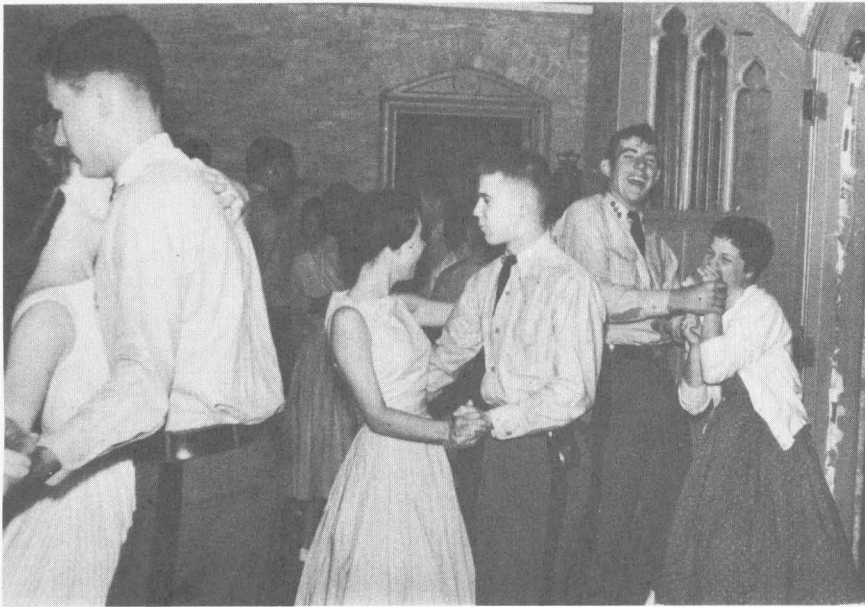

"MAYBE WE'LL GET A TROPHY LIKE THIS!" . . . President Bob Adams shows the Roller Rifle trophy to vice president Dwight Hammock and sgt.-at-arms Harry Helduser. Treasurer Jim Reichard and Dick Mullowney look on before settling down to make plans for their weekly meeting.

For the benefit of many, for the enjoyment of all—that's the function of the oldest literary society in prep school circles. Sponsored by Col. Chas. S. Roller, Jr., the Senior Ciceronian Society meets weekly. This gives a number of cadets the chance to debate, declaim, or to read selections.

Under the direction of Capt. Hanson, Major Lucus and Mrs. Davis, the Junior Society holds separate meetings, except at Finals, when there is a joint celebration.

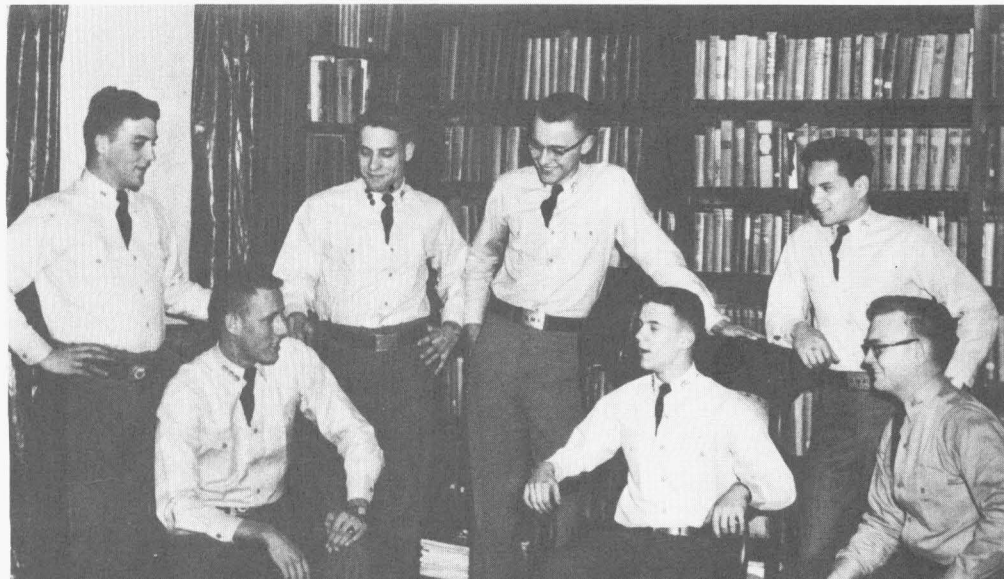

Dances, parties . . . social life sponsored by the Cotillion Club

PIN-UP QUEEN FIGURE . . . No couple was any happier than Fran Price and Cotillion Club vice president Dave Conrad. One of the high points of the year, Pin-Up Queen weekend is in late April or early May.

RAINED OUT . . . so the picnic went inside. Nancy Guiney and Bill Jaeger, Fran Price and Dave Conrad and Pete Kelley with Kay Runnels enjoy the music and the fun of an indoor picnic.

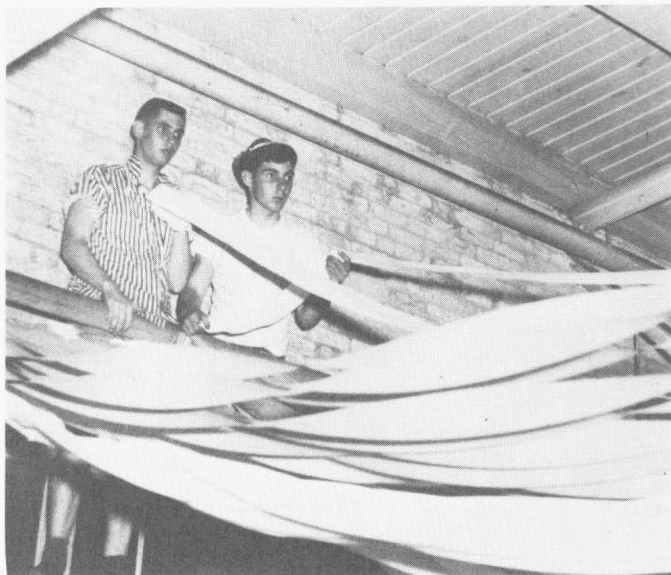

BEST PRESIDENT EVER! . . . that is what Major Savedge, sponsor of the Cotillion Club, says about the job Corky Ridge has done this year. Barn dance suggestions come before president Corky Ridge, vice president Dave Conrad, secretary Lloyd Eastlack (all seated), and Ralph Lampie, sgt.-at-arms, co-treasurers Zeke Zehmer and Mike Wiese, and Spanish representative Carlos Giammaria.

UP THE BARE SIDES . . . and soon, there will be a bit of magic in Memorial Gymnasium. John O'Connor, Gary Quatmann, Ed Mazzei, Bob Smoyer, Bob Rose, Bill Russell, Bob Osborne, Don Clark, Bill Roberts and Bill Klinck don't mind the nickname "rafter rats"!

TWIST AND TURN . . . John Steciw and Bob Boyle make a double ceiling of blue and white, indeed making the ceiling seem to be a sky with clouds.

From a bare gymnasium into a ballroom . . . that's the job for the Decorating Committee!

CREPE PAPER AND HARD WORK . . . that's what it takes! Jim Sharlet, Mike Lobalzo, Luke Snyder, Roger Ramos, Frank Scotton, Fred Evans, Jim Overly (front row), Charles Pond, Ches Whiteside, Jim Thompson, Jack Daunt, Wallace Madill, Bill Pemberton, Bill Shackelford, Chip Smith, Ricky Morgan (second row), Frank Decker, Gerry Dombkowski and Jim Bosley (rear), help make every dance a success by their top-notch decorations.

NEW UNIFORMS, QUICK STEP . . .

Winter uniforms made the Roller Rifles stand out everywhere they went. Sunday afternoons were enlivened by the drilling of the boys selected to be members of the unit formed in honor of Col. Roller's son. Col. Roller is Honorary Commander, and Mrs. M. Harris Livick, daughter of the late Capt. Roller, is honorary vice-commander.

FINAL ROLLER RIFLE DRILL . . .

Duke Fancher, commander in '58, leads the boys before the reviewing stand during Finals.

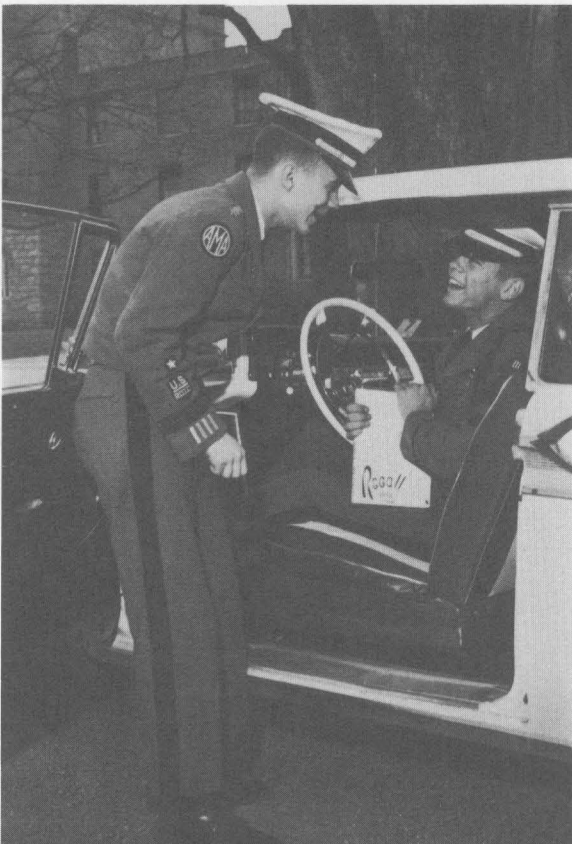

NIGHT AND DAY . . . not the name of Cole Porter's song, but the theme song of editor-in-chief Mike Wiese and advisor Major C. E. Savedge! All lay-outs were done by Mike, who was editor of the prize-winning '58 RECALL.

From now on, you can RECALL your progress . . .

GALAXIE BOUND . . . Co-Business Managers Dave Conrad and George Holt don't mind scouring the town for ads when it's in a Galaxie. Letters, bills, subscriptions and mail had to be handled by them also!

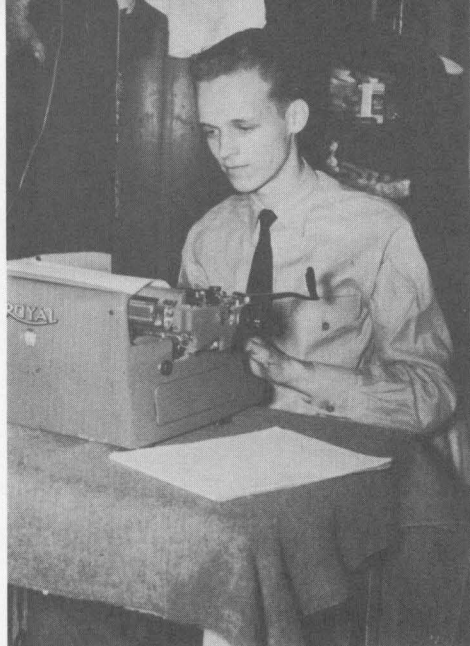

GOOD OLE HAL! . . . that's the sentiment of everyone on the RECALL staff. With his Minolta, Graphlex, or a Leica, Hal roamed the school taking pictures. But that didn't end the story, he developed every one! There has, indeed, been progress with Hal!

WHICH PICTURE? . . . Corky Ridge, picture editor, can't decide which pictures to use. Corky took all senior informals and helped Dillon with the selection of pictures for the '59 RECALL.

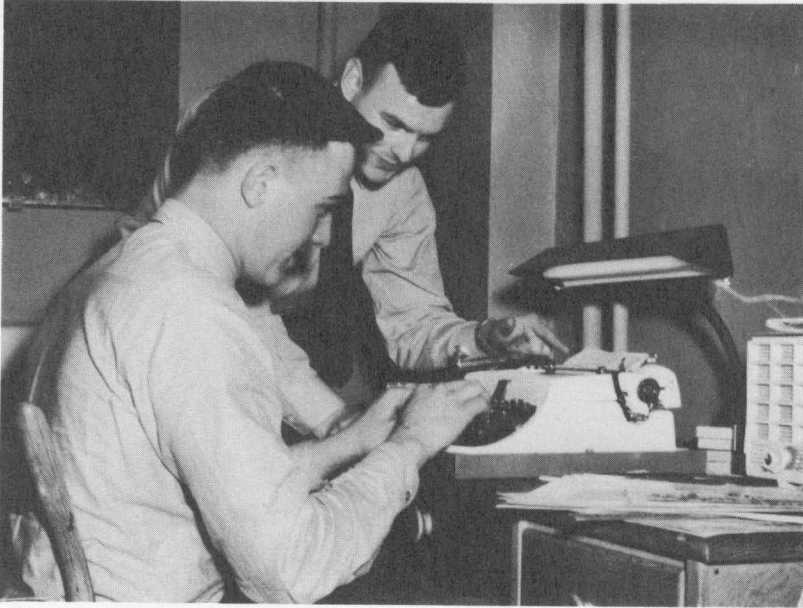

EIGHTY WORDS A MINUTE . . . Jim O'Conner claims that he types that fast, and certainly, he did the directory in record time!

PROOF IT, AND THEN REPROOF IT! . . . Jim Sharlet and Herb Widener, assistant editors, check copy, re-write, and act as clean-up men for the RECALL. Widener helped Wiese with the perceptive Senior write-ups.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY . . . Business advisor, Capt. Weir, checks the books and watches expenses. "Where is my card?"—that's what Capt. Weir heard night and day during subscription drive.

"Bayonet" covers the news . . . changes format . . .

WHO, WHEN, WHERE, WHAT . . . Capt. Hanson, advisor, tells Jon Davis, editor of the "Bayonet" that the four "W's" are important for every article, every caption!

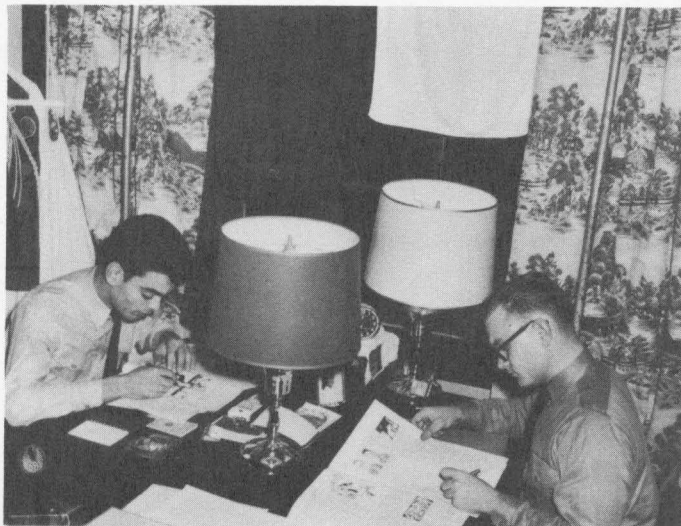

LOW DOWN ON WRESTLING . . . Ed Brazenor, sports editor, is given the information he wants from Jim Reichard, wrestling team stalwart and junior reporter.

"WE'VE GOT TO GET MORE ADS" . . . the common cry is echoed by Lloyd Owens and Bill Schiff, advertising managers who doubled the ads in one month! Capt. Kivlighan, business advisor, kept a close watch on the expenses and helped in every phase of newspaper work.

rejoins the press associations and wins honors!

ART AND COPY . . . Carlos Perez enlivened each issue of the "Bayonet" with his cartoons and drawings. Lloyd Eastlack, copy editor and proofreader, checks an earlier issue to keep down the errors in future editions.

Controversy! that's what the "Bayonet" frequently stirred up comment. Editorials by Jon Davis and Dave Dillard, both new cadets, were sharply debated, pro and con.

Owing some of its success to the RECALL, the "Bayonet" found that Hal Dillon's pictures could serve them very well.

Well covered were all events during the year. What's more, the "Bayonet" began to anticipate news, to editorialize less in news articles and to cover every sports event.

With the enlarged school, the "Bayonet" enlarged, too. Each edition had six pages, instead of the usual four.

Mike Villarroel, Spanish editor, contributed additional articles and helped with many phases of newspaper work.

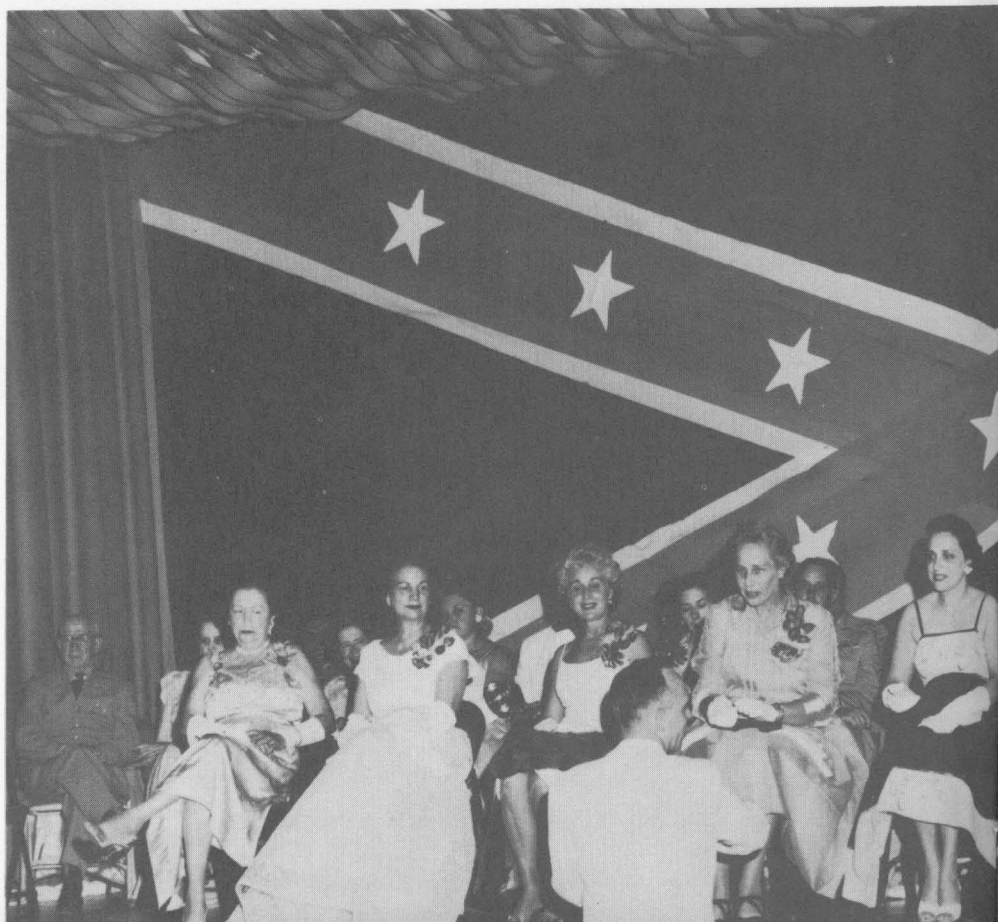

BETTER DEPOSIT THAT . . . Roger Ramos, co-business manager, Bill Shackelford, circulation manager and Bill Burrell, co-business manager, check finances after a visit to Staunton. These are the men who worked most closely with Capt. Kivlighan.

Progress in education . . . Final Ball salutes colleges

"LET'S CHEER HIGHER EDUCATION!" . . . Zeke Zehmer, secretary of the Final Ball, Pete Kelley, president, Corky Ridge, vice president and Dave Conrad, treasurer, plan for the 1959 Final Ball theme.

FACULTY ON STAGE . . . During the Figure, all members of the faculty and their families watch from the stage. Major Savedge explains what the movements will mean to Mrs. Chas. S. Roller, Jr., Mrs. Ruby Fancher, Mrs. C. E. Ridge, Jr., Mrs. C. B. Cubello, Mrs. W. C. Kelley and Col. Chas. S. Roller, Jr.

SABER ARCH NEXT . . . AMA's traditional saber arch brings a close to the Figure. Pete Kelley and Peggy Runnels and Corky Ridge with Ros Lawson start to form the last movement in the Figure.

OUTSTANDING DECORATIONS . . . Bill Burrell, chairman of the Decorators, reminds the Final Ball committee that it takes a heap of work. Rodger Morris, Rocky Snell, Ralph Lampie, Mike Wiese and Walt Anderson volunteer to aid in making the '59 Final Ball the most successful one ever.

By election of the whole corps, Who's Who at AMA!

THAT'S NOT STUDYING! . . . Best Students at AMA—that's what third, second and first place winners Coulon, Wiese and Battenhouse were voted. They don't feel that a look in on the Dick Clark show will take too much time from their studies!

POPULAR HERE, AT STUART HALL and at Fairfax . . . Boselli, Conrad and Tomasek, the top three in Most Popular category, try to get dates for the Barn Dance. They'll have no trouble!

GUARD THE COURTYARD . . . and by their efficiency on guard, Leonard won first place, Amendola and R. Scotton tied for second and Crawford won third place as best Corporals of the Guard.

COAL PILE BOUND . . . Top winner of Done Most for AMA was Pete Kelley, followed closely by Mike Snell and Mel Avery, seen here working on the coal pile. Is that how they won?

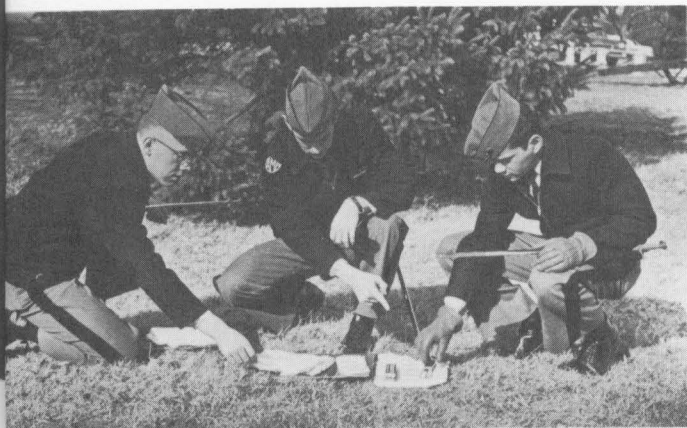

! ... Big men at AMA!

TOUGH MEN ON GUARD . . . Best Sergeant of the Guard, Marty Kruppenbacher, wouldn't mind sharing his know-how with second place winner on his right, Jack Bridges and third place man, Jim Bosley.

NO TROUBLE TO GET A DATE . . . that's what the three most handsome cadets at AMA find. Plazaola, second place, Steve Durst, third place and Ty Tomasek, the winner, pose gladly now and at any time.

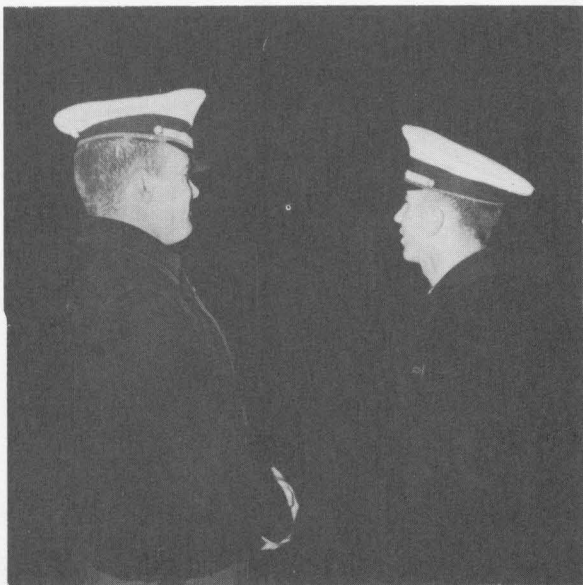

DISPLAY FOR G.I. . . . Carlos Giammaria, on the right, lays out his display, proud that he's top man in the military category. Battenhouse who placed third and Byrd, in second place, check for errors.

BEST CADET O.C. . . . Third place winner, Mike Snell and second place cadet Rodger Morris inspect barracks during C.Q.

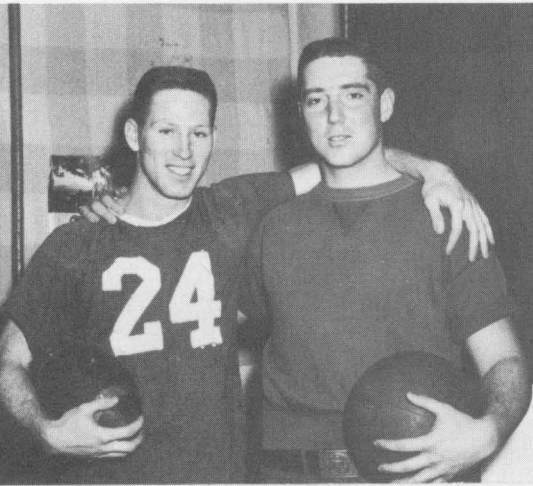

RIDING HIGH . . . Pete Kelley, winner of Done Most and Best O.C. takes a short trip to the hospital. Nothing could hold Pete down and he was back on the job in no time.

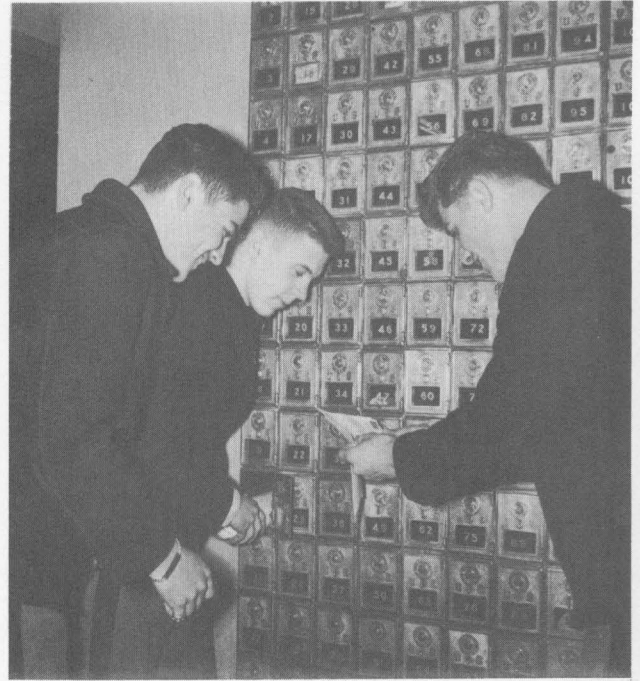

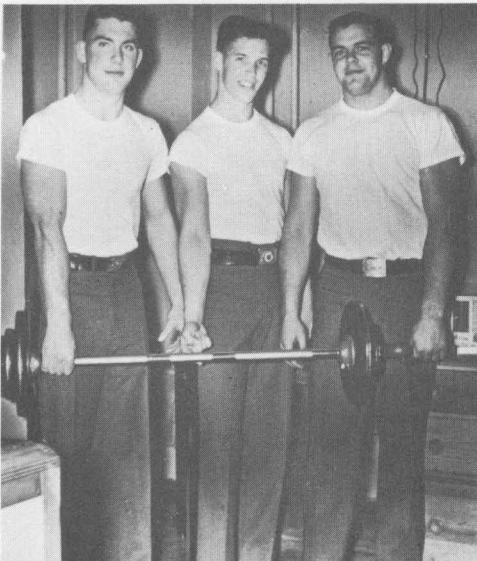

... familiar faces lead ...

FORMULA FOR SUCCESS . . . shoot a film, show it on TV, and then sell a million records from the sound track. Bob Battenhouse, Mike Wiese and Buzzy Coulon, voted most likely to succeed—in that order—hold the instruments of the trade.

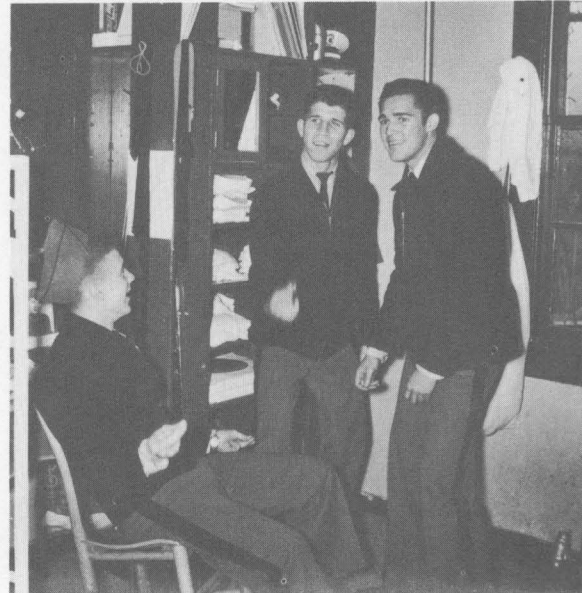

FOREMOST IN ALL SPORTS . . . Clay Johnson placed second and Walter Anderson topped the list in '59. Their opponents always found these two in the middle of excitement. Their chief assets—strength, speed and fair play.

LETTER TIME . . . the Post Office always cooperates with Caesar Boselli who placed second in the Biggest Ladies' Man poll. First man Dave Conrad and third man Ed Noboa aren't behind in the mail grab.

NEVER STILL FOR A MINUTE . . . boundless energy on the dance floor gave these three a name as dancers. Caesar Boselli, first and John Urbina, third, demonstrate the latest steps to Dave Conrad who placed second.

BEST BUILT . . . and weights helped do it! Middle man Dave Trimble holds third place with one finger, while Ralph Leonard and John Holder, third and first place winners, give the bar a solid grip.

... popularity poll! ...

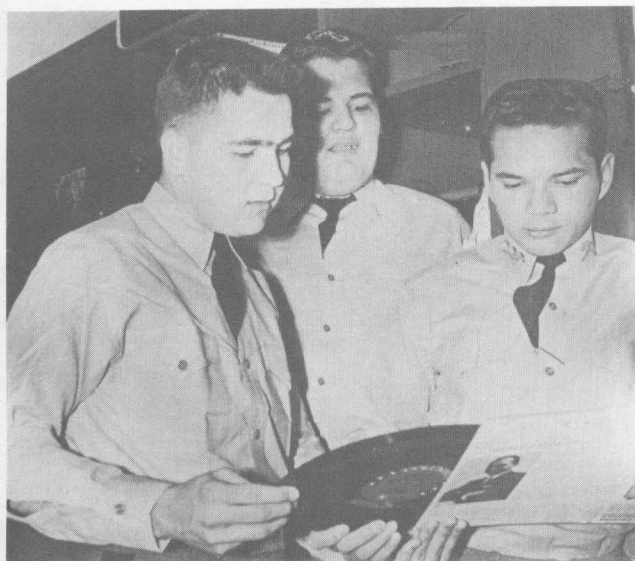

GLOOM TAKES OVER . . . and it doesn't seem right for this trio which is supposed to shine with school spirit. Elliott Ridge, Rocky Snell and Dave Conrad sit in 3-2-1 order. Pass the crying towels.

WHERE'S MY OD? . . . The infirmary claimed Bill Mayne, but not for long. He shared second place with Ray Bergman. Bob Battenhouse headed the list of top O.D.'s and Steve Durst placed third.

BROOMS IN THE PX . . . and they're in good hands when wielded by Bill Nadon, Bob Small and John Calhoun, voted the top new cadets. Small took first place, Calhoun and Nadon, second and third. Keep sweeping!

TRIPLE DYNAMITE! . . . Latin charm is nothing new to Gil, Mike Villarroel, and Carlos Giammaria who placed third, second, and first in the race for the best Spanish cadet at Augusta. Viva, Amigos!

Directory of the cadets who made AMA . . .

TWO OF THE UNHOLY THREE . . . George Holt and Dave Conrad, roommates for three years (with Mike Snell) share their plates at the first banquet. Bravo, Overly and Ireland have their picture snapped for the first time.

A REAL PART OF AUGUSTA . . . Bible teacher, preacher and friend, Wayne Featherstone shakes farewell with Mr. Allison. Bill McVey waits to add his appreciation.

The Advertisements

Progressive '59—advertising with pictures! . . . cooperation from the patrons, our advertisers, YOU! . . . greater spread and coverage.

Constant work by Holt and Conrad . . . patron listings for added pictures . . . polaroid photos on the spot . . . football stars featured in "Know Your Players" . . . help from every source to make possible our dream of Progress '59! . . . letters to every patron producing suggestions, best wishes for success, ads, listings!

Trips to Staunton, Verona, Waynesboro and Harrisonburg . . . support from our Charlottesville patrons . . . appreciation from each of us to them for helping us make progress!

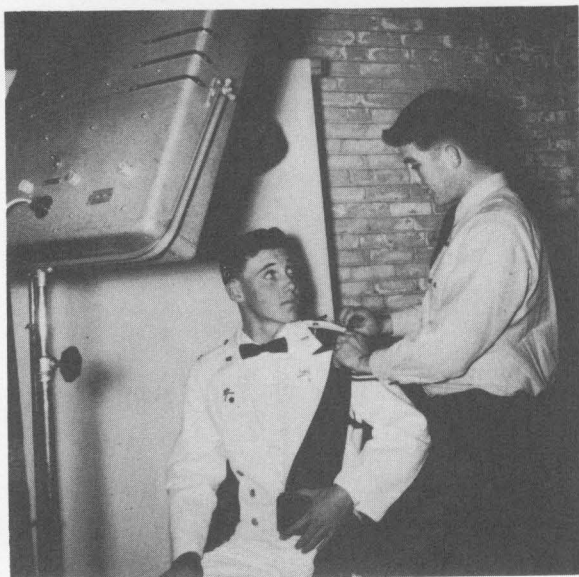

Thanks to Col. Roller for his support and enthusiasm . . . to our friends in the area for what they do for us . . . to Stone's for their advice and help . . . to Andre Studios for their understanding . . . to Hal Dillon for his pictures in a minute . . . to Mike Wiese for his unending work . . . to all of you who subscribed—a record number . . . progress '59!

RALLY 'ROUND THE FORT . . . that's what the boys do every afternoon! It's because Mr. Hulvey and Mr. Garber become a real part of life at AMA! Bob Smoyer and Tom Hale find that Ron Rhicard and Tom Petty give them "Southern" service.

RED METAL MONSTER . . . it added a lot to spare time at Augusta. Two machines meant more soft drinks, more readily available! Garay makes use of the machine . . . everyone did!
